

Some cloudiness, rather windy and turning cooler today. Fair and colder tonight and Thursday.

IKE SAYS U. S. WILL DEFEND BERLIN

Liz McRae of Fayetteville Gets London Role

Wanted Well-Stacked Blonde; Fayetteville Girl Fills Bill

By EARL WILSON
Special to the Daily Record
NEW YORK — CBS-TV producer Edwin Knopf wired from London last week: "NEED BLOND AMERICAN ACTRESS WELL STACKED."

This week North Carolina's Elizabeth MacRae jetted to London.

Winning out over several other blond, well stacked young ladies, Elizabeth—who looks like Kim Novak—was chosen for the lead in a TV play, "Magic Touch," which will be filmed in London and shown here in the Spring.

"Magic Touch" is an episode in a new dramatic series which debuts in New York on Feb. 18. It will be sold to CBS stations outside of New York under the name, "Rendezvous." In New York it will be called "The Rheingold Theater 59."

This is Elizabeth's biggest break so far in New York.

"It's fantastic the way things suddenly happen all at once," declared Elizabeth, whose parents, the James MacRaes, live at 914 Brook St. in Fayetteville.

"During the last couple of months not much has happened for me," she continued. "Then boom! In one day I get a great TV role, a free trip to Europe and I'm also earning money!" she laughed.

"This is the first time I've been to Europe, so I may stay a little longer than the five days it'll take to shoot the film. I want so much to go to the Louvre Museum in Paris," said Elizabeth, who's still pursuing a painting career, as well as acting.

"But if I can't stay, I'll even be happier because the only reason I'd come back right away is to make a screen test for movie producer Otto Preminger.

"Preminger's considering me for a Murder, which I've already read for. And he'll let me know if he wants me for a screen test while I'm in London."

Elizabeth was recommended for the CBS film role by the casting director of "The Verdict Is Yours"—on which she appeared last Thanksgiving.

"You know, in the middle of my second reading for the casting director of 'Magic Touch' the phone (Continued On Page Seven)

LUCKY LIZ WHO WENT TO LONDON

Car Slides Through Curve, Three Hurt

Highway Patrolman W. T. Harris said there would be no indictment in a one-car accident Monday night which sent three persons to the hospital.

Ray Tart, 24-year-old driver of a 1950 Plymouth which overturned on a sharp curve, was unhurt. Those sent to Betsy Johnson Memorial Hospital in Dunn were Franklin Jernigan, 25, of North Lee Avenue, Dunn; James Tart of Route 1, Dunn; and James Jernigan of Route 2, Dunn.

The patrolman said none of the three appeared to be seriously injured.

At the time of the wreck, Harris said, the road was wet and presumably slippery. Tart, he said, was apparently not exceeding the speed limit. The wreck occurred about 10 p.m. on a rural dirt road two miles west of Dunn.

CORONADO, Calif. (UPI) — Vice Adm. Clarence S. Kempff, 84, died Tuesday at his home after a lengthy illness. He was the second oldest vice admiral on the Navy's retired list.

"Honey" Wanted To Kill Her A Man

Stripper Is Held Under Heavy Bond

LAUREL, Md. (UPI)—A bosomy 19-year-old stripper was held in $10,000 bond today to face charges that she tried to kill a 22-year old companion in his parked car on a lonely country road.

Geneva Garrard, 19, who also is known as Jean Lewis and performed in a Washington night club as "Honey B. Darling," was accused of assault with intent to kill in the shooting early Tuesday of Robert F. McCudly, an estate owner from Charlottesville, Va. McCudly remained in critical condition in a Washington hospital after surgery for removal of two .38-caliber bullets from his chest and abdomen.

The 19-year-old stripper, a divorcee, was expected to be arraigned today, but a preliminary hearing was scheduled tentatively for next Tuesday.

The dancer still wore a G string and halter under a sweater and outer coat when arrested.

Miss Lewis said she met McCudly Monday night at the club where she performs. She left with him in his car when the club closed at 2 a.m., and drove to her apartment where she picked up the revolver before rejoining him for a pre-dawn ride into the country, she added.

