Patsy Arrington, John D McLamb Pledge Froth In Liberty Baptist Rires

MRS. JOHN DAVID MCLAMB

Miss Patsy Lois Arrington and John David McLamb of Greensboro and Erwin were married Sunday afternoon at three o'clock at the Macedonia Baptist Church in Liberty.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Gaston Arrington of Route 3, Liberty, is a graduate of Nathaniel Greene High School and is employed as a clerk-typist for Pennsylvania National Insurance Co. in Greensboro.

Son of Mrs. Randall Burchel McLamb, Sr., of Erwin, Route 1, and the late Mr. McLamb, the groom graduated from Anderson Creek High School, served in the Navy and is employed by Pure Oil Co. in Greensboro.

The Rev. Robert Gray officiated at the ceremony.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Italian silk taffeta fashioned with a portrait neckline accented with lace motifs and an empire bodice. The full skirt extended into a court train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

ATTENDANTS
Mrs. Larry Willard Prestridge, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. She wore a lavender dress with full skirt, lavender headpiece and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Bridesmaids dressed in mint green with matching headpieces were Mrs. Bobby Joe Wyrick, Route 10, Greensboro, sister of the bride; Mrs. Randall

Linden Pair Pledge Vows

Historic Colliers Chapel Community Church, Linden, was the setting for the wedding of Miss Lessie Gail Byrd and Jerry Lynwood Parker Saturday, June 29, at three o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. Wm. Howard Carter, president of Carter College, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Byrd, of Route 1, Linden. She received her education at the Pine Forest High School, Cumberland County.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Parker, Route 1, Linden. He, too, received his education at the Pine Forest High School.

The bride wore a white street length dress with matching accessories for the ceremony.

The young couple entered the church together unattended and stood before the altar to speak their marriage vows.

Music was provided by Mrs. Robert E. Lee, pianist, and Mrs. Sylvia Hubbard, vocalist. Appropriate summer flowers and greenery graced the altar for the ceremony.

BRIDAL SHOWER

On Friday evening, June 28, sixty-nine persons gathered in the Fellowship Hall of Colliers Chapel Community Church to honor the bride-elect with a miscellaneous shower.

Following the honeymoon to unannounced points, the young couple will make their home on Route 1, Linden, where the groom has built a new home.
