For their wedding trip to western North Carolina, the bride chose a navy silk dress, navy hat, white gloves and white patent shoes and bag. She wore the white orchid from her bouquet.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Campbell College. She holds a B. S. degree in primary education. The groom attended Pfeiffer College and Campbell and is employed by P. Lorillard Tobacco Co.

They will make their home in Fuquay.

Social Register Now Available

The North Carolina Social Register is making its appearance in Dunn and other cities of the State this week with presentation of the 1963 edition to eligible recipients, a number of whom live in Dunn.

Patterned after the New York, Philadelphia and Washington Social Registers, the North Carolina Social Register is the result of two years' preparation by the North Carolina Social Register Foundation.

It is designed to fill a long-felt need expressed in many cities and towns throughout the State for an adequate social reference containing the names of the most prominent Tar Heel families.

Listings include full names and addresses, maiden names of matrons, private schools and colleges attended, social club affiliations and the names of children. Preparatory schools and colleges which minor children attend are shown, together with given names of married daughters.

The Foundation announced that publication will be in early spring each year hereafter, the initial volume having been delayed by the magnitude of the task confronting the Foundation in getting out the first issue.
