EXCUSE NO GOOD

AYLESBURY, England (UPI) — Duncan McGuigan was fined 17 pounds ($47.60) Tuesday for being drunk and disorderly despite his plea that his speech was "thick and slurred" because he just had all his teeth pulled.

PORTABLE TOILETS

WOKINGHAM, England (UPI) — The local council equipped its grass cutters with portable toilets today so they can be spared the embarrassment of knocking on doors of nearby houses while making their rounds.

Dunn Hatchery In Bankruptcy

Dunn Hatcheries, Inc., operated here for more than a dozen years by its president, J. Leon Godwin, well-known Dunn business man, has filed a bankruptcy petition in U. S. District Court at Raleigh.

The petition was filed by his attorney, D. K. Stewart of Dunn. In the petition, Mr. Godwin states that his firm owes approximately $68,700 and has assets of $21,432.

Mr. Godwin said today that he was forced into bankruptcy by one of his chief creditors, Security Mills, Inc.

Security Mills holds four chattel mortgages against Dunn Hatcheries and other property owned by Godwin and his wife, Mrs. Mae Jackson Godwin.

Sale of the property is scheduled for Friday of this week at 2 p.m.

Among property to be sold are five groups of White Rock Breeder Pullets totaling about 7,000 in number.

REVIVAL SPEAKER — Rev. A. Jones is speaking at revival services now in progress at Pleasant Walk Church here. The service will continue through Sept. 21. Services are being held twice daily, at 2:00 and 7:00. The service is open to the public.
