GUNSMOKE'S Amanda Blake is having her most serious romance in years, one that could lead to wedding bells. She's seen everywhere these days with Arizona millionaire Jason Day and admits it could be serious.

Molly Bee, who's been in a many series but never her own, may just get the opportunity soon. Danny Thomas thinks Molly's just right for a projected series that'd have her playing a flighty airline hostess.

Vince Edwards is taking Stella Stevens' pulse both on and off the BEN CASEY set.

THE JOEY BISHOP SHOW will start its fourth year in the fall on Sunday nights on a new network. The cast remains the same.

CBS news staffers in San Francisco for the Republican Convention jumped into the Plantation Motel pool after a long day's work and found a sign at the pool's bottom, "Welcome CBS News".

Bob Hope confides that his wife Dolores may sing in one of his specials next season. "But I'm afraid to put her on", he said. "I came down to breakfast the other day and she was sitting in my spotlight".

Television's biggest promotion campaign since the days of "Davy Crockett" will give full merchandising treatment to the new TV series DANIEL BOONE, starring Fess Parker, nearly three months before the show premieres in September. Buyers for retail chains and supermarkets got a preview showing of the merchandise and the program last week.

To date licenses have been signed for Daniel Boone tee shirts, pajamas, toy forts and soldiers, toy replicas of frontier vehicles such as wagons and canoes, dolls etc.

A brand new nightclub star glitters this week in Las Vegas, Nev. where Johnny Carson, in his first venture into the nightclub field, broke the house record record at the Sahara. (The record was established by Judy Garland in 1962.) Special police had to be hired to handle the crowds which began to line up for the show four hours ahead of time. He drew 1,498 customers many of who had driven 350 and 400 miles for the occasion. Interviewed in line, the comment was, "I've watched him every weeknight for two years and I had to see him in person."

There are weighty matters concerning Jackie Gleason and at least one other regular on "The Jackie Gleason Show: The American Scene Magazine" on the CBS Television Network. Gleason would like to lose a few pounds - - about 50. And slender comedienne Barbara Heller, who tips the scales at something below 100, would like to gain a few. She'd even settle for five pounds.

Rufe Davis, the fireman - conductor of "Petitcoat Junction" on the CBS Television Network, grew up as an Oklahoma farm boy.

Peggy Cass, "To Tell the Truth" panelist, is a winter commuter between that series' New York studio and the ski slopes at Lake Placid.

Durward Kirby, host of "Candid Camera," Sundays on the CBS Television Network, will spend seven weeks this summer appearing in "Take Her, She's Mine" in summer stock. He'll be seen in Warren and Columbus, Ohio, Wallingford, Conn., War-

Audrey Peters of "Love of Life" understudied Gena Rowlands for eight months in the lead of the Broadway hit "Middle of the Night."

Miss MacKenzie, as magazine writer Connie Marlowe, is faced with two problems: getting her teen-aged brother Buzz, played by Gordon Gebert, safely through his first driving test, and finagling an interview with pilot Bill Adams, played by Forsythe, for an important writing assignment. Her plan works almost too well, when the good-looking Adams manages to send both here-worshipping Buzz and the housekeeper out of the house so that he can be alone with Connie -- but not for an interview.

Others in the cast include Kathleen Freeman as Emma the housekeeper; John McGiver as Connie's boss, John P. MacBain; William Schallert as a driving license bureau official; Michael Pollard as Buzz's buddy Spider, and Jocelyn Brando.

The script was written by Everett Freeman and directed by Peter Tewksbury.

Dick York, who stars as Elizabeth Montgomery's mate (she plays an absolutely delightful witch) on ABC-TV's upcoming "Bewitched" series, has Broadway stage credits which include "Tea and Sympathy" and "Bus Stop."
