

Cape Fear Women Meet

The Women's Home Missionary Annual Convention of the Cape Fear "B" Conference held a flowing session at McLeans' Chapel Church, Bunnlevel, recently with delegates, ministers and visitors from many sections. The Rev. R. H. Creech is host pastor. He was assisted by the Rev. W. H. Hicks.

The motto of the convention was "Let Brotherly Love Continue."

Mrs. Larcenia Harrington of Southern Pines presided.

The introductory sermon was delivered by the Rev. N. M. McMillian of Fayetteville.

Others who delivered sermons or addresses were the Rev. Wilson Terry, Red Springs; the Rev. J. W. Peck, Southern Pines; Mrs. Rebecca Poterkin, Raeford and Mrs. L. J. Surlis, Dunn.

A workshop was held Thursday under the direction of Mrs. Eva Minter. Consultants were the Rev. M. L. Williams, Rev. J. D. Ray, and Rev. J. W. Peck.

The welcome program was held that evening with Mrs. Esther Walker in charge.

A memorial service was held Friday evening under the direction of Mrs. Sallie Price of Erwin. Mrs. Leslie Jackson had charge of the annual canceling ceremony.

The convention went on record as offering congratulations to persons who without discrimination have opened their doors to us; that we provoke efforts to re-arouse the proper observance of the Sabbath Day; that we continue to improve our church plants by erecting lunch rooms; installing proper sewerage facilities which will add greatly to our health; and that we support institutes, workshops and other activities designed for our advancement.

The next convention will be held at the Harrington Chapel Church in Southern Pines, 1965.

Officers for 1964-1965 are as follows:

Mrs. Larcenia Harrington, Southern Pines, president; Mrs. Dupree Jackson, Pinehurst, vice president; Mrs. Mabel Taylor, Lillington, financial secretary; Mrs. Atlene Ray, Southern Pines, recording secretary; Mrs. Sarah Boone, Fayetteville, treasurer; Mrs. Margret Williams, annual missionary; Mrs. Charlie Mae Henderson, gleaner.

Field workers appointed were Mrs. Jessie Adams, Mrs. Ella Percell, Mrs. Lucy Merritt, Mrs. Hatfield Field, Mrs. Ethel M. Graham, Mrs. Sadie McKay, Mrs. Mable Mayo and Mrs. Maggie McCrimmon.

Mrs. Eunice M. Waller, general financial secretary of the Women's Department of the United Freewill Baptist Church of New London, Connecticut attended the session. by Mrs. Eva Minter

Mrs. Eva Minter made the response to the program.

The Junior Missionaries under the direction of Mrs. Margret Williams, sponsored a program. Music was rendered by the McLean Chapel and the convention choir.

The president in addressing the convention praised the founders of this convention and noted the great progress which had been made during the years.

Reports from the missionary societies, ministers, delegates, members and field agents were heard Friday.
