TEXAS PLOT TO KILL LBJ BARED

THESE LITTLE THINGS

By Hoover Adams
DALLAS ALL FOR DAN; OTHER LITTLE NOTES
Ed Alexander was no stranger when he returned to Dunn last night as District Governor of Rotary International to address the local club. He served as a cotton buyer here for Johnson Cotton Co. before going to Red Springs. He's the mayor of that town and has attained a number of other honors. State Senator Robert Morgan and Mrs. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Carver represented Harnett at the Vance-Aycock dinner in Asheville Saturday. A large number of local Democrats are expected to attend the Third District rally at Coldsboro tomorrow. Senator Morgan, busy as always, has a number of speaking engagements this week for gubernatorial nominee Dan Moore.

Hundreds Urging Him To Do So Will Lake Endorse Goldwater

WINSTON - SALEM (UPI) — The Winston-Salem Journal aroused speculation today that defeated Democratic candidate for governor I. Beverly Lake might be preparing to endorse Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater. The Journal, in an article by political writer Bill Connelly, said a statement from Lake on behalf of Goldwater might follow a weekend visit from Sen. Strom Thurmond, the South Carolinian who switched from the Democratic to Republican Party. Connelly's dispatch quoted Lake as saying he might have a statement on the presidential race "within a few days."

Arrest Stops Marriage To 12th Has 11 Wives

MESSINA, Sicily (UPI) — Meek-looking Aldo Donati, 42, was arrested in church. Police said the wedding could not go on because he already had been married 11 times and never divorced. His bride-to-be, a 24-year-old schoolteacher, saved herself the embarrassment of being left standing at the altar. She fainted. That was last weekend. Donati maintained a steadfast silence in jail today but fascinating police reports about him were coming in from elsewhere. Police said that at various times Donati had passed himself off as a doctor, space scientist, German army officer and Hungarian refugee.

Third Negro To Win Nobel Prize For King

OSLO, Norway (UPI) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., American Negro civil rights leader, won the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize today. King, the leader of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), became the 12th American and the third Negro to win the award. King's candidacy was sponsored by political figures in Europe and the United States and by newspapers of all political leanings in Norway. The Nobel Prize winner is appointed by the Norwegian National Assembly. It is made from a secret list of 20 to 30 names. Other names reported to have been on this year's list were those of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, former British Prime Minister Lord Avon Sir Anthony Eden, French President Charles de Gaulle and former West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. At 35, King also was one of the youngest men ever to win the prize.

Caught By Federal Agents Nominee For JP Arrested At Still

A 36-year-old justice of the peace nominee was captured by federal agents at an illegal distillery site in Barbecue Township Monday. He is Daniel McDougald Jagers, Broadway, Rt. 1, who is assured of election as justice of peace of the Barbecue Township in November, since he has no Republican opposition. Jagers has a lengthy court record. SURPRISE TO PARTY A Democratic Party leader said today that party officials had been caught by surprise when Jagers filed for the magistrate's post. "He apparently took advantage of the fact that nobody else had filed for the office and paid his filing fee at the last minute," he pointed out. Alcohol and Tobacco Tax unit agents and Harnett County Constable L. L. Holder reportedly captured Jagers as he drove away from the still in a 1958 model car. The officers said they found a case of non-tax-paid whiskey in the auto. R. L. Chadwick, agent in charge, ATT office, Fayetteville, said the still was located off rural paved road 1229 near Jagers' home. The officers destroyed the still equipment, 700 gallons of mash and 2 1/2 gallons of whiskey. Aiding in the raid were ATT agents Ray Hart and Don Alphin. (Continued on Page Six)

Two Arrested Had Arsenal Third Sought

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (UPI) — A reported threat to assassinate President Johnson led sheriff's deputies Tuesday night and today to an arsenal including weapons as big as a field mortar and a collection of Nazi relics. The deputies arrested Julius Schmidt, 29, a plumber and gun trader, and another unidentified man who worked on guns. Deputies and police still sought the man who made the reported threat — a former mental patient believed to be in the Corpus Christi area. "I do not believe there was a plot to kill the President, but I do think that one individual made such a statement to kill the President to an informant I trust 100 percent," Sheriff Johnnie Mitchell said today. President Johnson is due in Corpus Christi Sunday to make a campaign speech.

Two Not Involved

Mitchell said Schmidt and the other man arrested were not involved in a plot. He said his informant told him that the man who threatened the President intended to buy a gun from Schmidt but had not made the attempt. Schmidt was arrested to cut off the man's "source of supply." Mitchell said the man wanted a "fully automatic weapon" and he will look for three or four other persons who have automatic weapons.

Find Many Weapons

In his Swastika-bedecked home, deputies found a machine gun, a field mortar, a rocket launcher, boxes of hand grenades, a loaded pistol, five high-powered rifles — one with a telescopic sight — and 20,000 rounds of ammunition. The deputies also found a huge Swastika banner and other Nazi flags, World War II Nazi helmets, pictures of Adolf Hitler and other Nazi leaders. Mitchell said Schmidt's wife helped them search and showed them where to find weapons. She pulled a submachine gun from under her bed. Mitchell said all the weapons, except the submachine gun, were in "perfect working order."

