Dunn High Roster Named

For the past week on a twice-a-day schedule the Dunn High School coaching staff composed of head coach Whitney Bradham, and assistants, Glenn Varney, Bobby Tart and Jerry Smith have been working out with the 1964 Greenwave football team.

Being very optimistic about his team's chances in the Southeastern AAA conference, Whit says around fifty boys are practicing during the two a day schedule.

in the mornings at 7:30 and in the afternoons at 4:30.

Gone from the 7-3 last year's teams record are All East and All Conference end, Cliff Butler; All Conference halfback, Eddie Taylor; honorable mention All Conference fullback, John Watts; Barry Dudley; George Blalock, and Andy Barefoot.

Bradham said that with the exception of Butler, Barefoot and Blalock, the Dunn forward wall returns for another tour of duty with the Greenwaves. The line is expected to have some hefty bruisers. As yet no position is sewed up with all the boys having a good opportunity to get into the starting line-up for the season opener with Laurinburg. The game is to be played September 4th at Laurinburg.

Even though the "Waves" have much experience in the line, they have only two boys who return with experience in the backfield. Jack Tew and Jonathan Hill return as the only experienced backfielders.

With a good fullback and a good defensive backfield, Bradham looks forward to a good season. He says he has never seen any group of boys with any higher morale than these, and they are working extra hard on assignments and plays for the season opener.

anything just so I killed her." Rinaldi, of Waterbury, Conn., is charged in the mysterious December 24 death of his pregnant wife in Chapel Hill. He has consistently maintained he was innocent.

At a hearing to get bail for Rinaldi, Foushee testified Rinaldi hired him last summer to clean his apartment and at the time asked him if he could kill anybody, if he could throw lye in somebody's face and if he wanted to earn lots of money.

He also said Rinaldi asked him later in the year to go to Waterbury and kill his wife. Foushee said he saw Rinaldi at a shopping center in Chapel Hill the day police discovered Mrs. Rinaldi's body and that Rinaldi "approached me and said it was over." According to Foushee, Rinaldi told him "I did it."
