

+ WEATHER +

Generally fair and continued warm today, tonight and Thursday with chance of widely scattered, mostly afternoon and evening thunder-showers.

The Daily Record

VOLUME 10

TELEPHONE 3117 — 3118

DUNN, N. C. WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 25, 1960

FIVE CENTS PER COPY

NO. 123

NEW EARTHQUAKES ROCK CHILE

CARAVAN STOPS — Dr. I. Beverly Lake, (second from left) and a Harnett co-manager of the Lake-for-Governor campaign, A. J. Stephenson of Lillington (far left). (Record Photo by Ted Crail.)

Caravan Wheels Into Downtown Dunn

Lake Makes Big Entry Here

By TED CRAIL, Managing Editor

Terry Touring Gaston Today

GASTONIA (UPI) — Gubernatorial candidate Terry Sanford told a civic club breakfast group today education, industry and improved farm income are the beginning points for a greater North Carolina.

He began a day-long tour of Gaston County with an optimistic report that "our campaign is receiving winning support. Our campaign has appealed to a majority of the people because it is for the good of all the people of North Carolina."

He said improved education, industry and agriculture were "the beginning points of our program for progress. These are the things that will build the kind of state which will provide opportunities for our boys and girls at home."

RALEIGH (UPI) — Democratic National Committeeman John (Continued On Page Eight)

Husbands Like Them — On Other Wives

Bright Note: The Bikini Catches On

Outlook for the summer: The bathing suit makers will save cloth, and sun tan lotion will be splashed on by the gallon. The bikini is catching on. Instead of sheathing themselves in yards of cloth, as grandma used to do at the beach, more and more American girls are going to depend on two handkerchiefs and a hope, according to department store experts across the country.

What do the girls think about bikinis? It depends mostly on (Continued On Page Two)

Thinks Hewlett Cost Him Seat In Senate

Lennon The Big Loser

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The big loser in North Carolina's Democratic senatorial primary Saturday will be Rep. Alton A. Lennon — the candidate who couldn't run.

Lennon feels, and a great many people tend to agree, that he could have whipped either Sen. B. Everett Jordan or his opponent, Addison Hewlett.

However, Lennon will be no more than a voter on primary day. He has no opposition in his Seventh District and he is staying clear of the Jordan-Hewlett

Girl, 15, Got $2,000 Week As Call Girl

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Police today held a 15-year-old girl in protective custody after she told them she earned $2,000 a week as a call girl.

The blonde girl, a native of St. Louis, has offered to cooperate with authorities in identifying bellhops and taxi drivers who helped her earn $50 to $100 fees, police said.

The girl's name was withheld because of her age. Her boyfriend, James J. Cookie Burner, was held by federal authorities on Mann Act charges.

Investigators said the girl told a sordid tale of being forced by Burner to make love for money and turn her profits over to him and bellhops and cabbies who steered clients her way.

She told investigators she worked at this gambling resort for two months, dating three or four men nightly. She said she earlier was a call girl in Quincy, Ill., and twice tried to escape from Burner but was beaten by him before he brought her here.

Actress' Former Hubby Guilty

NEW YORK (UPI) — Francis Peter Crosby, former husband of actress Denise Darcel, and six others were convicted Tuesday by a federal court jury on charges of (Continued On Page Six)

Ike Reports On Summit Meet Tonite

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower conferred with Vice President Richard Nixon today on the worldwide speech the President will make tonight on the summit failure and Soviet-American relations.

The President is expected to tell the American people — and the Russian people too, if the Kremlin will let them listen — that the United States must stand firm against threats but leave the way open for future negotiations with Russia.

Nixon met with the President for what the White House described as general discussion which included the speech tonight.

The White House today renewed its campaign to have the Russian people hear President Eisenhower's speech tonight explaining America's position on the spy plane incident and the summit conference collapse.

Stripper, Six Cons Quizzed

NEW YORK (UPI) — A grand jury was investigating an incident in former Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long's hotel suite here involving six policemen, a stripper and Long's bodyguard.

The bodyguard, Dick Davis, complained about the activities of the policemen — two detectives, two patrolmen and two lieutenants. All are expected to testify at a grand jury hearing Thursday. Details of his complaint were not disclosed.

The incident occurred shortly before dawn Monday in Long's suite at the Warwick Hotel. The former governor and his bodyguard (Continued On Page Eight)

SOMETHING WAS COOKING — Dunn's volunteer firemen had a more than usually pleasant drill last night. It consisted, in part, of a ham and egg supper, prepared in their kitchen on the third floor of the city hall (Continued On Page Two)

At Erwin Church, Big Improvements

For The Choir, Softer Lighting

LADIES HELPED — The Reverend H. T. Durden (right), pastor of the Erwin Church of God, and Sunday School superintendent Sam Tyndall (left) had plenty of help from everybody — especially some ladies of the church — in big expansion there. (Record Photo.)

Neon lighting for the choir, a vacuum cleaner that can go to work on $1200 worth of new carpeting and many other changes have transformed the physical plant at the Erwin Church of God.

Who Was the Faker?

Phony Phone Calls Blamed For Incident At Rally

A fake phone call by someone pretending to be King Roberts set up a racial incident at the Terry Sanford rally on Saturday afternoon a Negro minister declared today.

The Reverend R. E. Stitt, a colored Presbyterian minister who had received the phony invitation to the rally said, "I'm positive it was not the real King Roberts."

Roberts himself said it was his orders that turned Negroes from the gates after the phony invitation which apparently originated with some anonymous foes of Sanford's candidacy for governor. Sanford himself knew nothing of the incident, Roberts asserted.

