

BULLETINS

ANGEL'S PEAK, Nev., (UP)—Whitney, the oft-postponed, "hard luck" nuclear test of the Atomic Energy Commission's Operation Plumbob, sent a thunderclap across the Nevada desert today as it exploded atop a 500-foot steel tower. The device, finally detonated as the 2nd scheduled test of the summer series, had a yield estimated at the equivalent of 15,000 tons of TNT as it vaporized its tower and blossomed into a glowing ball of fire that faded within seconds.

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Deliberations in the Confidential magazine sixth day today with no sign that the six men and six women jurors had reached even partial agreement on a verdict.

PONTE DELGADA, Azores (UP)—Hope was all but abandoned today for 87 youths aboard the four-masted German training bark Pamir, hit by the full fury of hurricane Carrie and feared to have foundered in mid-Atlantic. The 52-year-old square rigged ship apparently sank with all hands some 600 miles off the Azores. There were 35 crew men and 52 sea cadets aboard, all between 16 and 18. It was the first trip to sea for many.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., (UP) — Prime Minister John D. Deifenbaker of Canada makes his first appearance before the U. N. General Assembly today to present his government's position on major international problems.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (UP)—The Haitian army was alerted today for possible "trouble" when results of Sunday's first presidential elections since 1950 are announced. Vote counting was underway and first unofficial results may be known during the day.

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower makes a one-day visit to Washington today for a busy schedule of speeches and conferences. Tops on the list were meetings with Crown Prince Feisal of Saudi Arabia and Attorney General Herbert Brownell.

FARNWORTH, England (UP)—Farnworth Mayor John Seddon reported today that nearly $20,000 has been collected in a disaster fund for 17 families who lost their homes when a gaping hole opened suddenly in the ground here 11 days ago.

CHICAGO (UP)—Carol Kozark, 21, a tabulating machine operator, has no faith in numbers when it comes to catching bridal bouquets. "I've caught a dozen bouquets without a proposal," Miss Kozark said. "Maybe they ought to throw me instead."

HIROSHIMA, Japan (UP)—Doctors said today that 51-year-old Yoshio Naramoto, who died here yesterday, was the year's 25th victim of radiation effects from the 1945 atomic bombing of Hiroshima.

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector, (UP)—Only 37 cases of polio were reported in Israel this summer compared with a minimum of 300 cases in previous years since 1950, the Israeli health ministry reported today.

Five Given Terms For Prostitution

FAYETTEVILLE — Two Negro women and three white youths received terms Tuesday after being found guilty on charges of prostitution and aiding and abetting prostitution.

Bertha Lloyd and Louise Hill Murchison road, each was sentenced to serve two years in women's prison. Donald E. Tucker, Hq. Co., 44th Tank Bn., Philip L. Ryder, Hq. Co., 504th Inf., and Owen R. Childress, Hq. Co., 504th Inf., all of Fort Bragg, were sentenced to 30 days each. Bertha Lloyd gave notice of appeal to superior court, and her appeal bond was set at $1,000. Sheriff's deputy Roland Horne told the court he and another officer went to Bertha Lloyd's home Sept. 10 and as he went around to the back two of the boys ran from the house. Another was found inside the house.

He said the youths told him they had paid seven dollars for the favors of the Hill woman. Both she and Bertha Lloyd denied the charges.

Officer Horne said the house has the worst reputation for being a house of prostitution on the Murchison road it is located about two blocks from the Tavern in the Pines," notorious Negro night spot.

Two Watchtower Leaders In Area

DURHAM — Two officials of the Watchtower Society have arrived in the city for an official visit with the Durham congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses and for appearances in the Durham area. They are L. E. Reusch, district supervisor, and H. P. Woodworth, circuit supervisor.

While here Reusch and Woodworth will accompany members of the local congregation on visits to residents throughout the city to conduct Bible studies. Their stay here will end Sunday when they will address the local Jehovah's Witnesses at a 6 p.m. service in the Holloway Street Kingdom Hall.

Reusch will be the principal speaker at the Witnesses' convention in Greensboro Sept. 27-29. He also will show a free educational film at the Hillsboro High School tonight at 7 o'clock.

Reusch supervises district No. 17 which includes circuits and congregations in the Carolinas, Kentucky, Tennessee and Southern Indiana.

Woodworth supervises the 21 congregations in North Carolina Circuit No. 2, which is comprised of congregations between Goldsboro and Greensboro. The major reason for his visit is to aid new ministers in developing greater efficiency in their ministry.

