Almost every great teacher of morals or of religion has said just what Jesus of Nazareth proclaimed. In every land and in every age it is the basic rule of good living; you cannot improve on it. Therefore do not try to change it, but live it. It will work in the experience of every man and of all men; it will make for happiness for each man and for each society of men; it works in the home, in the school, in the business, and in the nation and world.

What do you really wish that men would do to you? Let you alone and allow you to go your own way? Try it, and you will have a lonely world. There could be no homes, no neighborhoods, no nation.

Do you wish other men to work for you and for your success, while you forget their welfare? What sort of a world would that make, if all the rest did the same? Strife and war, with bitterness and suffering and sorrow for all. If you toil only for your own good and every other man works only for himself, we shall have a poor sort of a world. If we help no one and no one helps us, we shall be poor together; we shall turn the whole universe into one vast poorhouse.

Do you wish others to be friendly and kind and generous in their dealings with you? Then join with the rest in making all life friendly and kind and generous. Homes and neighborhoods and nations will find happiness and prosperity together.

Do you wish others to be honest and truthful and trustworthy? Match them with the same high virtues and all of life becomes trustful and free and dependable.

Do you wish others to be courteous and appreciative of you? Then form the habit of speaking with grace and with good words for their efforts and their deeds. You will bring the glow of happy inner satisfaction for them and they will give your life a sense of worth; each thus becomes important to the other.

Do you wish others to be ready to lend a hand when you have a hard task to do? Then form the habit of helpfulness and we build for mutual prosperity and for a cooperative society.

They who keep "the Golden Rule" will discover that it is the "rule of God"; God helps those who help each other; He is the Father of love and of saving helpfulness; it is the divine way. The "Golden Rule" is still golden.