They drove to a dirt road near (Continued On Page Seven)

Case Has Stiff Penalties For Everybody

After Chainings: 13 Children Split Up Into Foster Homes

By TED CRAIL
Record News Editor

The crime was like an enormous fan. Once touched, it spread apart, further and further, until there was really no end to it and won't be an end.

Thirteen children lived in the home where an all but incredible tale of beatings and bondage had come to light.

Each of those thirteen must be cared for, given a chance. And while Russell Allen and Irene Geddis were being packed away to serve their prison terms, the children left behind were quietly spirited into homes where the nightmare, if not forgotten, will at least grow dimmer.

The crime spreads out further than that, however, for in not so many months there will be still another child, another problem.

Irene Geddis is pregnant. She goes to prison carrying a child who will be born in March. She leaves behind, among ten others, a 16-month-old infant.

For the Harnett Welfare Department, yesterday was a sort (Continued On Page Eight)

THESE CELEBRITIES comparing dark glasses in yesterday's balmy (if windy) weather were two beauty college students rigged up for a sorority initiation. At left is Bonnie Jackson of Wade and at right Myrtle Chance of Erwin. Others initiated: Linda Summers of Clinton, Ann West of Turkey and Marie Pope of Clinton. (Record Photo by Ted Crail)

Found Nude In Bed With Man, Denies Selling

Vice Dolls Will Appeal Conviction

NEW YORK (UPI) — Virginia McManus, former Brooklyn high school teacher, and Beatrice Garfield will appeal their conviction on prostitution charges in connection with a $400-a-night vice ring, their lawyer said today.

Attorney Martin Benjamin said the two women would also sue Magistrate Hyman Bushel for illegal imprisonment in refusing them bail at the time of their original arraignment last Friday.

Miss McManus, 25, and Mrs. Garfield, 29, a previously convicted madam, face maximum prison sentences of three years. They were found guilty Tuesday of luring and offering to commit prostitution by Bushel, who set Feb. 25 for sentencing. Mrs. Garfield was also found guilty of allowing her apartment to be used for prostitution.

Two other women arrested in a police raid Feb. 10 on the $350-a-month apartment were acquitted.

Raiding officer John Murphy said he found Miss McManus nude in bed with Harry Evans of Houston, Texas, but he said she denied she was selling sex.

Miss McManus was acquitted on a loitering charge last October.

Evidence Shows Gangsters Run The Juke Boxes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress marked time today while the glare of its juke box investigation played on.

The Senate was in recess, and the House scheduled only a session of routine business. Many legislators were back home preparing for Lincoln day observances. (Continued On Page Six)

Assures Brandt At Conference This Morning

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower firmly assured Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin today that the United States will "defend" the German city against any destructive efforts of the Communists.

Brandt said he was given the assurance in a 30-minute conference with Eisenhower and Livingston T. Merchant, assistant secretary of state for European affairs.

"The President gave me the firm assurance that the United States shall defend the people of the free Berlin against any effort to destroy their freedom," the 44-year-old mayor said.

Brandt said the President also told him, "No Communist threat whatsoever shall deter the United States from the discharge of its responsibilities to the people of Berlin and that the United States will not be pushed out of free Berlin."

Brandt described Eisenhower as "pleased to hear that my fellow citizens are not in the least frightened by the renewed Communist threats against their city and that they are absolutely certain that the Western Allies will stand by them."

Soviet Russia has insisted that the four-power occupation of Berlin end by May 27 with the former capital becoming an open, unarmed city under some sort of international protectorate, possibly under the United Nations.

The United States and the other Western powers have rejected the plan on grounds it is merely a thinly-veiled plot for a Communist take-over of the city.

Teague Killed At Daytona

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Marshall Teague, nationally famous stock car race driver, was killed shortly before noon today when his Sumar Special race car flipped over at Daytona International Speedway.

Observers said Teague, of Daytona Beach, was trying to break the record he set Monday of (Continued On Page Seven)

Sold On Revolution Movement

David Blalock Likes Castro

These Little Things

By HOOVER ADAMS
THE HOPE DIAMOND JUST BIG OLD PIECE OF GLASS!

Ever since the fabulous Hope diamond was acquired by Smithsonian Institute there has been a rash of newspaper and magazine articles about the little old 67 1/2 carat hunk of glittering glass.