MRS. P. W. MATTHEWS, JR.

Lillington Man Weds West Virginia Girl

A marriage of interest to Lillington took place Sunday, Sept. 15 in Sophia, West Va. when Miss Christine Pate was married to P. W. Matthews, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Matthews of Lillington.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Pate of Sophia.

Wedding vows were exchanged at 2 p.m. in the Methodist Church of Sophia. The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and white pom poms in a background of greenery.

Rev. Bill D. Brown officiated, and music was furnished by Mrs. Lionel Travis.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Chester E. Page, wore a ballerina length gown of imported white silk eyelet over satin. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of pearls. She carried a white prayer book, topped with a cascade bouquet of white feathered carnations and an orchid.

Miss Janette Johnson of Sophia, West Va. was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina gown of turquoise lace over satin, and her bouquet was of pale pink carnations.

Billy Ray Matthews of Lillington, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Mrs. Pate, mother of the bride, wore a black dress with black accessories and had a corsage of pink rose buds. Mrs. Matthews, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in a pink wool jersey with brown accessories and her flowers were white roses.

A reception followed in the Friendship Hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with an imported linen cloth. The three-tiered wedding cake was encircled with pink pom poms and greenery.

On their return from a wedding trip, the couple will reside at 1315 Arlington Drive, Alexandria, Va.

Mrs. Matthews is a graduate of Sophia High School, Sophia, West Va. Prior to her marriage, she was employed by Pan American World Airways, Inc. in Miami, Fla.

Mr. Matthews, a graduate of Embury Riddle School of Aviation, Miami, is now employed by Capital Airlines in Washington, D. C. Mr. Matthews attended Campbell College two years, one year prior to his four years in the Air Force, and another on his return from service.

Lillington guests at the wedding included Mrs. P. W. Matthews, mother of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. John Pat Hamilton, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Matthews, and Neill McKay Salmon, Jr.

Miss Faye McDonald Weds Edgar Reel Bain

Miss Faye Allison McDonald and Edgar Reel Bain pledged their wedding vows in a ceremony solemnized on Sunday, Sept. 22 at 4:30 p. m., in Harmony Baptist Church. The Rev. Claude Graham, pastor of the bride, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene D. McDonald of Lillington. Mr. Bain is the son of Mrs. Evander Bain and the late Mr. Bain, also of Lillington.

Golden chrysanthemums and evergreens decorated the sanctuary, and attendants to the bride were gownned in dresses in shades of beige, with flowers that ranged from gold to bronze.

Miss Gladys Johnson of Lillington, pianist, and William Morgan, vocalist of Columbia, S. C., rendered wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bridal gown of antique silk taffeta and lace. The chantly lace bodice, designed with long tapering sleeves, had a keyhole neckline, with slight scallops edged with sequins. The bodice tapered to a point in front, and featured a crushed cummerbund of taffeta. The full skirt flowed into a chapel train. Her finger tip veil fell from a small lace cap which had a tiara of lace and pearls. She wore a lavalier which was a family heirloom, and had a bouquet of white roses and an orchid, showered with Stephanotis.

Mrs. Glenn Morton of Albemarle, the former Miss Jolee McDonald and sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a lace sheath, styled with a scoop neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The dress had a full net overskirt of the same shade and she carried a bouquet of yellow mums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Audrey Huggins of Raleigh and Lillington and Mrs. Peyton Odum of Erwin, sister of the bridegroom. They were dressed in pale beige lace sheaths. The gowns were identical in design to that of the matron of honor, and their flowers were bronze chrysanthemums.

Flower girls were Cindy Bottiglier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Bottiglier, and Carmen Sherman, daughter of the Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sherman. Their dresses were beige taffeta with puffed sleeves and a net overskirt with sash tied in a bow at the back at the Empire.

The bride was graduated from Lillington High School and received an A. A. degree from Campbell College with a major in commercial subjects.

Mr. Bain, who is the new legal assistant to Associate Justice Jeff Johnston of the N. C. Supreme Court, is a recent graduate of the Wake Forest Law School. He was admitted to the N. C. Bar Association in August. He was graduated from Lillington High School, attended Campbell College and received an undergraduate degree from Wake Forest College. At the law school he was a member of Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity, and received other scholastic honors.

The bridal couple will make their home with the bridegroom's mother for a month prior to moving to Raleigh.
