Women Hear About Bond Election

Members of the Senior Woman's Club became acquainted with the forthcoming bond election at the club's Tuesday meeting. John F. Stoler, Jr., who is directing the campaign here, explained to the women in detail why Dunn needs a new hospital and the benefits that can be derived from it.

The setting for the meeting, the clubhouse on South Layton Avenue, was brightened with red hearts, red geraniums and carnations. The dining table was centered with an old fashioned Valentine with red carnations. Decorations for the event were provided by Mrs. Claude Check.

Sandwiches, assorted cookies and coffee were served during a social period prior to the meeting.

Mrs. Howard Dixon presided and introduced the speaker. After his talk a question and answer period was held.

The March meeting will be a musical program under the direction of Mrs. Reta Whittenton.
