

Beverly Carson Is Complimented

Mrs. G. C. Kelly and her daughter Glenda were hostesses for a dessert bridge and canasta party Saturday night at their home in Lillington honoring Miss Beverly Carson, September 5 bride-elect of Bill Watkins. Miss Kelly will serve as a bridesmaid in the wedding.

The hostesses presented the Lillington bride-elect a white hum to wear during the evening and a gift in her china pattern.

Fall flowers decorated the home. For the dessert course, individual tables were covered with white linen cloths, centered with china shoes filled with miniature bridal flowers.

Dessert included block ice cream decorated with green wedding bells, green and white cake squares and nuts. During progressions of bridge, lime ice was served.

High score prize winner for the evening was Mrs. H. W. Watkins and low winner was Mrs. Billy Sexton. Miss Mary Sue Carson won the canasta prize.

Attending with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. H. D. Carson Jr., her grandmother, Mrs. H. D. Carson Sr., her sister, Miss Mary Sue Carson, Mrs. H. W. Watkins, mother of the prospective bridegroom and Mrs. Thelbert Dean, Mrs. E. H. Bethune, Mrs. Billy Sexton, Mrs. John A. Womble and Mrs. A. O. Patterson.
