Rotarians Hear Exchange Student

Miss Nydia Maria Morales of Tjbas, Costa Rica, was the speaker at the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday night. The first exchange student to live in Dunn, she has been "adopted" by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Weeks, prominent Dunn residents. Nydia had attended the University of Costa Rica and will enter Chowan College Sept. 9, majoring in biology.

Rotarians learned about the customs of Costa Ricans from Nydia, who is here on a scholarship from the Rotary International Foundation, said the publicity director Howard M. Lee. Howard Bass presented the speaker.

The newly elected president, John Parker, presided at the 8:30 meeting held at Porter's Restaurant. Stacy Johnson was welcomed as a new member and it was announced that Miss Sylvia Wellons will serve as organist for the coming year. Guests at the meeting were Everette Peterson and Paul Crumpler of Clinton, Jack Owen of Wooster, Ohio; Bill King, a law student at Wake Forest College; John Bush of Raleigh, field director of Boy Scouts of America; and George Ortes of Harwood, N. J., operator of a super market there.

MOAB, Utah - Casper A. Nelson, state industrial commissioner, describing three victims of a mine blast here: "They had their heads in the ventilation tube trying to get fresh air. That's where they were when they were found."

NEWLYWEDS—Stephanie Wanger, daughter of actress Joan Bennett and producer Walter Wanger, poses with her husband, Frederick E. Guest II. The couple was married in New York City.

FIGHTING LADY—Miss Ngo Dinh Nhu, sister-in-law of the president of South Viet Nam, carries a flag as she inspects a paramilitary school which she founded in Saigon. The strong-willed, fiery First Lady of Viet Nam is the center of a controversy which involves the country's restless Buddhist and the ruling Catholic regime and the U.S. government.
