DAR Planning Special Program

Members of the Cornelius Harnett Chapter, DAR, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be celebrating Citizenship Day on Tuesday and Constitution Week with special programs over the local radio station.

Citizenship Day has been held each year on September 17 since 1952 when Congress designated that day in commemoration of the signing of the Constitution (September 17, 1787) and in recognition of those citizens who have come of age and those who have been naturalized during the year, Constitution Week is a time for study and observance of the act and events which resulted in the formation of the Constitution.

Mrs. Mack M. Jernigan is chairman of the local chapter's Constitution Week program committee. On the committee are Mrs. E. H. Bost of Erwin, Mrs. W. E. Nichols of Coats, Mrs. R. K. Footman of Lillington, Mrs. Alton Johnson of Buies Creek, Mrs. E. H. Lasater of Campbell College.

Regent of the chapter is Mrs. N. M. Johnson, Sr.

p.m., Cornelius Harnett Chapter, DAR. Message "The Citizens Responsibility", Mrs. N. M. Johnson. Discussion of the Constitution, Mr. Thomas.

History of the U.S. Constitution, 7th grade study led by the teacher using texts, DAR magazines' historical articles, references from other sources. Discussion of the Constitution, Mr. Thomas.

Throughout the day WCKB will quote the evaluations of the Constitution of the U.S. as expressed of the nation's heroes, statesmen, historians, theologians and others.

Pastors throughout the county are cooperating by bringing to their congregations the information of their God-given heritage as guaranteed by the Constitution, using the media of church bulletins, pulpits and by special prayers for God's continued blessing on the republic of the United States.

The 7th grades discussion groups will summarize their past week's work and learning as received from their study of the Constitution.

Throughout the entire week the local station under the direction of Mr. Thomas, will play selected songs depicting America's heritage as derived from the guarantees as provided in the Constitution. Spot announcements will be appropriately given, also.

The Cornelius Harnett Chapter cordially invites those of the community to seek for copies of the Constitution, to read, to study and to assist in the preservation of our heritage which could so easily slip away from us even before we see that danger.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wellons greeted the guests while Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hildreth introduced them to the receiving line.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Albright of Dunn presided at the bride's book.

The bride's table was covered with a white outwork cloth and held a five branch candelabra with fusi chrysanthemums and butterfly roses. Side tables featured nine branch candelabras with chrysanthemums. The mantle was banked with sprays of greenery.

Mrs. Irene Dixon and Mrs. Olive Kennedy of Wilmington, aunt of the bride, poured punch and serving the tiered wedding cake was Miss Esther Price of Raleigh and Miss Grace Price of Raleigh, aunts of the bride.

Organists for the reception were Miss Sylvia Wellons and Miss Gail Tart. Goodbyes were said to Dr. and Mrs. M. B. Poole.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Pope of Dunn and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. John Otis Smith, also of Dunn, and the late Mr. Smith.

Music for the wedding was presented by Mrs. Charles Upchurch, organist, and Mrs. Thad Pope, aunt of the bride, soloist. Mrs. Pope sang "Treat Me Not to Leave Thee" and "The Wedding Prayer" for the benediction. The organ chimes were at the beginning of the five o'clock ceremony and "Oh Perfect Love" was played during the rites.

The vows were spoken before a background of palms with emerald and baker fern entwined in spiral and pyramid candelabras.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of mauve de sole fashioned with a portrait neckline and long pointed sleeves. Motifs of beaded alencon lace were applied on the bodice and on the bouffant skirt which extended into a chapel train. Her three tiered veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a crescent of phalaenopsis and Georgianna orchids.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Frances Pope. She wore a street length dress of gold satin mauve made with a scoop neckline, three quarter length sleeves and a full skirt with bow trim at the waistline. Her headpiece was a bow of matching satin mauve which was attached to a circular veil. She carried a crescent of green fusi chrysanthemums and orange delight roses.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Jean Carol Smith, the groom's sister; Miss Linda Warren of Havelock, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Dale Blackwell of Rocky Mount and Mrs. David Scobie of Charlotte. Their dresses and headpieces were identical to those worn by the maid of honor. They carried green fusi chrysanthemums.

Billy Carroll attended the groom as best man. The ushers were Henry Pope, the bride's brother; Tommy Jones of Lewiston cousin of the groom; Phillip Leslie of Dunn and Charlie Fox of Morganton.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a mauve lace dress with satin cummerbund and matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a dress of romance blue lace with

MRS. GEORGE HUGH JACKSON, JR.

Wanda Turner Is Bride Of Geo. Hugh Jackson, Jr.

After a southern wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. George Hugh Jackson, Jr., will reside at Buies Creek where both will be students at Campbell College.

The wedding ceremony was held by the Rev. J. Doner Lee in a five o'clock ceremony at Gospel Tabernacle Church. Spiral and tree candelabras and California fusi chrysanthemums against a background of palms served as the setting for the nuptials.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Edward Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Sr., of Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Price of Portsmouth, Va., aunt and uncle of the bride, were vocalists, and Mrs. Sherrill Maxwell of Dunn, the organist. Mrs. Price sang "Song of Ruth" and "The Lord's Prayer" and was joined by her husband for a duet, "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of silky faced mauve de sole and hand drawn alencon lace with scooped neckline and long sleeves tapering to a point over the hand. The dome skirt ended in a chapel train featuring lace motifs. Rich appliques of alencon lace lavished the fitted bodice and front of the skirt.

Her fingertip mantilla edged in alencon lace was attached to a lace cap of pearl studded alencon lace. A pearl tear drop hung from the center of the cap, especially made to compliment the gown. She carried brides roses, white orchids and stephanotis.

ATTENDANTS

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Debbie Turner. She wore a blue sate peau balerina length gown with scoop neckline and cap sleeves. The skirt featured controlled bell sides and an attached back panel ending with a large cabbage rose at the waist. Her headpiece of dyed to match flowers was attached to a flat cap finished with a bow at the rear and a face veil. Her flowers was a cascade of yellow daisy chrysanthemums and yellow roses.

Mr. Jackson was his son's best man and ushers were his brother, Sandy Jackson, James C. Albright, Danny Dixon, Jimmy Goodman, Donald Barefoot and Marvin Earl Johnson, all of Dunn.

The mother of the bride wore a pure silk mauve organza dress, alternately stitched and scalloped. She wore matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. For travel the bride changed to a grey knit suit with matching accessories and the orchid lifted from her bouquet.
