A Salute To All Our Veterans

Since Monday will be observed as Veterans' Day, I want to pay tribute today to all of the men and women who have served so well in our various conflicts. Veterans' Day is the day to remember Lexington, Gettysburgh, Santiago Bay, Chateau Thierry, Coral Sea, Okinawa, Palermo, Normandy, Korea and now Viet Nam where others have died in peacetime. We need only to look at the cemeteries of the world to realize the supreme sacrifice that was called for, that we may be secure. It called for the giving of life itself for many; for untold sorrow heartache for friends and loved ones. We remember, too, the thousands who today carry physical scars of those conflicts, many of whom lay paralyzed and hopeless invalids in the hospitals. They, too, gave everything but life itself. Each drop of blood spilled from Bunker Hill to Iwo Jima is a deposit in the bank of freedom for our country. They have not died in vain . . . those who paid with their lives the last full measure . . . We are proud to salute them, along with the living veterans. No tribute is too great for those who served us so well and I humbly extend my poor thanks and appreciation to each of them.
