

Greenwaves Suffer First Loss

The Dunn High Greenwaves suffered their first defeat of the 1957 football season as the Clinton Dark Horses defeated them last Friday night by a one point margin. The score was Clinton 19, Dunn 18.

A capacity crowd estimated at 1500 people gathered in the Dunn ball park to watch two of the strongest teams in the conference meet. Harry Pope kicked off for Dunn and Clinton returned the ball to the fifty yard line. In the first two minutes of play showing the superb driving power of the Dark Horses, Jo McLamb, a letterman halfback, went over the line to score Clinton's first touchdown. The attempted conversion was no good.

In the second quarter Jerry Autry ran 13 yards on a pass from Harry Tart to start Dunn's offensive drive. Tart passed for a second time and left end, Larry Stevenson picked up 15 yards. Again quarterback Harry Tart passed, this time to right end, Tommy Thompson. Thompson made a spectacular run of 30 yards for Dunn's first touchdown. The try for the conversion was no good. This tied the game at 6 all.

Horace Pope, husky right half for the Greenwaves, ran for 20 yards as the third quarter opened. Thompson picked up another 20 yards on a beautiful pass from Tart. The Greenwaves scored their second touchdown when Billy Carroll ran for 20 yards on a pass from Tart. In the last minutes of the third quarter Gene Muslewhite veteran quarterback for the Dark Horses scored on a quarterback sneak. The conversion attempt, which proved later to be the straw that broke Dunn's back was good and Clinton led 13-12.

In the first minutes of the fourth quarter Dunn forced to kick. Clinton recovered the punt on their own 26 yard line. Harrell, half back for the Dark Horses, went over the line for Clinton's third touchdown. The try for the conversion was no good. Clinton led Dunn 19-12. Clinton was forced to punt and Murphy Taylor, left half for the Greenwaves, made a beautiful return with a run of 45 yards with another brilliant run of 30 yards. The try for the conversion was no good. As the final whistle blew the score was Clinton 19, Dunn 18.

Carmen Basilio 3-2 Favorite To Win

NEW YORK, (AP) — Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio is a solid 3-2 favorite to wrest the middleweight crown from Sugar Ray Robinson tonight in their modernistic ring spectacular at Yankee stadium.

Anticipated late support for 37-year-old Sugar Ray failed to materialize before weigh-in time today.

Despite the smaller stadium crowd, tonight's scheduled 15-rounder at 10:30 p.m. e.d.t. will be witnessed by more paying spectators than any previous attraction in history — sports or otherwise. Through the help of electronics, the fight will be shown on screens in 178 theatres in 135 cities in the United States and Canada, with more than 510,000.

The battle of champions between slender, debonair Robinson, 37, and raw-boned, dist-scarred Basilio, 30-year-old ruler of the welterweight division, will not be televised to homes. But will be sent to homes by radio NBC in the United States, Canada, Hawaii and some Latin American countries.

Five Big Powerhouses Play This Week

By FRANK LITSKY
United Press Sports Writer

The national champions from Oklahoma, already past possibly their biggest hurdle of the football season, relax this week while five powerhouses from the Big Ten make their 1957 debut and take up the chase.

Oklahoma rolled over Pittsburgh, 26-0, Saturday for its 41st straight victory with a typical blow-'em-down Sooner attack. Oklahoma's swift backs ran for 310 yards and three of the four passes they completed went for touchdowns in the outstanding game of the first collegiate weekend of the fall.

Now, with the Sooners idle until an Oct. 5 meeting with Iowa State, attention turns to the Big Ten, the traditional area of football strength which should be tougher than ever this year.

Big Ten Opens

Making their bow on Saturday are Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Ohio State, and the Rose Bowl champions from Iowa. All meet intersectional foes except Michigan State, which plays host to Indiana in the conference opener.

Michigan, a veteran team with depth to spare, plays Southern California, which took a 20-0 drubbing from conference champion Oregon State on Saturday. Minnesota, strong at every position except halfback, faces Washington, which played a 6-6 tie with Colorado.

Ohio State takes on Texas Christian, which had to settle for a 13-13 tie when Kansas connected on a touchdown pass in the last second of play. Iowa, ineligible to return to the Rose Bowl this season, gets the only breather of the Hawaii two weeks ago and has been idle since.

McKeiver Featured

The nationally-televised game of the week brings together Stanford, a 46-7 winner over often pesty San Jose State, and Northwestern, which features breakaway halfback Bob McKeiver, all five feet, four inches and 158 pounds of him, and little else.

The three major conferences in the South feature games which may go a long way toward crowning champions. Tennessee, the pre-season favorite in the Southeastern Conference, tests its single-wing power against dangerous Auburn in the curtain-raiser for each.

Duke Emerges As Top Team In Conference

By UNITED PRESS

North Carolina State's Wolfpack joins highly-rated Duke for a share of the early Atlantic Coast Conference lead this week but the Blue Devils leave little doubt as to who is the top-ranked team in the group.

The Blue Devils have disposed of one of their serious challengers while the Pack fears worst is yet to come. South Carolina's Gamecocks, picked as the most likely squad to topple the Duke powerhouse in the race for the title, held the Blue Devils to a tie at half-time Saturday. But Duke moving with the assurance of a good reputation, kept things under control for the second half of the season opener, taking a 26-14 win.

Meanwhile, the Wolfpack brought back bad memories for Jim Tatum's North Carolina Tar Heels, dumping them 7-0 in their opener for the second straight year.

The Blue Devils began preparations today for next Saturday's meeting on their home ground with the Virginia Cavaliers who held their own in a 6-6 tie with favored West Virginia.

Fought Hard Battle

For the Wolfpack this Saturday there is a trip to College Park, Md., to meet the Maryland team which fought a hard battle before bowing to Texas A&M Saturday 21-13.

The remaining conference game puts Tatum's Tar Heels against Clemson who crushed Presbyterian an 66-0 in its opener Saturday. In non-conference games, Wake Forest opens its season against Florida at Gainesville, Fla., and South Carolina plays host to Wolford which upset small college power Lenoir-Rhyne 13-6 Saturday.

The Atlantic Coast Conference stand out after a 26-14 win over South Carolina, runs into Virginia, which held West Virginia to a 6-6 tie. West Virginia, defending its Southern Conference laurels, should get an acid test from Virginia Tech, a rising power which upset Tulane, 14-13, Friday night.
