Tobacco Barn Burns Monday

A tobacco barn on the George F. Glover farm burned Monday afternoon and total damage was estimated at $1750.

This was the first tobacco barn fire of the season reported by Dunn firemen.

Howard M. Lee, secretary - treasurer of the department, said the barn was completed enveloped in flames when they arrived at the scene on Route 3. The second prinnings of Glover's tobacco was being cured.

Neither the barn, valued at $750, nor the contents, $1000, were covered by insurance.

Six men were sent to the scene, Lee said, while 13 men remained at the station.
