TUESDAY AFTERNOON JULY 2, 1963

Mrs. N. M. Johnson Fund Established

A fund has been set up by the Cornelia Harnett Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, honoring its regent, Mrs. Nathan M. Johnson, Sr.

The fund named in her honor will be applied to a local project in which Mrs. Johnson is interested.

The well known Dunn woman had compiled, edited and published a chapter history for the years 1921 - 61 carrying individual chapter members' histories as well as the chapter history.

Following is the text of the Resolution of Appreciation as prepared by Mrs. Le Roy C. Paul, chairman, Miss Vera Lee Thornton and Miss Jane Williams.

Whereas Mrs. Nathan Manley Johnson, Senior, Regent Cornelia Harnett Chapter, North Carolina Society Daughters of the American Revolution compiled, edited, published a chapter history for the years 1921-61, carrying individual chapter members' histories as well as the chapter history and

Whereas the committee was appointed composed of Mrs. West, Mrs. Arthur F. Pope, Mrs. I. Faison Hicks and Mrs. E. H. Bost, the committee served faithfully and efficiently, spending much time and energy in and procuring and placement of authentic Confederacy - Era articles for the Reconstructed Slave Cabin located on the Battlefield of Aversboro.

Whereas the above named slave cabin was moved to the battlefield as the outgrowth of Miss Sue Smith's work and efforts and the assistance of the Board of Trustees of the Chocora Chapter 801, United Daughters of the Confederacy composed of Miss Smith, Mrs. Arthur F. Pope, and Mrs. Nathan M. Johnson, Sr. The cabin was removed from Lebanon the Smith home on the Battlefield, and presently occupied by a descendant: Eugene Smith and his family a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Smith, desirous of making a special historical contribution to the War Between the States Centennial years, and

Whereas the NC Department of Archives and History cooperated fully with this project, assisting in the restoration by giving specifications which were historically worthy and authentic, under the chapter presidency of Mrs. J. Shepard Bryan, and completed under the current president, Mrs. Arthur F. Pope, and

Whereas Sunday, May 15, 1963 at Confederate Memorial Day exercises held at Chocora Cemetery on Aversboro Battlefield, the Cabin, complete with furnishings was formally presented from Eugene W. Smith Jr. at whose ancestral home "Lebanon" the cabin formerly stood, and

Whereas the President of Chocora Chapter UDC, Mrs. Arthur F. Pope accepted the cabin for the Chapter and presented the completed cabin to the people of Harnett County and the State of N. C. through the State Department of Archives and History's appointed representative, Mrs. Nicholas B. Bragg

Therefore be it resolved that Mrs. Arthur F. Pope, Mrs. Earl West, Mrs. E. H. Bost and Mrs. I. Faison Hicks be commended for their untiring efforts and excellent selection of authentic period pieces of furniture for the Reconstructed Slave Cabin, which was and added complement to the Cabin, and an honor paid to Mrs. Nathan M. Johnson.

Be it further resolved that the Cornelia Harnett Chapter NCS DAR be commended for the excellent liaison established between these two patriotic society local chapters in the completion of the purposes of this Fund honoring Mrs. Nathan M. Johnson, Sr. and

Be it further resolved that Mrs. Nathan Manley Johnson, Sr. be made cognizant of her great contribution in the publishing and distributing of her historical 1921 - 61 DAR Volume, as well as her participation in the completion of the Cabin Project, which is reflected in the response of the DAR chapter to the support of the Mrs. Nathan M. Johnson Fund.

A copy of these resolutions will be sent to the Dunn Dispatch, The Daily Record, both newspapers of Dunn, a copy be spread on the minutes of the Cornelia Harnett Chapter, NCS DAR, Dunn, and a copy be sent to the Chocora Chapter 801 United Daughters of the Confederacy, Dunn. Further, that a copy be sent to the NC Dept. of Archives and History, Raleigh, N. C., Mrs. Nathan Manley Johnson Sr. and to the Committee members of the Mrs. Nathan M. Johnson Sr. Fund.

Whereas, The Cornelia Harnett Chapter, NC Society DAR voted unanimously to honor its regent for her outstanding contribution by setting up The Mrs. Nathan M. Johnson Fund, its funds being applied to a local project in which Mrs. Johnson was interested, Mrs. Earl West made the first donation, and
