

GROWN UP—Doug Camilli lived up to great expectations. Doug, who was swinging at the plate almost as soon as he could walk, is shown at Ebbets Field in 1941, when his father, Dolf, was first baseman for the Brooklyn Dodgers. Except for size and uniform fit, catcher Doug looks much same while whacking the ball for the Los Angeles

That's a pretty tall order for a guy with an undistinguished .224 duled. lifetime batting average, but Burton managed it Thursday night when he became the eighth player in major league history to hit home runs from both sides of the plate in one game.

The shopworn, switch - hitting Burton, whose only other claim to fame is that he plays a hot trumpet off the field, accomplished Thursday night's feat while helping the Cubs beat the Braves,

Batting right-handed, the 27year old Chicago outfielder set off a six-run rally with his fifth homer of the year off loser Denny Lemaster in the first inning, then connected for his sixth homer while batting left-handed against reliever Ron Riche in the seventh,

To All Residents Of The Town of Dunn

A new ruling by the Post Office Department now permits daily newspapers, as well as weekly newspapers, to be delivered by City Mail Carriers to homes in the town in which the newspaper is published.

In the past, only weekly newspapers were allowed to do this. The Post Office Department felt that the heavy volume of a grant this home mail delivery service to daily newspaper would be to great.

Thus, we have been unable in the past to hundreds of you who requested it.

You will be able to receive The Daily Record by mail at your home in the Town of Dunn.

To inaugrate this new service, The Daily Record will accept subscriptions AT THE DAILY RECORD OFFICE ONLY and for a very limited time only, at the reduced price of $4.50 per year, plus three per cent sales tax for a total of $4.64, paid in advance.

After the special goes off, the subscription price will be $8 a year, plus sales tax, the same as on rural routes.

desire service

This is a tremendous savings to you who have been paying $13 a year for delivery by The Record's carrier boys.

Incidentally, you will still be able to receive delivery by a friendly, courteous Record Carrier at the same price of 25 cents per week or at your favorite news dealer.

But you can save $8.36 a year by subscribing now at The Daily Record office during this special inauguration period.

We don't care how you get it, but we want you to have it.
