

Bullard-Babb Vows Spoken At Antioch

On Friday evening at the Antioch Baptist Church Marners Miss Louise Idell Babb and Eugene Vadrin Bullard were united in marriage. The Rev. Walter F. Gentry officiated.

Music was presented by Mrs. L. C. Pinnix of Lillington, pianist, and Mrs. E. B. O'Quinn soloist. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Lee Babb of Lillington and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bullard, also of Lillington.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina dress of lace and net over taffeta and a finger tip veil of illusion attached to a tiara. She carried a prayer book with a white orchid.

Miss Genease Babb, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of yellow taffeta. Bridesmaids were Miss Laure Lee Babb, sister of the bride, Miss Janice Bullard and Mrs. Mary Jo Patterson, sisters of the bridegroom and Mrs. Catherine Bullock. They wore dresses of pink and blue taffeta and carried nosegays of mixed flowers.

Quinton Bullard of Ashboro was his brother's best man. Ushers were James Britton O'Quinn of Fayetteville, cousin of the bride, Johnny Lancaster of Greensboro, Richard Patterson of Broadway and Reynolds Mason of Marners. After a wedding trip, the couple will live in Greensboro.

MRS. FAY HOYLE CULBRETH

Culbreth-Warren Vows Are Solemnized Saturday

Miss Winifred Ann Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Holman Warren of Dunn, became the bride of Dr. Fay Hoyle Culbreth of Charlotte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoyle Culbreth of Spindale, on Saturday, September 21st at 7:30 o'clock in the Bethesda Friends Church.

The Rev. Hershel Hill, former pastor of the bride, of High Point, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Tall baskets of white chrysanthemums, glads, and pom poms, and emerald palms formed an effective background in the chancel of the church. White cathedral tapers in spiral candelabra softly illuminated the church. In the center of the chancel was an antique silver urn holding white chrysanthemums, glads and pom poms. The pews throughout the entire church were marked with bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

A prelude of wedding music was presented at the organ by Mrs. Henry Whittenton and the vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Lloyd Coats, Jr., both of Dunn.

Mrs. Whittenton's selections included "Evening Star" from "Tanhauser" by Wagner, "Thine Alone" by Victor Herbert, "Andantino" in D Flat by Lemare, "Meditation" from "Thais" by Massenet, "Traumerer" by Schuman, "The Rosary" by Nevin and "Salut d'Amour" by Elgar. Mrs. Coats sang "I Love Thee" by Greig, and "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" by Gounod. During the ceremony Mrs. Whittenton played "Clair De Lune" by Debussy. Mrs. Coats sang "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap as the response to the benediction. The bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" was played at the organ for the procession of the wedding party and Mendelssohn's Wedding March from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was used for the recessional.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. For her wedding, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight satin with the soon neckline appliqued in alencon lace and embroidered with seed pearls. The long sleeves ended in calla points over the hand. The wing draped bodice was attached to a voluminous skirt extending to a full cathedral train. She wore a mantilla veil, appliqued with alencon lace. Her ivory Bible was covered with a bouquet of Louise Georgiana orchids and a cascade of stephanotis. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Guy Paul Dixon of Morehead City, former roommate of the bride for three years in nursing school, was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length formal gown of seafoam green iridescent taffeta of princess design. The top was fashioned with a cowl neckline of a deeper matching green and the back was finished with two full length panels of the same color. She wore a matching iridescent taffeta green bandeau and carried a cascade bouquet of orange delight roses and green full-grown chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Luther Warren and Mrs. Clyde Warren, of Erwin, Miss Jennie Smith of Salisbury and Mrs. William Irvin of Greenville, S. C. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Warren, cousin of the bride, of Dunn, and Miss Gail Smith, cousin of the bridegroom, of Spartanburg, S. C. They wore capucine dresses and bandeaux identical in design to the honor attendants, and carried cascade bouquets of green full-grown chrysanthemums.

Little Miss Andrea Smith, cousin of the bride, of Parkton, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length gown of seafoam green iridescent taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice and draped neckline and a full skirt. Her headpiece was a matching green hat. She carried a miniature basket with rose petals.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Wallace Warren of Dunn, Miss Janice Best and Mrs. William Rochester of Erwin, Mrs. David Parrish, Raleigh, Mrs. Lois Knight Smith, of Goldsboro, Miss Betty Sanders, of Spindale, Mrs. Johnny Griggs, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Earl Warren of Norfolk, Va. They wore floor-length formal evening gowns of fall colors, and white chrysanthemum corsages.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length formal gown of blue lace with matching accessories, and a corsage of white colored-lip orchids.

Betsy Carroll Honored At Birthday Party

Mrs. Alton Carroll of Route 1, Dunn, was hostess to a party on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 14 on the spacious lawn at her home in honor of her daughter Betsy Dell's ninth birthday. The honoree wore a nine cut from white cardboard and showered with fern and red ribbons to match her costume for a corsage.

Misses Martha Hope and Mary Ella Jackson led the children in receiving line. Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Warden of Fayetteville directed to the guest register where Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warren presided. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warren of Norfolk, Va. directed guests to Mr. and Mrs. Landis Smith and Andrea who directed to the dining room.

The dining room was decorated in green and white and lighted by candlelight. The table, covered with a white linen cloth, was centered with a five branch silver candelabra with eucalyptus of room poms and tuberoses. Mrs. Charlie Warren poured punch from a silver punch bowl and on the opposite end of the table the four-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. David Graham, of Olivia, after the traditional first slice was cut by the bridal couple. Green and white mints and salted nuts were also served.

Miss Betty Sanders, Miss Janice Best, Mrs. William Rochester, Mrs. Louis Knight Smith, Mrs. Johnny Griggs, and Mrs. David Parrish assisted in serving.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Guyne Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Blake Warren.
