

Weather

Generally fair with diminishing winds and much cooler tonight.

The Daily Record

VOLUME 14

TELEPHONE 892 - 3117 - 892 - 3118

DUNN, N. C. THURSDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 5, 1964

FIVE CENTS PER COPY

NO. 63

RED CHINA SENDS ARMS TO VIETS

FIRST RUBY WITNESSES—Pictured outside the courtroom are four witnesses for the prosecution in the Jack Ruby trial in Dallas. All employees of a newspaper's advertising department, they are (left to right): Don Campbell, Billy A. Rea, Georgia Mavor and John Newman.

McNamara Says Guerillas Have Greater Supply

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said today that North Vietnamese assistance to Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam had increased during the past six months.

At a news conference prior to leaving for another of his fact-finding missions to South Viet Nam, McNamara said that weapons being supplied the Viet Cong guerrillas by North Viet Nam obviously were manufactured in Red China.

McNamara, together with Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and other top officials, leave here at midnight for a crucial size-up of the war in Viet Nam.

McNamara said that while he is in South Viet Nam, on a visit that probably will last a week, he would examine the volume, character and trend of North Vietnamese support to the Viet Cong.

He cited these weapons recently detected in South Viet Nam and described as being of Red Chinese manufacture: — Recoilless guns of 75 millimeter type. — Heavy machine guns. — "Sophisticated" mines for use in water and on land. — "Sabotage devices with advanced timing mechanisms."

Pre-School Event On Tuesday

The pre-school conference and registration day will be held at Magnolia Avenue School next Tuesday at 9 A. M.

Children will be registered for school, health problems discussed, and parents will become acquainted with the first grade program.

Children must be six years old on or before October 16, 1964, before they can attend school for the 1964-1965 school term.

The General Statutes of North Carolina require that all children be immunized against whooping cough, diphtheria, tetanus, polio, and small pox. Teachers will have to have a complete immunization record and a birth certificate for each child before he or she can attend school next fall.

Pre-school children and their parents are invited to stay for lunch on Pre-School Conference and Registration Day. Children's lunches are 25c. Adult lunches are 30c.

If you have not secured a form to fill out about your child, one can be obtained at Magnolia Avenue School. Please return these forms to the school as soon as possible.

News Roundup

ROCK HILL, S. C. (UPI) — A car operated by a stock car racing driver hit and killed a man and his grandson near here today. The Highway Patrol said a car driven by Irvin Carpenter of Rock Hill ran over and killed Julian M. Sims, 48, of Newport, and his grandson, William A. Sims, 5.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Secretary General Thant was expected to name Jose Rold-Bennett of Guatemala today as mediator in the Cyprus crisis.

SEWANEE, Tenn. (UPI) — A former Senate page Boyd Ritchie said Wednesday night that he once had $50 taken out of his pay on the instructions of former Democratic majority secretary Bobby Baker and he told Lyndon Johnson, then vice president, about it. Johnson, he said, interceded in his behalf and the $50 cut was restored.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gen. Douglas MacArthur will undergo surgery Friday at Walter Reed Hospital where he is under treatment for jaundice, it was announced today.

NEW YORK (UPI) — President Johnson arrived here today in spite of bad flying weather to attend funeral services for the wife of his close political friend, Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

Dr. Lake Picked A Winner; Sampson Native Here Tomorrow

Political War Tame Affair For Scrapper Allen Bailey

Charlotte attorney Allen A. Bailey, as State campaign manager for Dr. I. Beverly Lake, is engaged in one of the toughest, hardest-fought gubernatorial battles in the long history of North Carolina.

But for Bailey, a fighter in the Pacific for two and a half years during World War II and a tough-fighting trial lawyer in the courtroom for the past 13 years, this political war is mild.

"Real tame, so far," he says. He candidly predicts it might get a little more lively before the last votes are counted, also that Dr. Lake will win the governorship.

Bailey has a well-established, almost legendary reputation for winning. He's one of the top trial attorneys in the State and known far beyond the State for his notable courtroom victories. His success in the courtroom has been almost phenomenal.

IN HARNETT TOMORROW Mr. Bailey will be in Harnett Friday in behalf of Dr. Lake, in Dunn for a Ladies-for-Lake social hour in the conference room of Home Savings and Loan Association at 3 p.m. and at the county courthouse in Lillington for a county-wide organizational meeting at 8 p.m.

His visit to Dunn will be almost like a homecoming for Bailey, who grew up in neighboring Sampson County and proudly regards this section of State as "home."

"I have a tremendous love for Eastern North Carolina and particularly Sampson for without the help of many, many fine people there, I wouldn't be here today," he reflected.

Dr. Lake knew he was picking a scrapper and a winner when he selected Bailey to manage his gubernatorial campaign. Doing the impossible almost seems to come naturally for Allen Bailey.

