1776 'till NOW...

Independence Day, the Fourth, the Glorious Fourth of July, that Great Day in the history of our Great Country—the birthday of our freedom! It's time to celebrate! It's time to rededicate yourself to God and Country!

In 1776, July 4 was a day of jubilee, bell ringing. A people rejoiced with all its heart because its Declaration of Independence had been adopted. Long had they struggled under the oppression of tyranny, awaiting the fallness of time that would bring leaders to guide their way to freedom. They had been plucky, they had been patient, but now their hour had struck. At last their claims to "certain unalienable Rights... Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness" ... were no longer intangible dreams, but a living challenge across the sea "to a candid world." Those patriots knew the struggle would be hard, that it would mean personal sacrifice for each and every one... it was a preposterous assignment; it was a fearful task. Did they hang back and haggle as to the prudence of such daring? Did they talk of doubt and fear and mistrust of their leaders? They weren't made of such stuff. They were proud of their commitment. Like their leaders, they were ready, "with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence," to pledge their Lives, their Fortunes, and their sacred Honor to support their Declaration of Independence. Their Spirit sanctioned every word. Their bells rang out in a grand "AMEN!"

This year July 4 likely will be sayer than ever. We will picnic, we will swim, we will go places. There'll be fireworks, parades, band playing, speech-making. Again it will be a Great Day of celebration. But there'll be an undercurrent of solemnity; there'll be a reverent re-dedication to our country. We know that our nation stands today in grave peril; we are warned at every hand of the powerful tyranny which rides today unchecked, growing more threatening and more powerful hour by hour, day by day... Russia and her fifth column. We realize that the fate of our freedom is in our own hands. We must not be unconcerned. We must recognize the dangers. We must be ready to sacrifice. Like our forefathers, we must value our democratic freedom more than life itself... As we have done for nearly 200 years. Never have the people of America failed to rally in support of the principles set forth in our Declaration of Independence. We never will! Communism cannot take root in the Land of the Free. We have no desire for territory. We have no ambition for conquest and military glory. We want no loot. But we mean to have our freedom and independence, whatever the cost. In 1776 our forefathers made a bold Declaration against Despotism. Today, we stand ready to uphold that Declaration against any powers that be. The Spirit of '76 still lives. The right to freedom of worship must Prevail.

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are shaped with benevolence that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the individual are making their life's character. Statesmen today declare that the church is the best place to form a character for the church. In these perilous times, then, we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" — form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.