The Negro minister, recipient of two calls from the faking party at the other end of the line, said he accepted the message at face value. Except for the phone calls, he said, he would have been unaware of the Sanford rally at the King Roberts ranch. As it was, he passed on word of the supposed invitation but did not head for the rally himself.

Since then, declared Rev. Stitt, he has called the real King Roberts by telephone and talked to him in person.

"On hearing his voice," he said, "I realized there was chicanery involved. The two voices were distinctively different."

To those who trade on the tobacco markets, few voices are as well-known as that of the colorful Roberts, one of Sanford's Harnett County campaign managers. His great ranch is one of the showplaces of Harnett County and made an impressive backdrop for the Life photographers who came to photograph a Southern political rally.

Roberts blamed "Lake supporters" for the phony phone calls and said he knew who was responsible but mentioned no names.

"I wonder how crooked politics can be!" he said bitterly. "That's as bad as it ever gets — for somebody to call and say it was me." last night. It consisted, in part, of a ham and egg supper, prepared in their kitchen on the third floor of the city hall (Continued On Page Two)

FATHER VINCENT STOKES

Whiteville Priest Coming Here

Father Stokes Will Leave Dunn Parish

After six years at Harnett County's only Catholic Church — an institution established here in 1907 partly from an endowment by tycoon Thomas Fortune Ryan — Father Vincent Stokes is leaving.

He has been assigned to exchange churches with Father Arthur Duncan of Whiteville and will go to the Sacred Heart Church there.

Bishop Vincent S. Waters, the leading Catholic official in North Carolina as head of the Diocese of Raleigh which covers the whole state, announced these assignments. Twenty-one in this diocese were moved.

Father Stokes, a Philadelphia native, built the congregation to 178 regular members while here though many who attend in Dunn come from the steady flow of tourists, up and down Highway 301. The highway passes within a few steps of the church here.

The transfer will take effect during the first week in June.

Today, as he discussed the Dunn parish he is leaving, Father Stokes occasionally puffed on a cigar and said he has had a pleasant and encouraging time in this stronghold of Southern Baptistry. Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Commenting on the recent declaration by a Southern Baptist group against a Catholic president, he said he considered such statements the work of a few. With the most minor exceptions, he said, he found a spirit of religious tolerance prevailing in Dunn — and compared occasional criticisms of Catholics (Continued On Page Two)

Death Toll May Reach 5,000 or More

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI) — Four new earthquakes, one of cataclysmic proportion, hit southern Chile today and brought new tidal waves and volcano eruptions. The death toll was expected to reach 5,000 or more.

Nine volcanoes which had been silent for half a century belched forth smoke, ash and lava over a wide area already devastated in the worst series of earthquakes in history of this nation.

Authorities said four new quakes struck the disaster area today and that one of them was grade 12 — of cataclysmic proportions. It caused another of the huge tidal waves that has wrecked villages all along the south Chilean coast.

The death toll mounted by the hour. Government officials who early today estimated 3,600 persons dead or missing said the toll probably would go over 5,000 when the full effect of the cataclysm is known.

Two new volcanoes on the shores of Lake Rinihue added their horror to that of at least seven already known to be erupting. Osorno, the biggest of them all, was belching fire that could be seen for miles. Puyehue also erupted today.

The earthquake was recorded in New York at a magnitude of 6.5 to 7 on the Richter scale on which the greatest quake ever recorded was under 9. Seismologists said "grade of 12" apparently was based on the Mercalli scale of intensity of which 12 is the maximum.

A 12-intensity quake is described as "damage nearly total; large rock masses displaced; lines of sight and level distorted; objects thrown into the air."

Sarasota Hits German Ship

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — The super aircraft carrier Sarasota sideswiped the German merchant ship Bernd Leonhardt 60 miles off the Virginia Capes shortly after midnight today.

Fire broke out on the Saratoga and the merchantman sustained considerable superstructure damage but no injuries were reported immediately.

The Saratoga, equal in length to a building 80 stories high and carrying a crew of 3,500 sustained damage to its upper hull and a catwalk. The fire, which resulted from a broken fuel line, was quickly (Continued On Page Eight)

Varney To Manage Pool To Open June 1

If winter frosts did no damage to the piping, the city swimming pool at Tyler Park will open promptly on June 1.

This will be the first summer that three swimming pools have been operating in this immediate vicinity — with the drive for a fourth one now going on.

One of the three pools is not completed yet and will be somewhat exclusive. This is the pool at Chicora Country Club, intended for members and families.

Golf pro Willie Perogy reported that the pouring of concrete has been half-completed and the pool should be operating by the time the hot weather really hits. Both junior and senior life-guards will be hired to watch this pool.

The Tyler Park pool will be managed this year by Glenn Varney (Continued On Page Six)

14 Harnett Schools Give Plans

Speakers Old And Young At Class of '60 Rites

While many Harnett schools are importing distinguished speakers for their commencement exercises, several others will feature outstanding seniors for that farewell to the Class of '60.

The office of Harnett Superintendent of Schools has issued a complete summary of the graduation plans for each of the fourteen county schools which will have seniors graduating.

Following is a resume of the activities for the benefit of parents and others who will want to attend:

Anderson Creek School Class Night — Friday, May 27th, 8:00 p.m.; Sermon — Sunday, May 29th, 11:00 a.m., Rev. George McKeithan; Graduation Exercise — Monday, May 30th, 8:00 p.m. — Speaker — Dr. R. Neill Scott, Un-

(Continued On Page Six)