He has done a lot of things that others said couldn't be done. When he left the Wake Forest law school in 1950 and went to the State's largest city to begin practice, he knew only two people in Charlotte.

He knew nobody of prominence, had no influence and no connections. He hit the town cold and frankly wondered, he recalls today, if he'd be able to even make a living practicing law.

HAS BIG PRACTICE After little over a decade, Bailey has built one of the finest trial practices that exists in North Carolina and during those 13 years has probably tried more cases, civil and criminal, than any other attorney during a similar period of time.

His law firm is now one of the biggest in the Queen City. He has two other attorneys in his law firm now, William H. Booe and William H. Stagg.

"Allen Bailey is the lawyer to (Continued on Page Six)

By Lillington Presbyterians

Area Leadership School Is Slated

An area leadership school for district of 1 and 8 of Fayetteville Presbytery, will be held at the Lillington Presbyterian Church from March 8 through March 12 for two hours each evening at 7 p.m.

Classes will be offered in: Working With Youth, New Teachers in the Covenant Life Curriculum, New Methods of teaching the Covenant Life Curriculum, and The Letters of John.

This school is open to any Presbyterian who wishes to attend, regardless of whether he is in districts 1 or 8. Every effort is being made to insure adequate instruction and meaningful participation from those who come.

The teachers are Bill Massey, minister of the Laurel Hill Presbyterian Church; Ed Hooks, an instructor at Campbell College; Guyton Smith, a teacher of adults in the Dunn Presbyterian Church; Billy Shaw Howell, minister of Olivia and Barbecue Presbyterian Churches; Robert Park, minister of the Lillington Presbyterian Church; and Leslie Tucker, minister of the Dunn Presbyterian Church. The dean of the school is Will Crumpley, minister of Mt. Pisgah, Leaflet and Raven Rock Presbyterian churches; and the registrar is Roy Taylor, minister of the Bunniel Presbyterian Church. Registration will begin at 6:45 p.m. on Sunday, March 8. There will be a fee of $1.50 per person. For those who are willing and eager to learn this school (Continued on Page 6)

Lake Events On Friday

Two different events are scheduled in Harnett Friday by supporters of gubernatorial candidate Dr. I. Beverly Lake.

Charlotte attorney Allen Bailey, State campaign manager for Dr. Lake, will be here to attend both events.

A Ladies-for-Lake Tea will be held Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the conference room of Home Savings and Loan Association on E. Broad Street. County Manager Staley Spence said all ladies are invited and urged to attend.

On Friday night at 8 o'clock, a county-wide organizational meeting of the Lake forces will be held in the county courthouse at Lillington.

Spence said every section of the county will be represented.

Man Is Badly Burned Here

Leroy (Pete) McNeill, 30, of Granville St. Dunn, is in Memorial Hospital at Chapel Hill as the result of burns received when his clothing caught fire at the home here.

Dunn police said McNeill, alone at the time, apparently had been smoking as nothing in the house was burned except his clothing and a small burn found on the chair in which he was sitting. He evidently had gone to sleep.

Earlier in the day, McNeill had taken his wife to Duke Hospital at Durham for treatment.

McNeill is employed by Buddy Jernigan, local plumber.

Prizes Galore For Students

Big Poster Contest To Aid Campaign

The phenomenally enthusiastic interest that has been generated, throughout Dunn, by the prospect of a new and modern hospital, for our town, does not seem to stop with the adults in our community.

The young people have now "picked-up the torch." Busy hands at the Wayne Avenue School are at work on posters designed to illustrate the Hospital Bond Issue's central theme... "Building for a Greater Tomorrow."

Witness Says He Cursed Oswald

Ruby Planned Three Shots

DALLAS (UPI) — Jack Ruby cursed Lee Harvey Oswald and said "I intended to shoot him three times" a few minutes after he put a bullet into the accused assassin.

Charlotte attorney Allen Bailey, State campaign manager for Dr. Lake, will be here to attend both events.

A Ladies-for-Lake Tea will be held Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the conference room of Home Savings and Loan Association on E. Broad Street. County Manager Staley Spence said all ladies are invited and urged to attend.

On Friday night at 8 o'clock, a county-wide organizational meeting of the Lake forces will be held in the county courthouse at Lillington.

Spence said every section of the county will be represented.

Man Is Badly Burned Here

Leroy (Pete) McNeill, 30, of Granville St. Dunn, is in Memorial Hospital at Chapel Hill as the result of burns received when his clothing caught fire at the home here.

Dunn police said McNeill, alone at the time, apparently had been smoking as nothing in the house was burned except his clothing and a small burn found on the chair in which he was sitting. He evidently had gone to sleep.

