VAUGHN, N.M. (UPI) — All but the most timid of 800 travelers were gone from this once-marooned community today as an Air Force helicopter flew nearby in search of others in need of help. Most roads were cleared of the deep snow which sealed Vaughn, focal point of New Mexico's second worst storm in history. Residents of the area went through more than three of the most harrowing days in local memory after the storm isolated the town Monday.

TRENTON, Ont. (UPI) — Two survivors of an aerial collision between two U. S. Air Force jet planes in northern Ontario were rescued today. There was hope other survivors might be located. A Royal Canadian Air Force and a U. S. Air Force helicopter each rescued one U. S. airman from the scene, 42 miles northeast of a radar station at Pagwa, Ont. Their condition was reported good.

LONDON (UPI) — Chinese Communist Premier Chou En-lai said today he is prepared to agree to an Indian proposal to withdraw all armed forces from disputed areas as a "partial solution" to the border crisis between the two countries.

CHICAGO (UPI) — The American Farm Bureau Federation ended its 41st annual convention Thursday with a defense of wages paid to migratory farm laborers. "Incomes of farm workers may not be high; neither are those of farmers," said a resolution passed by the nation's biggest farm organization.

HOMER, La. (UPI) — Defeated gubernatorial candidate William M. Rainach today threw his segregationist support behind former Gov. Jimmie Davis. He outlined a number of promises he said Davis made the segregationists.

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI) — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York headed toward Florida today on the last leg of his seven-state survey of his chances in a possible race for the Republican presidential nomination.

NASHVILLE (UPI) — The 35-year sentence given a 12-year-old Negro boy convicted of raping a white girl has been reduced to 10 years. A criminal court jury Thursday reduced the sentence of Joe Westmoreland, convicted last September for raping a 7-year-old white girl in a vacant lot. The state attorney general's office requested the trial because of the boy's age.

Rotary Club Christmas Party Held Thursday

Robert C. Bryan, president, presided at the Rotary Club Christmas party Thursday night at 7 o'clock at the Chicora Country Club.

Willard Nixon and Bob Hadley were in charge of the arrangements of the party.

Billy Hodges rendered organ music during the dinner.

Before the dinner was served, the group sang several Christmas carols.

The party prepared the salad, individual steaks, onion rings, french fries, butter, rolls, coffee and ice cream.

Wives of the Rotarians were presented gifts and the members exchanged gifts.

Lee Sandlin and his band furnished music for the dance which followed.

Mrs. Joe Rose Honored With Misc. Shower

The Newton Grove Community building was the scene of a miscellaneous shower recently honoring Mrs. Joe Rose, recent bride.

Hostesses were Mrs. Charles McLamb, Mrs. Adell Bradshaw, Misses Sylvia McLamb and Jackie Giddens.

Upon arrival, Mrs. Rose was presented a corsage of pink carnations.

Games and contests were directed by Miss Redethia Parsons, after which, the honoree opened her many lovely and useful gifts.

The hostesses served fruit punch, bridal cakes, nuts and mints to the approximately 55 guests present.

Mrs. K. M. Wood Entertains Church Class

The Cheerful Helpers Class of North Clinton Avenue Baptist Church held its Christmas party at the home of their teacher, Mrs. K. M. Wood.

The group went Christmas caroling and took food to a needy family.

Afterward, they returned to the home of Mrs. Wood and were served refreshments of ice cream, cookies, Christmas cookies, Pepsi Cola and candy canes. They gathered around the Christmas tree and exchanged gifts.

All members were present except two.

Dear Friends: We, the family of Minnie Dawson, would like to express our deep gratitude and fond appreciation for the truly warm and sincere considerations which you have shown and for the flowers and food stuffs which you have sent us during the illness and death of our loved one.

It often takes the death of a loved one for a family to really and truly realize the meaning of the phrase "Love thy Neighbor." This recent loss leaves no doubt about this feeling among the members of our Church and Community. With this sincere feeling of yours, it has left us with even a more deeper love and devotion for our Church and Community.

