

Weather

Fairly cloudy with scattered showers or thundershowers in mountains today and mainly east of mountains tonight. Continued warm but turning cooler west portion tonight.

The Daily Record

What They Think!

By Russell Bassford
Record Photographer

Today's Question
Would you rather study at school or at home? Why?

VICKIE COBB
Daughter of Police Chief and Mrs. Cobb.
"I'd rather study in school because I like to play when I get home."

NANCY JACKSON
A visitor from Raleigh
"I had rather do it in school and get it over with. There are other things I like to do when I get out."

JACKIE BRADSHAW
"I'd rather do it at night. I like to put it off as long as I can."

LINDA WILLIAMS
Dunn High Student
"I like to do my math and English at school and do the subjects that require reading at home. It works better that way."

REVOLT IS SMASHED IN BRAZIL

ACCUSED COUNTERFEITERS — Pictured here Wednesday night in Dunn police headquarters shortly after their arrest by Secret Service agents are three alleged members of a widespread counterfeit ring. Left to right are: Billy Ray Johnson, 27, Dunn, Route 3 carpenter; Jacob McKinley Stewart, 33, 904 S. McKay Ave., Dunn, a painter, and Robert Wilson, 36, of Wilson, a printer and an ex-convict who served term for murder of a man at Fayetteville. Johnson also has a criminal record, said he graduated from Jackson Training School for truancy. Wilson learned that printing trade while serving the prison term. Johnson and Stewart posted bonds of $1,000 each before U. S. Commissioner Abe Elmore and Wilson was jailed in default of $10,000 bond. They were indicted Monday by Federal grand jury in Raleigh. (Daily Record Photo.)

But Rebels Still Hold Barracks And Airport

BRASILIA, Brazil (UPI) — Army tanks and paratroops quickly broke the back of a pocket revolt of enlisted men of three military services today but rebels still held a barracks and the airport 10 hours after the uprising flared.

One rebel marine was killed, two were wounded and more than 200 captured in early fighting. President Joao Goulart, vacationing at Porto Alegre, in the south, was reported rushing back to Brasilia.

Navy, air force and army sergeants led by a man identified only as Sgt. Preston sparked the uprising before dawn after a Supreme Court ruled that enlisted men cannot hold legislative seats.

Loyal troops recaptured the Navy Ministry and mopped up scattered resistance at Brasilia's only airport. Then they moved against the last rebel stronghold at the marine corps barracks.

The rebels held 30 air force officers as prisoners at the airport. They also held a Supreme Court justice who tried to get them to lay down their arms. The president pro tem of the chamber of deputies, Clovis Motta, who also sought to mediate, was released by the rebels after an hour and a half of captivity.

Motta said an estimated 650 navy and air force enlisted men were in the revolt. Some army men also were reported involved.

A REAL MONEY TREE — The big anniversary celebration at Dunn's Figgly Wiggly store will come to a grand climax Saturday at 6 p. m. when some lucky customer wins a real honest-to-goodness "money tree." Otis Jackson, owner of Figgly - Wiggly, is shown here with the tree, all loaded down with money. How much money? The winner can have fun counting it. (Daily Record photo by Russell Bassford.)

Dunn Men Arrested As Counterfeiters

A Wilson printer who once served time for murder and two Dunn men who allegedly flooded Eastern Carolina with thousands of dollars worth of counterfeit $20 bills were taken into custody late Wednesday night on charges of conspiracy to possess and pass counterfeit money.

U. S. Commissioner Abe Elmore listed the three defendants as:

Billy Ray Johnson, 37, a Dunn, Route 3 carpenter who admitted graduating from the Jackson Training School where he served time for truancy and other charges.

Jacob McKinley Stewart of 904 S. McKay Ave., Dunn, 33, a painter who has a long criminal record dating back to 1949 and including charges of breaking and entering, several counts of assault with a deadly weapon and various other offenses. Secret Service agents said he also uses the alias "Tenie Boy."

Robert Wilson, 36, Wilson printer who served a prison term for killing a husband at Fayetteville who caught him with his wife. He was a cab operator then, Wilson got 30 years in prison, served six and a half years and was then released.

PRISON PRINTER

It was in prison, Wilson said, that he learned the printing trade. Johnson and Stewart posted bonds of $1,000 each and Wilson remained in the Dunn jail unable to raise $10,000 bond.

Vernon D. Spicer of Charlotte, chief of the Secret Service in the two Carolinas, told Dunn newsmen several other arrests are expected in the case, two of them in other states.

He said the three men spread the bogus twenty-dollar bill all across the State — in Dunn, Benson, Wilson, Yanceyville, Goldsboro, Southern Pines, Rockingham, Danville, Va. and several other states.

Agents said the three men are connected with the same case in which a number of others were arrested recently in the Wilson area and are now awaiting trial.

They disclosed that one of the men in that case, Ralph C. Winstead, already out under $10,000 bond, was re-arrested earlier Wednesday and charged with passing counterfeit money in Tennessee.

They said the Dunn men bought the bogus currency from Wilson. Complete details of the secret indictment were not disclosed.

The arrests were made after investigation which started last November when the first fake bills were found in circulation. Secret Service agents had high praise for local cooperation given them by staffs of Police Chief Alton Cobb and Harnett Sheriff

Wade Stewart and the SBI. All the defendants are married except Stewart.

Agents said some of them had admitted their part in the counterfeit ring but declined to say which ones pending the other arrests.

