Five Killed In Jumps From Fire

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI) — Five persons died jumping from windows, of a burning 22-story office building today in the heart of Rio's movie district.

Firemen rescued scores of persons from the blazing building but said others were trapped inside.

The fire broke out at noon on the seventh floor and flames rapidly isolated upper floors. Three men and two women, all identified as Brazilians, were killed when they jumped but missed firemen's nets.

The building was alongside the plush Hotel Ambassador but firemen said there was no immediate danger to the hotel.

Thant Declares We Missed Bus On Nuclear Ban

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Secretary General Thant said today the big powers have "missed the bus" on a nuclear test ban treaty and predicted that Communist China will explode an atomic weapon this year or next.

Thant told a news conference he is "not very hopeful" about the outcome of next month's projected high-level conference on disarmament at Moscow.

"From the present attitudes," he said, "I very much doubt that a nuclear test treaty will be concluded this year. . . . My feeling is that the big powers have, in a way, missed the bus in the Geneva negotiations."

Thant said Communist China's nuclear potentialities must be reckoned with in any disarmament negotiations.
"It will be very difficult, if not impossible, to prevent China from exploding an atomic bomb, possibly this year and probably next year," he said.
Thant said that modern history indicated that after the domination of Britain in the 1920's, Hitlerite Germany in the 1930's, and the United States and Russia in the 1950's and 1960's there are now "unmistakable trends toward new alignments."

Condemned Man Pleads

"Please Spare My Life"

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) — turned away, obviously emotional. Both men were visibly shaken: the ex-GI who had stormed the rocky beaches of Normandy and the little governor who had defied the U. S. government on the school integration issue.

His eyes moist, the husky combat veteran, now in prison stripes, timidly touched the shoulder of Gov. George Wallace. "Thank you governor, please spare my life," he said.

Wallace grasped the hand of James W. Cobern and quickly

"It is a sad and solemn duty the governor must perform," he said later. "I, like many other governors before me, wish this cup would pass from me."

Wallace, a former judge, has until shortly after midnight Thursday to decide whether Cobern will die in the electric chair for the robbery-slaying of Mamie Belle Walker, 35, a tavern operator, in December, 1959.

The white itinerant handyman made a final plea for his life at a hearing Tuesday before Wallace. Cobern, 39, begged Wallace hearing his first clemency case, to commute the death sentence to life imprisonment so he could "work with Christ."

IMPORTANT NOTICE

To All Residents Of The Town of Dunn

A new ruling by the Post Office Department now permits daily newspapers, as well as weekly newspapers, to be delivered by City Mail Carriers to homes in the town in which the newspaper is published.

In the past, only weekly newspapers were allowed to do this. The Post Office Department felt that the heavy volume of a daily newspaper would be to great.

Thus, we have been unable in the past to grant this home mail delivery service to hundreds of you who requested it.

You will be able to receive The Daily Record by mail at your home in the Town of Dunn.

To inaugurate this new service, The Daily Record will accept subscriptions AT THE DAILY RECORD OFFICE ONLY and for a very limited time only, at the reduced price of $4.50 per year, plus three per cent sales tax for a total of $4.64, paid in advance.

After the special goes off, the subscription price will be $8 a year, plus sales tax, the same as on rural routes.

This is a tremendous savings to you who have been paying $13 a year for delivery by The Record's carrier boys.

Incidentally, you will still be able to receive delivery by a friendly, courteous Record Carrier at the same price of 25 cents per week or at your favorite news dealer.

But you can save $8.36 a year by subscribing now at The Daily Record office during this special inauguration period.

We don't care how you get it, but we want you to have it.
