

Dunn To Play Raeford

Dunn Coach Whitney Bradham has reported that his Greenways are in good physical condition for the Raeford game tonight with Raeford playing host.

Dunn is ranked as the number eight 3-A team in Eastern North Carolina, has a 2-2 record in conference standings and is 5-2 overall for the season. The "Waves" are in third place in the conference standings.

Raeford and Clinton are tied for fourth place in the conference with 2 wins and 3 losses each and Raeford is 3-4 overall.

It is rumored that Raeford's Coach Johnny Pecora, former Erwin High School coach, has his team all fired up for the game.

George Blalock will be able to go full speed tonight along with Barry Dudley.

A large crowd is expected to travel to Raeford to see the "Waves" make an attempt to win their sixth victory.

Riders Club Planning Campout

Member of the Trail Riders and Little Riders Club of Erwin and Dunn are planning an all night camp out tomorrow night weather permitting.

The two youngest members of the club are Barry Lockamy 6 and his pony Pal, and Jay Berube, 7. Others planning the outing in Sampson County are Gene Berbue, Paul Lockamy, Arnold Lockamy, Dorsey Avery, Harper Tripp, Johnny B. Smith and several others.

Assault

turned however, and this charge was not pressed.

Wester was given 12 months on the roads, suspended and placed on probation 3 years on regular conditions, and on special condition that he stay away from the Jeffries home. He also paid costs of court.

Order Brought In

Failing to put in their appearance in court on the day set for their trial on assault charges Maccon and Ann Gibson of Spring Lake were ordered brought in by officers for trial at the afternoon session of court. However, they had not been found when court adjourned at the noon hour.

William Ronald Hamilton, Raleigh sheet metal worker, who said he had never owned a car, and had never owned a driver's license was in court on four charges following an auto accident he had with a car "borrowed" in Sampson county — wrecked in Harnett — and carried to Wake county.

In addition to no operator's license Hamilton was charged with failing to report an accident, property damage and careless and reckless driving. Judgment was continued 12 months on condition he pay a fine of $50 and court costs. ($25 of fine was remitted.)

morning, he was lying in wait for Chief Cobb to go to work, fired two shotgun blasts at the police chief, then went to the home where his wife was employed, stabbed her and shot himself.

Since the double homicide, citizens of both races have poured into the funeral home to view the bodies. Many were friends, others just curious.

The Rev. R. L. Saunders, pastor of Dunn Chapel, will officiate at the funeral.

At least one of the policeman's former girl friends won't be present.

Mabel Won't Be There

Mabel McKay, cook at a local restaurant, said today that she and Raymond had "quit."

She acknowledged that Thomas told her "when we quit" that, "I ought to kill you," but denied reports that he made an attempt on her life the morning of the killings.

"I don't plan to be at the funeral," she said.

The funeral procession will wind from the church down to Rest Haven Cemetery along a route over which Thomas many times in the past had directed traffic for other funeral processions.

Angier Rt. 1; Raymond A. Owen, Angier; Duncan McNeill, Sanford, Rt. 6; Charles Robertson Lucas, Lillington, Rt. 3.

MAKE TWO PILES

City Manager A. B. Uzzie, Jr. has asked that Dunn residents make a separate pile for leaves and another for twigs and branches when raking their yards.

SAUCER TRAVELERS—Marla Hill, left, and sister, Cindy, have a make-believe flying saucer ride in the 75-gallon hat which tops "Big Tex" symbol of the Texas State Fair.

business district about 6:30 on the night of Oct. 12. He was shot in the arm from the car.

They then allegedly shot through the rear window of a car driven by Hubert Haire, then shot the windshield out of a car owned by Alpha Bell White, parked beside Carl's Super Market and barely missing a child left in the parked auto.

Police said the trio then drove into the Baersville area south of Dunn, shot into about half dozen homes before returning to the business district and firing a shotgun blast into the side of George Graham, Jr., 30, was in the yard of a friend's home. Graham is stationed at Fort Bragg.

After a long intensive search by city and county police, Artwright was arrested when he returned to the abandoned car and Register and Barefoot were flushed out of the Barefoot home, run through a corn field and caught near the H. P. Cannon pepper plant here.

At the police station, all three readily admitted the incidents and police said Register boasted that as he left jail he planned to kill every policeman in sight, starting with Sgt. Joe Davidson.

Solicitor Godwin said in view of the ruling that their own confessions couldn't be introduced as evidence there would be no point in trying the half dozen or so other cases against them, but said he was holding the cases open.

Judge Hill, who gave Register and Barefoot strong lectures, said he was determined to remove them as threats to society and the peace of the community.

W. R. Makepeace, Jr. and Warren R. Williams were named as executors of the estate.

Byerly

The well known Sanford man in a will written September 14 of this year left $2,500 to Steele Street Methodist Church of which he was long a devoted member and $1,500 to Boys Home at Lake Waccamaw.

In addition, he made bequests of $1,000 each to his grandchildren. Named as beneficiaries of the estate are his wife, Mrs. Mable S. Makepeace, who under the terms of the will will receive one-fourth of the estate. The remainder is to be shared equally by his children, Mrs. Klitty M. Byerly, Mrs. Charlotte M. Abernathy, W. R. Makepeace, Jr., and Mrs. June M. Barrow.