Again, may we thank each and every one of you, and God bless you.

Dunn Plays Tonight, Then Rests Awhile

Tonight in the Dunn High gym the Greenwaves will play their final basketball game until Christmas holidays are over and conference play climbs toward its peak.

A boy's team which has lost a single game and a girl's team which has lost twice will face Fuquay on the Dunn floor.

Varsity boys were defeated in their last try, a game against Pine Forest Tuesday night, but previously had racked up four straight wins.

Girls' coach Whitney Bradham described the team's win over Pine Forest, busting a jinx, as their best game yet this year. Dunn girls have been champs in Division Two for two consecutive years. Except for guard Janis Strickland, now playing for Campbell College, Bradham has his championship squad back intact.

Practice sessions will resume for the Waves after Christmas. On January 5 they will play Fayetteville on the Dunn court.

UNC, Duke Face Tourney Clashes

The University of North Carolina invades basketball badlands tonight in the seventh annual Kentucky Invitational Tournament while Duke faces the University of Alabama in the Birmingham Classic.

Pre-season Atlantic Coast Conference title contenders, Wake Forest and Maryland, clash tonight in regular ACC play and Clemson entertains Florida State.

The Tar Heels meet Kentucky in the second game of a tournament doubleheader. Winners of tonight's contests battle Saturday for the championship.

Wake Forest grabbed a late lead and then held onto it to defeat Virginia Thursday night 67-64. The victory gave the Deacons a 2-0 conference record while Virginia's record became 0-2.

Tennessee's eager young Vols outthrust South Carolina taking a 94-80 victory from the Gamecocks.

Deacon center Ray Chappell paced Wake Forest with 21 points, seven of them coming on foul shots. Virginia pulled to within 65-64 with one minute left, stole the ball twice from the Deacons and failed to score.

The Deacons hit 13 of 16 from the free throw line.

James Buchanan Will Be Tried

HAVANA (UPI)—Premier Fidel Castro announced early today that Miami Herald reporter James Buchanan will be tried by a "revolutionary tribunal" which could sentence him to death.

In a four-hour television speech, Castro rejected appeals from the Inter-American Press Association for the release of Buchanan, who was arrested in the hotel room of prison fugitive Austin Young.

Authorities in Pinar del Rio province had asked the Supreme Court to decide whether Buchanan should be tried by a court martial or a civil court which could not impose the death sentence.

Castro said Buchanan will be tried on charges of complicity in Young's escape from Pinar del Rio prison a week ago Tuesday night, 36 hours before he was captured in the hotel room where Buchanan was arrested about two hours later.

Rejects Appeal

The premier rejected an appeal from William Cowles, editor of the Spokane Spokesman. Review and president of the LAPA, who had argued that Buchanan should be freed because he had committed no crime.

"How can the LAPA say from abroad that its information shows the newsmen is blameless?" Castro demanded. "We have proof of his complicity, so the least they (LAPA officials) can expect is that he will be tried."

"This newspaper man will go before the revolutionary tribunals... The courts will decide according to the proofs before them, and then will take corresponding action. Meanwhile, they will have to wait."

Pays Hotel Bill

The premier charged that Buchanan paid Young's hotel bill and furnished other aid to the fugitive, who had been sentenced to serve 30 years in prison for "organizing an armed anti-government conspiracy."

Buchanan told army intelligence agents when he was arrested that he paid the hotel bill with money

In another note to policeman E. O. Byrd, Hughes said he was engaged to be married to Mildred Morefield, about 45, within the next week, but Mrs. Markland, a widow, was jealous and trying to prevent the marriage.

The note also said Whitehead had joined in arguments between Hughes and the woman.

"She (Mrs. Markland) was doing all she could to break me and Mildred up," the note read in part.

"Me and Mildred were engaged to be married at Christmas but we can't because of Dovie," the note said.
