

New C of C Chapter Gets Charter

The Battle of Averasboro Chapter 2320 U.D.C. held its annual Founders Day-Charter Day dinner meeting Tuesday, 7 p.m., Sept. 8, at the banquet hall of Mary Stewart Community Building on 301 north.

Special guests of honor was the Chapter's Auxiliary Chapter: The Lt. Col. Robert de Treville Chapter 630, Children of the Confederacy, Dunn.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Olen McLeod, who introduced them to the receiving line which was composed of Mrs. Melvin J. Weeks, Chapter President, Mrs. LeRoy C. Paul, N. C. Div. U.D.C. Treasurer, Mrs. Henry W. Whittington, Music Director, Dist. 7, Mrs. Thomas E. Ralph Chapter 2nd Vice President and Sr. director of Lt. Col. Robert de Treville Chapter of Children of the Confederacy, Miss Pamela Lee, President of the Lt. Col. Robert de Treville Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, member recipient of Jefferson Davis Medal, Clifton Bukovsky and his mother Mrs. George Bukovsky, Baltimore, Md., Mr. & Mrs. Harry Lundberg, Farmington, Michigan.

Mr. Bukovsky and Mrs. Lundberg are members of the Battle of Averasboro Chapter U. D. C.

Guests of honor were presented with cotton ball corsages which were effective in their beauty.

The decorations of the hall were most impressive and beautiful carrying out the red, white, and blue color scheme. A piano in each corner of the hall was banked with magnolia greenery and cotton balls. A buffet held a vast arrangement of red, white and blue snappers, white mums, flanked and banked by magnolia, greenery and cotton balls. Interspersed in the flowers and greenery were artistic arrangements of miniature Confederate flags.

On each side of floral arrangement rested the framed, encaused Charters of the Battle of Averasboro Chapter U. D. C. 2320 and the Lt. Col. Robert de Treville Chapter 630 Children of the Confederacy.

The guests found their places at the table by white place cards. The speakers table, of the U shaped linen covered table, was centered with a low, but profuse, Red, white and blue floral arrangement similar to the one on the buffet. This arrangement was flanked by miniature Napoleon cannon replicas of those used in the Battle of Averasboro. These were further flanked by larger ceramic cannon bearing the insignia of the Stars and Bars.

Mrs. Weeks, Chapter President, welcomed the guests. Invocation was given by Miss Virginia Pittard. A three course dinner was served after which the president called the meeting to order and led the U.D.C. Ritual. The Star Spangled Banner was sung by the assembly and was followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the U. S., the Salute to the Flag of North Carolina and the Salute to the Flag of the Confederacy which were led by Miss Barbara Dean Ralph. The group then sang Dixie, Mrs. Henry Whittington accompanied at the piano for the group singing.

Mrs. Della Bryant was recognized as the Chapter's only Real Daughter.

Mrs. LeRoy C. Paul, honorary chapter member and N. C. Div. U.D.C. Treas., brought a message on the Founding of the Patriotic Society, The United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Weeks represented the Chapter its Charter on the Chapter's 3rd birthday.

Miss S. Ivey was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Whittington when she sang "In the Woods the Maser Went" written by Sidney Lanier. George a poet and Confederate Warrior.

Mrs. Thomas Ralph was presented to the group as the senior advisor of the newly organized Lt. Col. Robert de Treville Chapter 630, Children of the Confederacy. She is 3rd. Vice President of the Battle of Averasboro Chapter U.D.C.

The members of the Children's Chapter came forward as the charter roll was called, when assembled. Mrs. Ralph presented their certificates of membership.
