CHINESE WRECK AMERICAN EMBASSY

MAMMOTH JOB—Compiling a city directory for the Dunn-Erwin area was a huge job. This week the thick, firmly bound volume was laying on many desks in Dunn, and already starting to get lots of thumbing. Business houses here, who find plenty of use for the directory, were glad to have it started—its the first in Dunn history. Its makers weren't exactly shy in displaying the advertising which paid for the compiling; every inch of available space is occupied. (Record Photo by Ted Crail.)

Ike Pledges No Politics On Security

TRENTON, N. J., (UP)—President Eisenhower said today "we will not play politics with our people and blithely promise them a tax cut at the expense of our national security."

Eisenhower addressed, by telephone from the capital, a regional Republican conference here. It was the sixth and final such conference prior to a meeting of GOP leaders from all states in Washington June 7.

"Some allege that this administration is against a tax cut," Eisenhower said. "We showed our belief on this point in 1954 when we had the largest cut in history—$7,400,000,000."

"Careful planning of our budget, coupled with continued healthy economic growth, will result in our income materially exceeding our expenses," he said. "Then it will be possible to justify another tax cut for every taxpayer."

"But I must make this clear," Eisenhower said. "We will not play politics with our people and blithely promise them a tax cut at the expense of our national security. We will not return to deficit financing. We will not stop payments on the national debt."

The President again called on Congress to permit him to veto specific items in appropriation bills instead of the entire measure or more.

"This power—now held by the governors of many states—would let the President cut out of appropriation bills some expensive and unnecessary projects," he said. "If the item veto existed right now, I could easily do some serious expense cutting."

ROTARY GOVERNORS

LUCERNE, Switzerland (AP)—Four North Carolinians have been elected governors of Rotary International districts at the 48th annual convention here.

They are Harry B. Finch, former mayor of Thomasville; Clarence M. Abernethy of Lenoir, County School Supt. W. Eugene Edwards, Wilmington florist; and State Rep. C. Gordon Maddrey of Ahoskie.

SLIP OF THE LIP

JACKSONVILLE, N. C. (AP)—Attorney E. W. Summersill had a slip of the tongue in calling witnesses to the stand in superior court here. The witnesses were Maryland Jones and Monroe Murrill. Summersill called, "Marilyn Monroe."

The milling and yelling students built a bonfire in U.S. Highway 6 that runs past the university, tying up traffic about two or three blocks each way.

Sheriff's deputies held two students, Bruce Ducholz, 19, and Bill Carmany, 29, on open charges.

The rioting students marched to the home of President Ralph W. McDonald, where they burned him in effigy. (Dr. McDonald twice ran for Governor of North Carolina.)

McDonald said two fraternities had violated the university's liquor regulations at two social functions. He said a penalty was scheduled to be handed down today.

The fraternities, Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Chi, had been asked to turn over to university authorities the names of students involved in the drinking.

The mob formed, witnesses said, in front of the Delta Tau Delta house and then moved to different sections of the campus. The group reportedly tried to break into a sorority house but was blocked when campus police arrived on the scene.

"This thing apparently rose from a deep resentment on the part of particularly two of the fraternities and perhaps some others over the university's liquor regulation enforcement," McDonald said.

Only one injury was reported. City Fireman Darrell Mills was thrown to the pavement and fumbled by several students while trying to put out the fire. Mills suffered a sprained wrist.

Judge Malcolm B. Seawell presided over a wide assortment in the criminal term of Harnett Superior Court just concluded at noon today. He will continue to sit in Harnett through next week, since a week-long civil term will start on Monday.

CAMPBELL GRADUATION

Ceremonies beginning Campbell College's 70th commencement will begin Sunday with a baccalaureate sermon by Dr. Solon B. Cousins in the D. Rich Memorial Auditorium at 11 a.m. Graduation exercises are scheduled for Friday at 11 with Chancellor R. B. House of UNC giving the address.

Ruby Outsmarts 'Em Again, Avoids Prison

Dunn Barmaid Fined $2,000; Judge Brings Tears To Eyes

By LOIS BYRD
Record Staff Writer
Mrs. Ruby Tart of Dunn, attractive bootlegger pictured by a State witness as dispensing her liquid wares from an air-conditioned kitchen, unexpectedly tendered a guilty plea to liquor law violations late today in Harnett Superior Court.

Mrs. Tart faced two counts, one for illegal possession of nontax paid whiskey and another for sale of the illegal beverage. Judge Malcolm B. Seawell immediately sentenced the slim, smartly dressed woman to two years in Woman's Prison on the first count, suspended five years on payment of $1,000 fine and exacting conditions.

On the illegal sale accusation she drew a similar two years Prison term, to begin at the end of the first. This sentence was suspended five years on payment of a second $1,000 fine and similar rigid conditions.

Meantime, the judge in his judgement made it plain that she also would have to serve a third year term — or a total of six years — on a suspended sentence imposed in May 1955. At that time she also paid a fine of $2,000.

The prison terms were suspended on condition Mrs. Tart violate no law, neither possess, sell or transport liquor; have no intoxicating beverages on her premises, and not allow any person in her home, or on premises she controls, to have any liquor.

Evidence Vanished
Liquor bought from Ruby mysteriously disappeared from the courthouse, which put the State in a bad position to win conviction before a jury.

"Had it not been for failure to have this evidence, I would send this defendant to prison immediately," declared Judge Seawell. "I know, and everyone within the sound of my voice knows, that the liquor was this woman's."

