SEN. THURMOND FOR GOLDWATER

Hospital Not Up For Action By City Board

Dunn's city council will meet Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock but the hospital issue is not on the agenda and is not expected to come up.

Mayor George Franklin Blalock declares the Dunn hospital is now a dead issue and that all his efforts will be devoted to working toward a county hospital.

He plans to meet soon with all doctors in Harnett and to appear before the county board at its October meeting.

The mayor said it is now up to the board of trustees to do whatever it pleases with Betsy Johnson Memorial. He said the hospital board's action in seeking to strip city officials of all supervisory authority over the hospital "killed it for good."

Only a few items are on the council agenda.

These include a paving request from Huber Register; action on an amendment to the zoning ordinance; street light requests, recommendations of Fire Chief Ralph Hanna on operation of the new station at the armory, the fire alarm system and additional radios.

Godwin Urging Big Attendance

Approximately 25 Harnett citizens left at 3:30 this afternoon to attend a major Gavin-for-Governor rally tonight in Greenville.

Before leaving, Harnett GOP Chairman Bill Godwin urged as many Harnett citizens as possible to hear Senator Barry Goldwater speak Thursday morning on the steps of the county courthouse in Raleigh at 9:30 a. m.

"I want them to go see and hear Sen. Goldwater for themselves and then they'll know that what the News and Observer says about the man isn't true." To see the man, hear him and know him is to like him and support him.

Chairman and Mrs. Godwin and other Harnett citizens will also attend the Goldwater fund-raising breakfast at the Sir Walter at 8:30 a. m. The price is $25 per couple.

"Failed To Keep A Single Promise"

Miller Says Demos Betrayed Farmers

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — Rep. William E. Miller, campaigning through the Midwest corn belt, said today the Democrats failed to keep a single promise made to the farmers in their 1960 campaign.

The Republican vice presidential candidate made the accusation in what was billed as a major farm policy speech here. Although the speech was not scheduled to be delivered until this evening, Miller's campaign headquarters in Washington released the text long before the candidate reached Des Moines.

The Republican congressman hammered away at farm problems, with sideswipes at President Johnson and Democratic vice presidential candidate Hubert Humphrey, in a hard day of campaigning which included stops at Kearney, Neb., Topeka, Kan., and Lincoln, Neb. At Kearney State College, he told a rain-dampened crowd of 3,000 that he noted Sen. Humphrey "has resigned as chairman of the ADA (Americans for Democratic Action) . . . and I wonder if he will now resign as running mate for President Johnson."

Cites Farm Surpluses

Miller has made Humphrey's ADA membership a favorite campaign topic. He said the Minnesotan still remains a member of ADA and added "I wonder whether he agrees or disagrees with any or all of the policies of the ADA, and if so what points he may agree or disagree on as a member."

Miller said Humphrey has said "many times in his philosophy that he stands for half a loaf, a bargain or a compromise, or, in other words, take what you get. But I wonder if he would take the whole loaf if he had a chance."

Switch Hailed As Big Boost In The South

ATLANTA (UPI) — Southern Republicans today hailed a report that Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-E. C., had decided to switch allegiance to the GOP. Democrats generally withheld comment, awaiting Thurmond's official announcement.

"This is a very significant breakthrough in support of Senator Goldwater" said Virginia GOP Chairman Robert Corber. "It will encourage all conservatives to support Senator Goldwater, certainly it will encourage all conservatives to withhold support for President Johnson."

South Carolina Republican Chairman J. Drake Edens said he long had hoped that Thurmond would join the GOP. "He is a great conservative. He belongs to us," Edens said.

"I'm overjoyed to hear the news," said Roscoe Pickett, Georgia's GOP national committeeman. "I think it's a fine thing."

Sen. Strom Thurmond will bolt the Democratic party tonight and become a Republican supporting Sen. Barry Goldwater for president.

Says It Would Be Possible With Efficiency

Gavin Blames Demos On Bonus

Republican gubernatorial candidate Bob Gavin, addressing Dunn Legionnaires and other citizens at the Legion's Four-County Fair here Tuesday night, declared veterans in North Carolina are being denied a bonus because of inefficiency, waste and big spending of Democratic administrations.

"They'd rather spend the taxpayers money getting themselves re-elected and trying to perpetuate a one-party system than to reward veterans and families of veterans who fought and died for them on the battlefields," said Gavin.

"The present financial condition of the State won't allow a bonus for you now and we can never hope for a veterans' bonus until the politicians in Raleigh quit throwing away your money and build up a surplus to strengthen our State financially."

Gavin, introduced by City Councilman O. W. (Bill) Godwin, county GOP chairman, said the way to insure a veterans' bonus and money for other worthwhile things is to build up a strong two-party system that would bring about an end to waste, extravagance and inefficiency.

The speaker also championed State's rights and called on veterans to continue their fight against Communism.

Declaring that "nobody hates Communism more than I do," Gavin reminded that he was the district attorney who successfully convicted Communist Julius Seales, who was sent to prison for

"Greatest Sideshow Act Ever"

Bobby & The Beatles

ALBANY, N. Y. (UPI) — Sen. Kenneth B. Keating says Robert F. Kennedy, his Democratic opponent for U. S. senator from New York, provides the best entertainment in the Empire State since the Beatles.

Keating took his campaign to Albany County Republican picnic.

"I am sure you won't mind if I break into your festivities with a few words about the biggest visiting act to hit our state since the Beatles," Keating told the crowd.

"I call it, 'Bobby, Buckley and the Bosses.'"

Rep. Charles A. Buckley of the Bronx, one of the leading Democratic powers in New York was one of the first of the Democratic leaders to endorse Kennedy's candidacy.

"Buckley and the other Democratic bosses have wheeled their imported star onto the stage, and cast him in one of the highest roles any true New Yorker could aspire to," Keating said.

"But we all know that the real role they have in mind for him is to make the entire Democratic party of this state a boss-ridden machine."

"Well, the voters of New York State are very discerning critics. They'll take a look at something new, and my Senate opponent may be humming the 'Lullaby of Broadway' now. But I'm confident that in November they'll have him singing 'Carry Me Back to Ole Virginia.'"

"I have challenged my opponent to debate my record of service to the people of New York, but he refused to do so.

"His position is shocking."
