Arts Club Meets For Breakfast

A breakfast meeting of members of the Old Town Arts Club was held Friday morning at the Women's Club with Mrs. J. N. Stephenson and Mrs. Graydon Bryan as hostesses.

For the program, Mrs. Stephenson told of hand work done by Mrs. Bryan. Among items on display were a cross stitch bedspread, samplers and a clock.

Mrs. Ellis Barbour conducted the business session and reports were given by Mrs. Curtis Ennis and Mrs. Howard M. Lee. The president read committee assignments and the group made plans for the year.

At the meeting were Mrs. Ennis, Mrs. Thurman Ennis, Mrs. Nathan Cannady, Mrs. John Clacone, Mrs. Willie Moff, Mrs. Hoover Adams, Mrs. Vic Anderson, Mrs. Billy Pope, Mrs. Barbour, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Emmett Aldredge, Mrs. Gordon Townsend and Mrs. Hank Currin. Country ham was on the menu.

Co-Hostesses Fete Book Club Thurs.

James Snipes, a local insurance man, spoke to the Cosmopolitan Book Club Thursday on life insurance. Mrs. Snipes, one of the hostesses, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Willard Mixon was co-hostess for the meeting held at the Woman's Club.

In the absence of Mrs. Frank Bejote, Mrs. Max McLeod presided.

Spider lilies, yellow mums and smilax decorated the living room and logwood was used in the entrance hall.

Chicken salad plates and Russian tea were served to Mrs. McLeod, Mrs. Gale Johnson, Mrs. L. B. Pope, Jr., Mrs. Herman Lynch, Mrs. N. M. Johnson, Jr., Mrs. E. Palmer Davis and Mrs. Keith Finch.

Friends Honor C. A. Roberson

C. A. Roberson, president of Ro-Mar Mattress Company, was feted by a group of friends at a surprise birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Drew on Guy Avenue last Tuesday.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the living room. A white cutwork cloth covered the table centered with a pink flower arrangement and white candles.

Mrs. A. G. Register served the birthday cake and guests served themselves nuts. Punch was poured by Mrs. Drew, while her daughter, Paulette, assisted in serving.

Friends helping to celebrate were Mrs. Roberson and son David; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Register, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Bennett, Mrs. Walton Lee, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Marshburn and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rhiner.

IN VIRGINIA

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Short and family spent the weekend in Newport News, Va., with Mrs. E. B. Adams.

Coats Cigar Co., Inc. here.

The double-ring rites were performed by the Rev. Cary Watkins before spiral and tree candelabras and baskets of chrysanthemums and palms.

Musicians were Miss Bess Watkins of Route 3, pianist, and Mrs. Charles Lee of Route 1, Erwin, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white bridal satin with a bateau neckline and long pointed sleeves. The waistline, dipping into a V in the back, featured a row of tiny covered buttons. Motifs of beaded alencon lace were applied on the bouffant skirt which extended into a chapel train. The flat front skirt had a bow at the waistline and featured back fullness. The gown was designed and made by her mother. Her veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried an orchid on a white Bible.

ATTENDANTS

The bride's attendant was Mrs. Jack Matthews of Sanford, who wore a yellow organza over taffeta dress with bateau neckline, short sleeves and fitted bodice. A yellow veil was attached to a circular band of velvet ribbon and she carried a cascade of bronze fugi chrysanthemums.

Dressed in yellow organza designed similar to the honor attendant's was the flower girl, Debbie Norris of Dunn.

Jack Matthews of Sanford was the best man and ushers were James R. Coats, Lloyd Coats, Jr., Jack Matthews and R. D. Turner, all of Dunn. The junior usher was Donald Hawley of Dunn.

The bride's mother wore a beige lace dress with matching jacket and brown accessories. Mrs. Bayles was attired in navy blue and mellow and heavy accessories. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

For travel the bride wore a mellow suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

CAKE CUTTING

After rehearsal on Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. Parker entertained at a cake cutting at the Union Hall in Erwin.

The refreshment table was decorated in a color scheme of green and white. The silver candelabras with burning tapers flanked an arrangement of white carnations and green fern.

Mrs. Parker served the three tiered wedding cake of all white and Mrs. Bayles poured the punch. Nuts and mints were also served.

Mrs. Travis Norris and Mrs. Alenzo Hawley, aunts of the bride, assisted with the serving of the refreshments to about thirty-five guests.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Norris and goodbyes were said to Mrs. Hawley.

AT BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. Eston Betts and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Love spent the weekend at Carolina Beach.

John Miltons Wed Saturday

Married in the Lillington Baptist Church Saturday evening were Miss Zelma Helen Blackmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Blackmon of Raleigh, and A.C. John Thomas Milton, USAF.

Airman Milton, who is stationed at Langley Air Force Base, Va., is the son of Mrs. Claude Donald Reid of Lillington and the late Roy Thomas Milton. He and his bride will live at Langley Field.

Their wedding attendants were her sister, Miss Jo Anne Blackmon of Jefferson City, Tenn., who was maid of honor; and the following bridesmaids, Mrs. John R. Yarbrough of Raleigh, another sister of the bride, and Miss Norma Jean Milton and Miss Rose Aleta Milton, and Miss Betty Milton of Williamsburg, Va., all sisters of the bride, and Miss Marilyn McKinney and Miss Virginia Johnson.

Smith Butts was best man, John R. Yarbrough of Raleigh ushered with Van Milton, George White, Byron O'Quinn and Andy Jackson and Jerry Blanchard of Raleigh.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of chantilly lace, re-embroidered with pearls and sequins and fashioned with a chapel train. Her veil was attached to a double crown of lace and seed pearls. The bride carried orchids, roses and stephanotis on a prayer book.

She attended Hardbarer Business College. Airman Milton had one year at North Carolina State.
