King Sisters To Be Featured In Hour Special

"The Family Is King", an hour-long musical special featuring one of the most unusual families in show business -- the King Sisters -- will be presented on Saturday, Aug. 29 (9:30-10:30 p.m., EDT).

(Editors note: "The Hollywood Palace" presented at this time will be pre-empted on this date.)

Spotlighted will be the King Sisters, who were part of Alvion Rey's Orchestra in the 40's, plus 33 other members of the musically-talented family from California.

Though it was usually the King Sisters Trio or Quartet which performed on the bandstand, there are actually six sisters -- Yvonne, Louise, Marilyn Maxine, Alyce and Donna. And each, along with their children, husbands, cousins, nieces, nephews and their father -- totaling 39 -- will perform in a program emphasizing music with a liberal sprinkling of comedy and dance.

The older generation will furnish the nostalgia of the great standards while the younger generation in contrast will supply a good bit of the contemporary feeling. Throughout the hour there will be good-natured joshing between the old and the new in music, manners and fads.
