MAYONNAISE THEFT

NEWARK N. J. (UPI) — The Army may be able to eat its ham on rye with mayonnaise after all.

The FBI arrested Richard D. Robinson, 30, of Kendall Park, N. J., Tuesday for hijacking 126 cases of mayonnaise headed for the Army overseas. The wayward mayonnaise was lifted from a Hoboken warehouse July 6 or 7.

Jo Ann Tart Weds Sammy J. Pope

Miss JoAnn Carol Tart, daughter of Mrs. Eloise Tart and the late Mr. Tart of Rt. 2, Coats, and Mr. Sammy Junior Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pope of Rt. 1, Coats were married in a double ring ceremony at Banners Chapel Advent Christian Church Sat., July 18. The ceremony was performed by Reverend Lester E. Lee pastor of the Liberty Baptist Church.

Several white candles and white glads provided the background for the occasion.

Miss June Powell of Coats, was organist, and soloist, Miss Sheila Dupree of Angier, sang "O Perfect Love" and "I Love You Truly".

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Charles Webb of Rt. 3, Dunn, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of silk organza with a lace bodice. It featured a scooped neckline and three quarter length sleeves. Her finger tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid on a white ribbon.

Miss Harriette Webb of Rt. 2, Benson served as matron of honor. She wore a blue street-length dress of silk organza. Her short veil was attached to matching crown. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Serving as ring bearer was DeWayne Tart, brother of the bride. Mr. Norfleet Gardner of Coats, served as best man and ushers were Raymond Pope, brother of the groom of Coats, and Jimmy O'Neal cousin of the bride of Benson.

Mrs. Tart chose a pale blue sheath dress with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding, while Mrs. Pope wore a navy dress with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

For travel to the coast, Mrs. Pope chose a sailor-blue sheath dress and matching accessories. She wore the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

Mr. Pope, a 1962 graduate of Coats High School is employed at the Pope Distributing Co. Mrs. Pope plans to continue her education at Coats High School this year. The couple received in the vestibule of the church immediately following the ceremony.
