NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market today made a small response to the Federal Reserve's latest action to pump more credit into the economy. The reserve cut reserve requirements by half a percentage point, a move that will release nearly 500 million of bank reserves which can be pumped up to 3 billion in credit.

MEMPHIS (AP) — Police and FBI agents searched today for a bag containing $65,000 in jewels that disappeared from an airport limousine. It was the second large jewel loss here in three days.

WEYMOUTH, Mass. (AP) — The Navy today unveiled an experimental "flying saucer" radar research plane. The plane, publicly shown for the first time at South Weymouth Naval Air Station, is designed to bolster America's air defense perimeter by helping warn of impending attack.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Navy conducted a secret three-day search last week end for what might have been a foreign submarine lurking off the California coast. The Navy said the search for the "unidentified underwater object" had negative results.

SHEBOYGAN, Wis. (AP) — A congressman today demanded the Air Force stop armed training flights near urban areas as a result of the accidental strafing of two communities by a B47 jet bomber. Rep. William K. Van Pelit (R-Wis.) told Air Force Secretary James H. Douglas that lives were endangered when 20 - millimeter cannon shells ripped three homes and scattered streets Monday night at nearby Sheboygan Falls and Oostburg.

TOYKO (AP) — Communist China reported today that a new division of her "volunteer" forces in North Korea left Pyongyang Tuesday for home.

WASHINGTON (AP) — House investigators today summoned a Washington public relations officer accused by his boss of lying about a cryptic memo involving a decision on a disputed Miami television channel. They also called in Paul A. Porter, attorney for an unsuccessful applicant for Channel 10, and H. Earle Barber, legal counsel of resigned Federal Communications Commission member Richard A. Mack. Barber is a former protégé of Thurman A. Whiteside, Mack's financial "angel."

PARIS (AP) — A replica of the U. S. Vanguard I earth satellite and the rocket that put it in orbit will go on display beneath the Eiffel Tower next month.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Police learned Tuesday what happened to 25 sticks of dynamite that disappeared from a construction project. They discovered that Lexie Huet, 7, and Jay Hoston, 5, who live near the project, had taken the dynamite and — without incident — pulverized it.

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Foreign Minister Aliqoli Ardalan said today he would travel to the United States next month.

Jack Hooks

more than many solicitors do in a similar length of service. "For example, since Christmas he has tried three men for first degree crimes including Frank Wetzel." (And some of the criticism referred to was directed at Hooks when he tried Wetzel the second time in an effort to secure a death sentence rather than the life imprisonment to which he was condemned. It was complained that he had cost Lee County money by the trial — or that he should have rested with the results of the other trial.)

"As he says, it is supposed to be a part-time job yet he has had only one week off since Christmas. That week he spent at Duke Hospital.

"The district composed of Harnett, Lee, Johnston, Wayne and Chatham is big, big in size and populous in at least three counties. "Only Durham and Greensboro have districts," said Hooks. "Which pass the one hundred mark in cases and even compare to this district."

"Think back to 1948 or '49 when three men were sent to the gas chamber from Harnett alone in one year. The emotional strain with which he must approach his work is taxing.

"Hooks says if he were to retire now he would get one hundred dollars a month.

"After sixteen hard years, away from home most of the time — with assistants in some courts but not in all. He has no regularly assigned assistant, no staff, to move with him from county to county.

"I never get over the feeling that the responsibility is mine," said Jack, "however capable the assistants in each locality.

"We have more people, more officers and yet the public expects the courts to be conducted efficiently with the same setup they had 75 years ago.

"The present district should be halved, Hooks believes but he sees little likelihood of this happening. There would be objections in the legislature to any specific change and more so to a state-wide revision.

to replace Ambassador to Washington Ali Amini, who has been recalled.

MOSCOW (AP) — Russia disclosed today that it had inaugurated a new program for translation and publication of works by Jewish authors and poets.

NEW YORK (AP) — It may cost $1 to walk across a New York street against a traffic signal come June 1. A spokesman for Traffic Commissioner T. T. Wiley said Tuesday the department has decided to adopt an anti-jaywalking regulation that would allow police to hand summonses to pedestrians who ignore "Don't Walk" signals.

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther called upon the government today for increased defense contracts to help ease the unemployment problem in the auto industry.

HAMBURG, Germany (AP) — A network of six radar control stations, claimed to be the first of its kind in the world, will be built around Hamburg's teeming harbor.

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The Foreign Office said today that President-elect Arturo Frondizi will visit Brazil, Chile and Uruguay before his inauguration May 1.

"In less populous districts where solicitors are personally popular and not over-worked any change would meet with opposition from the solicitor and friends.

"Despite much agitation for a revamping of the judicial system, Hooks sees no prospect in the immediate future of changes to equalize the work-load.

"I have given the job my best efforts," said Hooks. "I have always felt my responsibility was to strive for enforcement of the law regardless of the consequences."

"Jack recalled that Judge Clawson Williams, known as one of the most vigorous of prosecutors, wore himself out physically in this same district. It took him many years to recover."

There is this final, characteristic note from Frank Lois:

"And for Lois' two cents worth, the solicitor's job calls for moral fibre. I'm wondering if those who take Jack's place will have it as he did. I expect candidates from Johnston or Lee to enter field now that they know of Jack's withdrawal.

Reign Of Terror Blamed On Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kohler Co. of Sheboygan, Wis., charged today the United Auto Workers subjected it to "a reign of terror one would have thought possible only behind the Iron Curtain."

The company's version of its bitter four-year-old dispute with the UAW was presented to the Senate Rackets Committee in a 50-page statement by Lyman C. Conger, chairman of the firm's bargaining committee.

Conger told the senators that "this reign of terror proceeded according to plan, the standard plan of the UAW-CIO." He said that "what has happened to this peaceful community will happen to any community that dares to disagree with the dictates of this all-powerful oligarchy."

He testified as the committee heard agreement on a report critical of both labor and management which will recommend several legislative steps to correct alleged abuses. The report is expected to be issued within a week.

Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy has been conferring with Republican committee members on language to be used on several controversial points. Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.), one of the four Democratic members, already has said he will file a dissenting report.

venient locations in the community, possibly at places where gravel and fill has been excavated, and provide bulldozer services at frequent intervals to cover the dumped garbage.

The Home improvement committee under Mrs. Johnny Wellons plans to encourage families to clean up, fix up, paint up and repair their own homes as their first project. They urged that all the families in the community participate in the Home Demonstration Club just organized at the Mary Stewart School. Meetings of the Club are to be held the 3rd Tuesday afternoon every month, with the next meeting scheduled for April 15, at 3:00 P. M.

also of Dunn on January 20.

Chance was accused of breaking into the home of his neighbor Joe Marchison during the night time. At the inquest Mrs. Selma Marchison testified that her husband was out of town. She said that she was asleep and awakened to find an intruder choking her and asking where the insurance money was kept. The family had recently received a $906 insurance check.

Stewart was shot near the Purcell home after Purcell told officers he asked Stewart to leave his step-daughter alone. Stewart allegedly had asked the young woman to go out on a date with him.

Judge C. W. Hall called for a tally of the jurors. Seventeen answered.

1948 model four-place Beechcraft abandoned on a farm.

A FBI agent said the plane was stolen Feb. 19 at Torrance, Calif., and the two probably had flown it more than 3,000 miles, stopping at numerous cities en route to Virginia. Their complete itinerary was not determined.

The plane wasn't spotted earlier, the FBI theorized, because its identification numbers had been changed.

A rifle, explosive timers and a check writing machine were found in the plane. The FBI said both men admitted cashing a number of bad checks during their aerial tour.
