Mrs. Core, New Welcome Wagon Hostess For Area

Mrs. Betty Core has assumed duties as Welcome Wagon Hostess for the Dunn area.

Her territory will include Dunn, Erwin, Buies Creek and Benson. She received her diploma last Friday after having completed a two-weeks training session at the Welcome Wagon International Training School in Memphis, Tenn., the southern divisional office.

Mrs. Core is the mother of two children, Donna, 7, and Edwin 3. Her husband Earl, is employed in the parts department at Four County Tractors Inc.

The Cores have resided in Dunn for the past seven years both are natives of nearby Sampson County. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard McLamb of Route 5, Dunn, and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Core of Route 1, are parents of her husband. They are members of North Clinton Avenue Baptist Church.

Dunn has been without a hostess since the latter part of April when Mrs. Billie Bryant resigned to accept the managerial position at Cato's here.

ALWAYS ADMIRING HOSTESSES In her charming manner, Betty declared that she has always admired former hostesses.

"When I use to see Mrs. Rowena Jerigan and Mrs. Thelma Gilbert leaving with their baskets of gifts from sponsoring merchants, I have always hoped that someday I would have the same opportunity. It is a great service for the community."

Mrs. Core made the trip to Memphis with Mrs. Mary Ann Myatt of Fayetteville, the second hostess for that city. Sixteen girls representing ten states attended this training period.

The Eastern North Carolina Supervisor, Mrs. Emily English of Wilson, has been working with Betty for the past two days. She expressed delight in securing Mrs. Core for the position.

The job of a Welcome Wagon Hostess is to call on newcomers to the area with a colorful basket of gifts from the sponsoring merchants and with helpful information on the town.

Betty is not new at the job of dealing with the public. She has formerly worked with Dr. C. D. Bain as a dental assistant and receptionist and as bookkeeper at Barefoot Oil Co. several years ago.

For the past two years she has held another full-time job — that of being a housewife.

All in all with Dunn's new hostess, great strides are being made for one of the most successful programs ever.