"As a solicitor I have prosecuted nearly 1,000 of these bootleg cases. They run in a pattern. This woman is flanked by two other acquaintances, also dressed similarly in an effort to confuse the identification."

Judge Seawell apparently referred to fact Mrs. Tart, smartly dressed in black with white hat, and gloves, was accompanied by her sister, dressed in similar manner, and a second lady also with dark dress and white hat.

Beat Up Nine Americans, Burn Autos

TAIPEI, Formosa (UP)—Chinese mobs wrecked the United States embassy and other buildings, burned embassy cars and beat up at least nine Americans in a series of riots today. The Nationalist government imposed limited martial law tonight.

The rioters, inflamed over the acquittal of an American soldier by a U. S. Army court-martial for the slaying of a Chinese peeping tom, overran and wrecked even the Taipei police station.

They also smashed the offices of the United States Information Agency and attempted to storm the headquarters of the U. S. military advisory group.

Nationalist police stood by without acting when a few hundred persons started demonstrating in front of the embassy. But this small crowd soon swelled to a mob of about 10,000 and then violence began.

Belatedly, the police moved in to stop the rioting and arrested a number of demonstrators. Their friends stormed the police station in an effort to free them.

Official Apology

WASHINGTON (UP)—Nationalist Chinese Ambassador Hollington K. Tong today expressed his nation's "profoundest regret" over the mob violence which wrecked the U. S. embassy and U. S. Information Agency buildings in Taipei.

He called on the State Department shortly after the department information building and all released official reports confirm in anti-American rioting.

ing that the inside of the embassy was "totally wrecked," and the bumpy transportation "destroyed." Tong said he believes, however, that there is "no deep anti-American sentiment" in Formosa despite the demonstration. He said he felt the incident was "just an outbreak of emotion."

Rep. Walter Judd (R-Minn.), an expert on Far Eastern affairs, said the rioting was an indication of the hostility which has developed in many countries as a result of the conduct of American forces while off duty.

Americans Guarded

The government tonight declared martial law in all areas where American installations and homes are located. All Americans were advised to stay off the streets.

Those who were trapped in the embassy when the attacks started were beaten by the rioters. An embassy official reported later all were removed to safety. He said their injuries were not believed serious.

U. S. Ambassador Karl Rankin interrupted a holiday in Hong Kong and flew back here to take charge. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek headed back to Taipei from central Formosa. Foreign Minister George Peh called an emergency cabinet meeting and then announced to Parliament that the government (Continued on Page Six)

These Little Things

NOTES AT RANDOM ON A HOT AND SULTRY DAY

At the Miss North Carolina beauty pageant in Morehead City last summer, Dunn's Becky Lee was by far the overwhelming favorite of the crowd. She received so much more applause than anyone else at every appearance that it must have been actually embarrassing to the girl was given the title.... A few people figured it was because Dunn had so many supporters at the pageant.... But that wasn't true at all.... There were twice as many people from Fuquay Springs, for instance, cheering for lovely Sonja Averette.... Last week in Roanoke, Va., a city of about 100,000 population, Becky was on her own. Citizens of Dunn didn't even know she was in the contest.... Roanoke newspapers report the same thing—that Becky simply stole the show from everybody.... At Roanoke, Becky, had 17 rivals—more and stiffer competition than in any of her other contests — but newsmen reported the rate wasn't even close.... Roanoke Jaycees are reported ready to lay cold cash on the line that Becky becomes Miss Virginia and will go on to win at Atlantic City.... Crafton (Open Air Market) Tart is back at work and his jaws are back down to normal after a first class case of the mumps.... "I'm feeling fine," said (Continued on Page Six)

Nude Body Of Girl Found In Lover's Lane

PARAMUS, N. J., (UP)—The almost naked body of a 15-year-old school girl, garroted with her own white plastic belt, was found in a glen just off a lonely lovers' lane Thursday.

The girl, Ruth Zittler, apparently the victim of a sex attack, was discovered by two small boys near the Saddle River golf course.

The body, stripped from the waist down, her blouse and brassiere torn, was lying in a recess about 200 feet off the roadway.

It was the second sex murder of a 15-year-old girl in the area in recent months and spurred police in their search for another missing girl, Shirley Ann Pepe, 15, of nearby Lincoln Park. Police said the murder of Miss Zettler was similar in some respects to the slaying last March of Victoria Zielinski, also 15.

Edgar Smith, 23, an ex-Marine, now is on trial in Hackensack for the lovers lane murder of Miss Zielinski.

Police said Miss Zettler apparently entered a car with "someone she knew and trusted."

An autopsy of the 115 pound girl disclosed that she had been dead (Continued on Page Two)

She Went To Welcome Wagon School

By TED CRAIL
Record News Editor
New York City, like those homes for people of nervous temperament, is full of all sorts of things you wouldn't expect.

There's Eartha Kitt for instance, playing a cat named Melitabel in a play called, "Shinbone Alley." There's the Metropolitan Museum, where you can find a mummy a lot easier than if you went to Egypt.

And now (the French would say "Viola"), it turns out there is even a Welcome Wagon School where all sorts of ladies with shiny faces and good hearts go to learn their trade and become Welcome Wagon Ladies.

This knowledge comes to us through Mrs. Harold Jernigan, who has been there, and who, in fact, is now the fully-trained, chief welcome for all the new folks who filter into Dunn and surrounding from other places. She left for New (Continued on Page Two)