Benson Chevy Dealer Dies

W. Baggett Herring, well-known Benson Chevrolet dealer, business and civic leader, died suddenly this morning at his home on West Parrish Drive at the age of 51.

The prominent Sampson native was formerly associated with the late Earl Mod Westbrook of Dunn. He was a past president of the Benson Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Rod & Gun Club. He also owned extensive farming interests.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p. m. from the Benson Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. Gaylord Lehman, officiating. Burial will be in Roselawn Cemetery there.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ruby Tew Herring and a son, Larry, of the home; four brothers, Autry and Moffitt, Route 1, Clinton, J. T. of Dunn and Nicholas of Fayetteville; a sister, Mrs. Howard Royals and his mother, Mrs. W. E. Herring, both of Route 1, Clinton.

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The Rev. Lester Lee announced today that the Seven Mile Primitive Baptist Association will be held with the Black River church in Dunn Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Services will begin Friday morning at eleven o'clock; Saturday morning at 9:30; and Sunday at ten o'clock. These are all day meetings. Dinner will be served on the grounds each day. The public is invited to attend.

JAIL OR CLASSROOM

RALEIGH (UPI) — Superior Court Judge William Y. Bickett gave a 17-year-old Raleigh youth a choice between a jail cell or the classroom.

Bickett ordered Calvin Williams to remain in high school until he graduates or serve a two-year active sentence.

The boy pleaded guilty to shooting another boy with a .22 rifle last May 11.

Another Appeal Filed To Supreme Court

Judge Throws Out Ennis Damage Suit

Judge Joseph Parker of Windsor today in Harnett Superior Court granted a non-suit in the $50,000 lawsuit filed in the death of eight-year-old Cecil Mack Ennis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Ennis.

The boy was killed Feb. 16, 1959 while riding his bike when hit by a car driven by Mrs. Tally Dupree of Angier, teacher in the Coats school, as she was driving from school to her home.

This was the second time the trial judge refused to allow the case to go to the jury although the State Supreme Court reversed the first trial judge and ordered the case tried over. Judge Parker, who delayed ruling on the motion yesterday until this morning, said in doing so that there was some difference in testimony heard this time.

Attorney Everett Doffermyre of Dunn and state Senator Robert Morgan of Lillington, representing the Ennises, again filed notice of appeal to Supreme Court.

Mrs. Dupree, called as an adverse witness Wednesday, swore the child rode across the highway so fast he appeared "like something that fell from Heaven." She acknowledged that she failed to apply her brakes before or after hitting the youth.

Flim - Flammer Gets Hearing

Two Bound Over In Dunn Break-In

Probable cause was found against two Dunn men Thursday in Dunn Recorder's Court for breaking and entering a local business concern.

Mack Weldon Jones, 28, and Charles Ray Hodges, 29, were charged with breaking and entering the offices of the Four County Tractors Inc. on the night of July 29.

They were arrested shortly after the crime in the Baersville community by Rural Policeman Carson Hall and Policeman E. J. Whaley who said each had a considerable amount of change on them.

They allegedly gained entrance by going over a fence enclosure and removing the glass from a rear window of the office. A cigarette machine and Pepsi Cola vending machine were broken in to and the money removed. A hole was drilled into a Coke machine but the attempt to remove the money was unsuccessful. The desk drawers in the office of manager George Glover were ransacked and the contents scattered about the floor.

Both were bound over to the Harnett Superior Court under $300 bond each.

Jones was also tried at the same session for assaulting his wife (Continued on Page Six)

$15,000 Sought For Injuries

Harry Clayton Jackson and Bonnie B. Jackson of Harnett County have been named co-defendants in a $15,000 suit that arises from a May 19 accident three miles east of Dunn.

Plaintiff in the action in Shirley Hyatt Carter who claims her vehicle was struck in the side as she attempted to turn left from the Long Branch Rd into a private driveway.

Watermelons Came From Dunn

Stage Set For Spitoff

RALEIGH (UPI) — The stage was apparently set today for the first International Watermelon seed spitoff.

Local officials announced that Wally Ausley, 1963 world champion, will spit Friday against soldiers of the U. S. 3rd Armored Division stationed in Gelhausen, Germany.

Ausley, irate over the reports that some of the GI's claimed to have bettered his mark of 35 feet, 6 inches, spat during the watermelon festival here, said earlier that he would welcome the competition.

Local officials said that they had been promised by Army authorities in Germany that the spitting competition there would be properly supervised by competent officers to avoid cheating.

To put things on an equal basis, a 113-pound North Carolina watermelon was shipped to the soldiers from Dunn, N. C., by Crafton S. Tart. That was to protect Ausley from being the victim of seed spitters using missiles with more favorable ballistics.

Two Held On Rape Charge

Two men have been bound over to Cumberland Court without privilege of bond to face charges of raping a 13-year-old Indian girl. The girl's father, Walter Scott, a 47-year-old Falcon Indian is also charged with incest. The other defendant, a Negro, was identified as Jim Geddie, 43, of Fayetteville, Rt. 1.

Neither of the defendants testified at the preliminary hearing in County Recorder's Court Tuesday. Both men entered pleas of not guilty.

The girl said she was picking grapes at her uncle's home Sept. 4 when Geddie and her father drove up in the yard.

She said the two men took her off in the car and that Geddie, the driver of the vehicle, stopped the vehicle "on a dirt road across the river."

(Continued on Page Six)