

Briggs, Alexander, Thornton -Bracey Win Chicora Tourney

The team of Zack Briggs, Rocky Alexander, John Thornton III and Gene Bracey earned $65.00 each in golf merchandise. Pro Matthews and Alexander earned $125.00 each for their second and third place team spots; thus Alexander carried home $325.00 for the day to lead all pros in the trip to the pay window.

Chicora amateurs Taylor, Hutaff, Wilbourne, and Talton collected $42.50 each in merchandise. The day was perfect for golf, with cooler weather prevailing than earlier in the week, and the condition of Chicora's beautiful course drew high praise from the many visiting pros.

Alexander Top Pro
Chuck Alexander of Rocky Mount pro, was low pro for the day with a Sunday 68 which earned him $200.00 cash for his efforts. Zack Briggs, by virtue of his team taking top honors, also won $200 cash. His Chicora partners, John Thornton III and Gene Bracey earned $65.00 each in golf merchandise.

Second place winner among the pros went to the long-hitting Jim Higgins, Seymour Johnson AFB, who posted a fine 68, and third place spot was won by popular Gene Briggs of Nashville who shot a creditable 69.

Three teams tied for fourth, fifth and six places. These were Aubrey Apple, pro from Greensboro, playing with Fulton Godwin and Joe Long; Archie Clark, Jr., Fayetteville pro, playing with Duane Doffenmyre and Lee Best Johnson; and Joe Inman, pro from Georgetown, S. C., playing with Earl Jones and Blount Whiteside. These three teams posted 61's and all finished in the money. Tied for seventh and eight places were: Avery Beck, popular Whispering Pine, pro, playing with Thad Pope and Lloyd Coats, and Ben Riley, Washington, N. C., pro, playing with Dr. C. L. Corbett and Lou Bottiglier.

A total of one hundred and forty eight golfers participated in this popular event with play starting at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday morning, and it was 7:00 p.m. before the last scores were posted.

Looks Like A Re-Run

Oh no, not again!
It sure looks like a rerun of last year's race, with the flustering first-place Dodgers showing the same signs of folding and the surging second-place Giants moving closer to the top each day.

Dodgers, 5-3.
Slump-ridden Jim Davenport and Felipe Alou came off the bench to spark the victory for the Giants, who now have won 16 of their last 23 games. Exactly a year ago they had won 15 to 22.

Giants pecked away at Red starter John Taitouris and went ahead, 5-3, after Willie Mays hit his 29th homer with one on in the sixth and Willie McCovey socked his 34th with a man aboard in the seventh.

That was the pattern not only a year ago but Wednesday night, too, when the Giants moved within three games of the top with a 7-6 victory over the Reds in 10 innings while the Braves beat the

Makes First Start
Rookie right-hander Frank Linzy made his first major league start for San Francisco but was routed after giving up eight hits and three runs in two innings. The Vada Pinson's three-run homer in the bottom of the seventh gave the Reds the lead again but the Giants tied the score in the eighth. Hank Aaron's grand slam homer in the seventh inning dealt the Dodgers their third straight loss. His wallop came off Don Drysdale, who went down to his 18th defeat against 15 victories.

Cohen Gets Skull Split In Atlanta

ATLANTA (UPI) — Cocky Mickey Cohen, who sneered at the bombs and bullets of California killers, lay in a prison hospital today with a fractured skull, the victim of a touchy forger from South Carolina.

Cohen was sitting in the radio-television workshop talking to a guard when Earl Estes McDonald pounced on him from behind with the fish-wide pipe.

Cards Also Gain
The third-place Cardinals also took advantage of the Dodgers' setback to move within four games of first place with a 3-2 victory over the Colts. The Phillies beat the Cubs twice, 7-2 and 9-3, to move into a virtual tie for fifth place, and the Mets downed the Pirates, 4-2.

A neurosurgeon called in to Atlanta federal prison said "48 hours will tell the tale" of the effect of the bloody beating will have on the West Coast mobster. Officials said Cohen, serving 15 years for income tax evasion, was "progressing very satisfactorily" and would like. The neurosurgeon had to operate Wednesday to relieve the pressure on Cohen's brain shortly after a fellow inmate hit him over the head three times with a three-foot length of pipe. Cohen "spent a restful night" under sedation, sources said. Warden D. M. Heritage said

Heritage and FBI officials were quick to announce that the beating was the result of a "personal quarrel" between Cohen and McDonald, a 32-year-old forger from St. Stephen, S. C. McDonald in addition to his one-to-10 sentence for forgery, was serving 10 years for assault with intent to murder a fellow inmate at Leavenworth federal prison.

In the American League, the Red Sox swept a day-night twin bill from the Yankees, 14-7 and 5-4, the Indians nipped the White Sox, 1-0, in 11 innings, the Twins beat the Orioles 2-1, in 13 innings, the Angels blanked the Senators, 2-0, and the Tigers topped the Athletics 5-3.

ment." He was shot and wounded at least twice in California, and came through several other gangland shootings and two bomb blasts at his home unscathed. At the height of his career, Cohen squired beautiful, jewel-bedecked girls, lived in a $200,000 home with electrically-guarded approaches, and owned 75 suits. At time, a haberdasher, a jeweler and a florist — which police said were only fronts — he was adopted by some members of the Hollywood movie crowd as a tough-talking pet. He killed a man in a fight over a gambling debt, and got a "openers jury" verdict of justifiable homicide. He had to serve an earlier four-year term for income tax evasion.