And every time the diamond is mentioned we recall the wry comment made about it by our old (Continued On Page Eight)

David Blalock, a farmer and rural carrier of the Haire's Chapel Road near the Harnett-Cumberland county line, is "sold" on the "26th of July movement" of Fidel Castro after a harrowing six-day experience in the middle of the recent Cuban Revolution.

Blalock, discounting rumors of Castro's moving in on the Fulgencio Batista government in the Caribbean nation, left the United States the Sunday morning after Christmas for a "quiet" sunny vacation with his brother, Alfred, in Reparto Fontanar, a suburb of Havana. Mrs. Blalock, the former Peggy Hockaday of Lillington went with him.

The "vacation" turned out to be a peek at a perilous leaf in the history of the turbulent Latin American nation. "We lived history while we were down there," says Blalock, who arrived at Internat-

(Continued On Page Seven)

S & H Unit To Be Here Fri. & Sat.

S & H Green Stamp Company's modern new 35 foot long merchandise mobile unit, a new idea in merchandising directed to the consuming public, will be in Dunn, North Carolina at the Winn-Dixie Store at 323 East Broad Street on Friday and Saturday of this week.

This van is now operating throughout the Carolinas by the Sperry & Hutchinson Company in co-operation with Winn-Dixie Stores and others who display the S & H Sign.

In the mobile unit the customer may find hundreds of items in the 15 hundred that may be obtained with S & H Green Stamps. She may make her selection with the aid of an attendant who will take the order and mail it to the nearest warehouse of the company where it will be filled and mailed pre-paid to the customer. The entire process will require only a few days before the order is received. The mobile unit is one of only three in existence. The others are being built. They are "Made To Order Jobs" each with its own air-conditioning, heating system and generating plant for electric power.

This unit is being used in com-

Expand J & W into Clinton

Dunn Men Now Own Second Supermarket

Two fast-moving Dunn men who made their start with a small neighborhood grocery have now opened their second supermarket.

Bill Woodall and Aaron Jackson, owner-operators of the J and W Supermarket on East Broad St.

thriving store half a block from their present location in Dunn. They built the J and W Supermarket here, building and all, two and a half years ago. They later affiliated their store with the Red and White organization, which is now have a similar store in Clinton. There, as in Dunn, it is called the J and W Supermarket. At present, Woodall is on-the-spot manager of the Dunn operation and Jackson is in charge at Clinton. For several years, the two men were partners in a small but made up of independent grocers banded together in a supply chain that helps to keep down overhead.

BILL WOODALL

AARON JACKSON

Their new market in Clinton is comparable in size to that in Dunn. It was formerly operated at the D & M by W. C. Martin. Martin, said Bill Woodall, will devote his fulltime to the meat business.

Brother Says Doctors Baffled

Mingo Girl Hit By Strange Illness

A mysterious illness that completely stiffened her body on Sunday night has released and Mingo basketball player Barbara Phillips has been brought home from Duke Hospital.

she was at home talking with her boy-friend when the attack came.

Carried to a car and taken to Dunn Hospital, she was transferred to Duke. A local doctor said he could not determine the cause (Continued On Page Eight)

Ervin Takes New Blast At Court

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-N.C.) charged today that on many occasions during recent years the Supreme Court has usurped and exercises the power of Congress and the states to amend the Constitution while professing to interpret it. Ervin said, "In so doing, the Supreme Court has encroached upon the constitutional powers of (Continued On Page Five)

Smith Again Heads Dunn Investors

Guyton Smith, one of the key figures in encouraging the expansion of the Bien Jolie garment factory here, last night was re-elected president of Dunn Investors.

At the annual stockholders meeting of the organization, he presented a report showing that $9000 of the longterm debts against the building they have erected have now been paid off.

The new Bien Jolie plant was financed by the investors three years ago at a total cost of $133,380.19.

Raymond Cromartie, secretary of the organization, said, "We really feel that more such operations in Dunn, encouraging industry, would be greatly to the benefit of the whole community."

"Our corporation is being operated on a sound basis and the (Continued On Page Seven)

W. GUYTON SMITH