Three Injured

Annie Laurie Johnson, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Johnson of Benson, Route 3, was struck by a 1960 Falcon being operated by Joseph Kirchoffer, 60, of New York City.

The officer said Kirchoffer had just passed another vehicle and met the Johnson vehicle head-on. Miss Johnson was treated for cuts about the lips, mouth and hands, and other bruises.

Kirchoffer was admitted to Betsy Johnson Memorial Hospital in Dunn with a broken arm and head injuries. His wife, Mrs. Ann Kirchoffer, 56, was badly bruised and shaken. She was admitted to the hospital for observation.

Both vehicles were a total loss. Trooper Smith indicted Kirchoffer for failure to keep proper lookout in passing.

Another Accident
In an accident that occurred Sunday afternoon at 5:15 near Village Open Air Market at the intersection of Highways 421, 55 and 217, Paul Harrington, 24, of Angier, Route 2 was indicted for failure to yield right-of-way.

State Trooper George Nelson Spaer, who investigated, said the accident occurred when Harrington, driving a 1953 Plymouth, failed to yield the right-of-way and collided into a 1962 Ford driven by Robert Edward Gaskin, 26, of Lillington, Route 1, headed west on Highway 421. Harrington was traveling north.

Damage to each vehicle was put at $100. There were no injuries.

Foreign Students

tions and eagerly exchanging views and information.

Setting for the banquet had been beautifully decorated by Mrs. A. C. Parker and Mrs. C. L. Corbett and their helpers. The delicious dinner had been prepared and served by Mrs. Paul L. Strickland, Sr. and her committee, with members of the brotherhood helping serve.

There was a Christmas musical selection by Miss Alexis Parker, accompanied at the piano by Tommy Hawley, and another solo by one of the international visitors, Miss Lourdes Cintora of Venezuela, now a student at neighboring Campbell College.

In addition to members of the brotherhood, high school seniors and college students of the church were present.

Former Dunn Mayor Emmett C. Aldredge presented - pronouncing their names as best he could - each of the visitors.

Each was asked to state briefly the reason he came to this country to study, to tell something about his country, some of his impressions of North Carolina and the U. S. A., and what he planned to do when he returned home.

Impressed By People
Lucas Savinol of Turkey, thoughtfully related that the thing which interests him most about the U. S. "is not the TVs, not the highways, not your educational institutions, but you - the people."

"If people are like you," he promised, "my son will come here, too, for his education. He will learn to take the good with the bad."

Wolfong Passl, who came from Austria to this State to study, spoke of his native Austria as being a bridge between the East and West.

Austria, he said, is rich in natural beauty, nestled in the Alps and marked by an ancient culture and appreciation of the finest in the arts.

Thanks To Baptists
Mrs. Jessie de Souza, a blonde beauty from Brazil, spoke briefly of her country and reminded the audience that 60 per cent of all the coffee consumed here is exported from her native Brazil. She voiced her appreciation "to American Baptists who have given to so many in my native Brazil the gospel of Jesus Christ."

And so it went:
David Liu, who came from Taiwan to study electrical engineering at N. C. State College, told of ricefields, bananas, oranges pine and sugar which come from his country.

Also from Taiwan was Wimo Sun, who pointed out that Taiwan is part of the mainland of China.

Others heard were:
Irene Domingo from the Philippines; Keyvan Eskandary, from Iran; now at N. C. State; Verona Chou from Hong Kong, now at Meredith; Marijatta Pirjoja from Finland; Shihade Nayfeh from Lebanon; Harry Dekirmenjan from Syria, and Jessie de Souza, also from Brazil.

It was truly an international meeting in fact, and an international meeting of the minds as well.

"Truly," said one local Baptist as he left, "if there were more meetings like this, there would be fewer wars and conflicts."

Declares Goldwater

President Kennedy's.
Both Goldwater, representing the conservative element in the GOP, and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, the New York liberal, are considered contenders for the Republican presidential nomination in 1964.

Discussion politics on a television interview, Thurmond said he would like to see a realignment of national parties that would give conservative voters more voice.

"I think a party ought to stand for something," he said, "and if those who thought alike would vote alike well then - then the people would have a choice. Now, both parties have gone really so far that the people don't have a choice."

Thurmond said both parties are pushing more and more for liberal legislation "and, in my judgment, finally it will mean destruction for this country unless there is a change."

Americans should demand a halt to liberal programs, he said, "because if they don't, then, in my judgment, this country can spend itself to death, and we can centralize more power here (in Washington) which regiments the lives of the people."

Thurmond also renewed his charge that the Pentagon is hindering efforts of military officers to speak out against communism. He said officers should stay out of partisan politics, but should be free to "give tough training about the enemy."

Negro Couple

Mrs. Hill when Mrs. Hill stopped in a line of traffic at the intersection of South Fayetteville Avenue and West Broad Street in Dunn.

SPEEDING CHARGED
The suit contends that McIntyre was negligent in failing to keep a proper lookout, in failing to keep the truck under control, that he was following too closely, speeding and driving in a careless and reckless manner.

As a result, Mrs. Hill alleges serious, painful and permanent injuries about the neck, head and spine. At the time of the crash, it is alleged, she was earning $48 a week as a employee of Wellons Candy Co. and that she has been unable to work since, has incurred considerable medical expenses and that the injuries will be permanent.

She asks for a judgement of $35,000 for her "serious and permanent injuries" and court costs.