Earlier in the day, McNeill had taken his wife to Duke Hospital at Durham for treatment.

McNeill is employed by Buddy Jernigan, local plumber.

Prizes Galore For Students

Big Poster Contest To Aid Campaign

The phenomenally enthusiastic interest that has been generated, throughout Dunn, by the prospect of a new and modern hospital, for our town, does not seem to stop with the adults in our community.

The young people have now "picked-up the torch." Busy hands at the Wayne Avenue School are at work on posters designed to illustrate the Hospital Bond Issue's central theme... "Building for a Greater Tomorrow."

a detective testified today at his murder trial. Detective Don R. Archer, who was guarding the jail office door on the morning of Nov. 24, said that 12 seconds after Ruby fired the shot, the slayer uttered the words: "I hope I killed the son of a bitch"

L. C. Graves, a detective who was guarding Oswald, testified that moments after the shooting of the accused assassin, Ruby "kept pulling and squeezing on the trigger." Only one shot was fired, however.

Archer, under questioning by Dist. Atty. Henry Wade, said Ruby uttered the "son of a bitch" phrase as the 24-year-old Marxist misfit lay writhing on the cement floor of the jail basement.

Within three to five minutes after the shooting, Archer said, he and police Capt. Glen King and another detective hustled Ruby into an elevator and took him upstairs to the jail.

Archer said he turned to Ruby and said, "I think you killed him." "He said, 'I intended to shoot him three times,'" Archer testified. Defense lawyers protested bitterly that Archer could not make that statement in court because Ruby was under arrest at the time and anything he said then could not be held against him in court.

Judge Joe B. Brown ruled that Archer's statement was admissible as evidence. The defense, which argues that Ruby was suffering from an epileptic spasm and did not know right from wrong, intensely cross-examined Archer.

Hoffa faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine on the two counts. Following normal procedure, it was expected to be several weeks before Wilson pronounced sentence.

Under the bylaws of the Teamsters international union, the nation's largest union, any officer convicted of a felony can be removed from office, but no action is expected, at least until Hoffa exhausts his appeals.

Hoffa said he had no intention of resigning. "Despite what you like to think... the members will be behind Hoffa all the way," he said.

The conviction was the first the government has been able to win against the tough little union leader in six different indictments over a seven-year period.

Chief federal prosecutor James Neal said he did not consider it "a joyous occasion" but he later was seen handing out cigars to his associates.

In Washington, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, whom Hoffa accused of leading a "personal vendetta" against him, praised the government's prosecution team.

that 12 seconds after Ruby fired the shot, the slayer uttered the words: "I hope I killed the son of a bitch"

L. C. Graves, a detective who was guarding Oswald, testified that moments after the shooting of the accused assassin, Ruby "kept pulling and squeezing on the trigger." Only one shot was fired, however.

Archer, under questioning by Dist. Atty. Henry Wade, said Ruby uttered the "son of a bitch" phrase as the 24-year-old Marxist misfit lay writhing on the cement floor of the jail basement.

Within three to five minutes after the shooting, Archer said, he and police Capt. Glen King and another detective hustled Ruby into an elevator and took him upstairs to the jail.

Archer said he turned to Ruby and said, "I think you killed him." "He said, 'I intended to shoot him three times,'" Archer testified. Defense lawyers protested bitterly that Archer could not make that statement in court because Ruby was under arrest at the time and anything he said then could not be held against him in court.

Judge Joe B. Brown ruled that Archer's statement was admissible as evidence. The defense, which argues that Ruby was suffering from an epileptic spasm and did not know right from wrong, intensely cross-examined Archer.

Hoffa faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine on the two counts. Following normal procedure, it was expected to be several weeks before Wilson pronounced sentence.

Under the bylaws of the Teamsters international union, the nation's largest union, any officer convicted of a felony can be removed from office, but no action is expected, at least until Hoffa exhausts his appeals.

Hoffa said he had no intention of resigning. "Despite what you like to think... the members will be behind Hoffa all the way," he said.

The conviction was the first the government has been able to win against the tough little union leader in six different indictments over a seven-year period.

Chief federal prosecutor James Neal said he did not consider it "a joyous occasion" but he later was seen handing out cigars to his associates.

In Washington, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, whom Hoffa accused of leading a "personal vendetta" against him, praised the government's prosecution team.

Harnett Rabies Clinic Slated

The Harnett County Health Department announces the Rabies Clinic to be held by the County Rabies Inspectors. All dogs over six (6) months of age are required to be vaccinated. During the clinic rabies vaccine good for three (3) years will be used. A tag and certificate will be furnished with each vaccination. All owners must furnish certificate to the county dog warden. Vaccination at the clinic will cost one dollar and a (Continued on Page 6)