What They Think!

By Russell Bassford
Record Photographer

Today's Question .....

Of the four most used means of travel, air, ship, train and automobile, which do you think is the safest?

Red Pope
ABC Officer

"I think rail travel is. It's very seldom one hears of a train wreck and then there are very few fatalities or serious injuries."

Ed Weiborn
Traveling Salesman

"I'm not familiar with statistics on that but I feel safer in an automobile. If something happened to a ship, I don't think I could swim ashore and if something happened to a plane, I know I couldn't fly. So I'll stick to cars."

Mrs. J. W. Tew
TWUA Secretary

"I doubt if planes are the safest but if I had to travel for any distance, I had rather go by air."

Traffic violations were the order of the day in Harnett Recorder's Court with Judge Robert Morgan presiding.

Young Fla. Man Confesses

Yesterday's Bank Robber Is Caught

ALBEMARLE (UPI) — Police today arrested a young Florida man they said admitted robbing a Rockwell bank Wednesday of $42,154.

Police Lt. Homer Furr identified the man as Henry Grady, 20, of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Furr said Grady came under suspicion when he bought a complete change of clothes in an Albemarle department store.

Store Manager L. W. Bowen notified police that the man bought the clothes and then went into a room to change.

Police went to a barber shop where Grady was seen to enter after leaving the department store. They asked where he was going and he said, "to Charlotte."

Police took Grady into custody at 10:36 a. m. (EST) and held him for the arrival of the FBI.

Furr said Grady had a suitcase full of money and readily admitted he was the bandit who held up the Rockwell branch of First Union National Bank.

The barbers told police Grady's hair, dark black, had been heavily dyed recently.

A search had been centered in central North Carolina for a young, freckled-face bandit who made off with the loot from the bank Wednesday.

Liberals Want Tougher Civil Rights Law

JFK Tries To Save Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy today took his personal campaign to save the administration civil rights bill directly to a group of liberal Democrats who are demanding a tougher approach.

Kennedy held a 40-minute White House meeting with Democratic members of the House Judiciary Committee, which is on the brink of approving a civil rights bill so strong that neither the administration nor congressional leaders believe it can pass.

The liberal Democrats, backed by a group of northern Republicans, make up the core of support for the tough bill drafted by a subcommittee. Kennedy must woo voters from both parties to keep it from being approved.

Slowdown Delayed

The president also discussed the issue Wednesday night with congressional leaders of both parties and succeeded in getting the committee showdown postponed until Tuesday. The vote had been scheduled for today.

One Democrat who attended this morning's session said the chief executive was "very conciliatory."

RALEIGH (UPI) — Supporters of I. Beverly Lake for governor set up a headquarters here today, increasing speculation that the Raleigh attorney would announce his candidacy for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.
