Judith Stephens Becomes Bride Of Wm. Neal At Erwin Methodist Church

MRS. WILLIAM THOMAS NEAL

Miss Judith Ann Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marley Stephens of Erwin, and William Thomas Neal of Raleigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Neal of Asheville, were married Saturday at five o'clock at the Erwin Methodist Church.

Rev. Carl Calloway heard the vows before a background of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and palm. Candles and an arch entwined with fern and mums completed the setting.

Presenting music was Sherill Stancil of Erwin, vocalist, and Miss Kay Varsho of Dunn, organist.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of satin accented by lace appliques with three-quarter length sleeves and scoop neckline. The skirt ended in a chapel train. A fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a seeded crown and she carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

ATTENDANTS
Miss Sharon Gail House of Raleigh was maid of honor and wore blue nylon organdy over tulle with a scalloped neckline and sleeves. Her headpiece was a carnation made of matching organdy to which a short veil was attached. She carried pink and blue carnations.

Bridesmaids, dressed in pink outfits made identically after that worn by the honor attendant, were Mrs. Sandy Higgins of Asheville, sister of the groom; Mrs. Allene Stephens of Linden, sister-in-law of the bride; and Miss Kathy Thompson of Erwin, the bride's cousin. The junior attendant, Miss Julia Ellen Stephens of Erwin, was dressed in blue.

They carried a long stem pink carnation.
The bridegroom's brother, Thomas Durham Neal, was best man and serving as usher were Joe Barbour of Clayton, Charles Stephens of Linden and Richard Higgins of Asheville.

The bride's mother wore an aqua lace outfit with accessories to match and the groom's mother was dressed in pink lace with matching accessories. Both wore white mum corsages.

After a honeymoon in the Great Smokie Mountains, the couple will be at home at Lake Wheeler Mobile Estates, Raleigh. For travel she wore a rose line and sleeves. Her headpiece was a carnation made of matching organdy to which a short

Mrs. Neal, a graduate of Erwin High School and Worth Business College in Fayetteville, is employed at N. C. State College. Her husband, a senior at State College majoring in civil engineering, also attended Mars Hill Junior College.

CAKE CUTTING
Following rehearsal on the eve of the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens entertained at a cake cutting at the church.

The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow glads, mums and fern.

A three tiered wedding cake was served after the couple had cut the traditional first slice. Also served were nuts, mints and punch.
