Harnett Club Women Gather In Dunn

Home Demonstration Club women gathered in Dunn Wednesday for the annual Harnett County Home Demonstration Achievement program held at Divine Street Methodist Church.

The home economist with Carolina Power & Light Co., Miss Lane Siler, showed slides of Christmas decorations that could be used for home decorating and stressed the use of colors and how the decorations may be emphasized by the addition of lights.

The luncheon speaker was Charlie McCullers, manager of the Dunn Chamber of Commerce. The invocation was given by the Rev. Carlos Womack. Mrs. M. L. Gardner, family life leader, gave the devotion.

A number of awards were presented and recognition given. Mrs. Ray Matthews recognized new club members who had joined clubs during the year. The Johnsonville Club received seven new members, the highest number for the county.

GETS CERTIFICATES
Receiving reading certificates were Mrs. Ola Smith, Mrs. Guy Davies, Mrs. Paul Bradley, Mrs. W. E. McDougald, Mrs. Ernest Byrd and Mrs. Will Crumpley for reading and reporting on three books. Advanced reading certificates were received by Mrs. Holt Cannady, Mrs. Paul Bradley, Mrs. Guy Davies and Mrs. Jarvis Pleasants.

Mrs. Margaret Randall, Harnett County Librarian gave a Harnett County Library Extension Reading Certificate to those who have read beyond the state reading requirement. Those receiving this certificate read at least ten books. They were: Mrs. W. R. Crawford, Mrs. C. M. Saunders, Mrs. Clarence Holder, Mrs. Cyrus McNeill, and Mrs. U. M. Ennis.

The Goodwill Club was presented ten dollars from Belks for doing the most outstanding work of the year. Long Branch Club was second place.

Mrs. Ruby Parker Home Economics Extension Agent presented a gavel to be worn on the chain of the club pin to the three County Council Presidents who have worked with her. They are: Mrs. Johnnie Barnes, Mrs. Lester Dawson and Mrs. M. M. Jernigan.

Forty-nine club members had perfect attendance for the year. Mrs. E. L. Parrish leads the group with a twenty-three year record. Mrs. H. M. O'Quinn has perfect attendance for twenty one years. Eighteen of the clubs were represented at the program.

LUNCHEON SPEAKER

One hundred and five attended the luncheon at the Woman's Club. Mr. McCullers suggested that the work of the home demonstration clubs is "Home Security." He stressed four elements: Fellowship—first and foremost; Integrity; vision to see needs; and stewardship. He said that Home Demonstration women are noted for these four elements.

Following the luncheon the group toured Welton's Candy Co.

Mrs. M. M. Jernigan, County Council President, presided at the program and the luncheon. Mrs. Angie D. Henderson, county song leader and Mrs. Vernon Sykes, organist, directed the group in singing.

Mrs. Yates Griffis recognized the special guests. The Achievement planning committee was composed of Mrs. Mack Reid Hudson, Mrs. W. R. Langdon, Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. Yates Griffis, and Mrs. John A. Tart. Others serving on committees and assisting in the activities of the day were: Mrs. Leondias Jackson, Mrs. Cleo Wilson, Mrs. Claude Pope, Mrs. Bill Woodall, Miss Mary Parker and Mrs. A. D. Jackson.

Dunn Women Attend Meeting

Mrs. Rachel Lee Paul, N. C. Division Treasurer of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, spent Tuesday evening and Wednesday in Raleigh, where she attended the mid-winter executive board meeting of the Division. Mrs. Ole McLeod accompanied her.

At the luncheon board meeting in the Stonewall Jackson Room, Confederate House, Ballentines, Mrs. Pansy B. Fetzer, NC Division UDC President, announced the division awards and prizes won at the UDC General Convention held in Memphis, Tenn., in November. She told of the Citation of Merit which had been won by the Battle of Averasboro Chapter 2320, UDC, Dunn, for having secured the most new members (between the ages of 18 and 30 years of age).

Mrs. Melvin J. Weeks, president of the local chapter, has already received this citation from the general organization of the UDC.
