"DOWN BY THE OLD MILL STREAM..." - The words of the familiar song haunt the memory at the sight of this old mill at Pigeon Forge, Tenn. The mill, built in 1830 and still in daily operation, is made of hand-hewn pine, yellow poplar, hemlock and oak, and is held together with hickory pegs.

TORPEDO CONTRACT
BALTIMORE (UPI) - Westinghouse Electric Corp. announced Monday that it received a multi-million dollar Navy contract to develop a new torpedo.

While most of the details of the torpedo designated Mark 48, are secret, it can be reported that it will be designed primarily as a high-speed anti-submarine weapon that also can perform surface war-time functions, Westinghouse said.

Emphysema killed 3,639 in 1955 and in 1959 it killed 7,728 - from 1950 until 1962 emphysema deaths increased in excess of 400%.