Plugs For Bobby Kennedy In New York LBJ Pleads For Unity Today

ENROUTE WITH JOHNSON (UPI) — President Johnson called for national unity today as he began a two-day tour of three northern states in an attempt to extend his coalition to local candidates. The speech was the first of a series he will give in a tour of New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York today and Thursday. All the polls indicate Johnson already is a heavy favorite to pick up the 89 electoral votes of the three-state area. But some local candidates, particularly former Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, could use his help. Kennedy personally conceded that a private poll shows he is trailing Sen. Kenneth G. Keating, R-N.Y., in the race to represent New York in the U. S. Senate. In his opening speech of the tour Johnson concentrated on courting the heavy Republican majority in Bergen County, a suburb of New York City. "Americans do not want their land divided," Johnson said. "They do not want religion set against religion, religion turned against religion, race incited against race." He noted that he had returned earlier this week from a six-day, 9,998 mile trip from coast to coast and said he had obtained some feeling of what the people are thinking.

Dunn Students Honored

DAR Announces Four Good Citizens Four senior high school girls have been selected as DAR Good Citizens from their respective schools. This selection is made annually by the Cornelius Harnett Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. They are Margaret Ann Henry, Dunn; Tommleigh West, Erwin; Mary Laverne Johnson, Buies Creek; and Janice Elizabeth Taylor, Lillington. The announcement was made by the regent of the chapter, Mrs. Nathan M. Johnson, Sr. Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Henry of Dunn. She is a member of the Beta Club, Student Council, Latin Club and recipient of the DAR History Award. In addition, she has served as chief marshal, as a delegate to Girls' State, as president of the Senior Tri-Hi-Y, and as vice president of the FHA. Miss Henry plans to prepare for a teaching career at Meredith College. An active member of the First Baptist Church, Ann is president of the Young Woman's Auxiliary, a counselor for the Girl's Auxiliary and has served as director and deaconess of Youth Week Training Union.

Chosen Outstanding Senior Miss West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom West of Erwin, has maintained the highest scholastic average in the Erwin High School for the past three years. In addition to being voted "Best All Round" by the senior class, she was selected as one of the twelve outstanding seniors by the faculty. She has been on the honor roll consistently throughout high school, served as chief marshal her junior year, is co-editor of the annual and active in other school organizations.

Dunn Cadets Receive Honor

Three Dunn cadets at Staunton Military Academy in Staunton, Va. have been awarded a certificate as members of the famed Howie Rifle Honor Society at the renowned military school. They are: First Lieutenant Nathan Manley Johnson, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan M. Johnson, Jr.; First Lieutenant Luther Randolph (Randy) Dofferny, and his brother, First Sergeant Everette L. (Bubba) Dofferny, sons of Attorney and Mrs. Everette Dofferny.

All three of the popular Dunn youths have made outstanding records at Staunton. Membership in the Howie Rifle Honor Society is limited to 60 cadets who have completed at least one year at Staunton. Selection is based on conduct, military training, drill grades and leadership ability. The Society was established in March 1945 to perpetuate the ideals, leadership and courage exemplified by Major Thomas D. Howie, 116th Infantry, 29th Division, a former instructor at Staunton Military Academy, was killed. (Continued On Page Six)

News Roundup

MIAMI (UPI) — Hurricane Isbell mounted 100 mile an hour winds in a strike across the Florida keys today but its peak fury apparently missed the population centers in the island chain. Western Cuba, where the season's sixth hurricane crossed late Tuesday, counted at least four dead and heavy property damage.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The sale of personal possessions of the late Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt by two of her children brought $148,764.50.

Predicts LBJ Victory In N. C.

Terry Says Barry Just A Hypocrite SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — Gov. Terry Sanford of North Carolina says Barry Goldwater "is totally hypocritical" in the field of race relations. Sanford, attending the Southern Governors Conference here, said Tuesday that Goldwater was appealing for votes in the South on the basis of his vote against the civil rights bill. At the same time, Sanford told a news conference, he was campaigning on his record as a worker for civil rights "and citing the fact that he is a contributing member to the NAACP."

"This is a contemptible maneuver and is insulting to the intelligence of the people of the South," said the Tar Heel governor. "He is totally hypocritical on this matter and if he is hypocritical in general as he is on this, then we haven't got much to go on." Sanford predicted that President Johnson would poll 55 per cent of the vote in North Carolina and that only Mississippi and Alabama were likely to go for Goldwater in the South.

Erwin Baptists Plan Big Homecoming

Erwin First Baptist Church will have Homecoming Day Sunday. Plans have been made for the special services by the pastor, Rev. Doug Farmer. Sunday School will be at 9:45; morning worship service at 11:00. The Rev. Jack Byrd, a former member, now pastor of the First Baptist Church in Wallburg will bring the morning message. Following morning services, lunch will be spread by everyone. Rev. Byrd, formerly of Erwin, married the former Juanita Hasty of Erwin and has two children. Educated at Erwin Public School, he attended Campbell College, received his B. A. from Wake Forest, and the B. D. from Southern Baptist Seminary. He also served on the General Board of the Baptist State Convention for four years from the Alleghany Association. The Rev. Thomas C. Faircloth, also a former member of the church will bring the afternoon message. Rev. Faircloth married the former Doris Mae Darter of Harrodsburg, Kentucky. They have two children. He was educated at Erwin High School, received his Bachelor of Arts from Wake Forest College, the Bachelor of Divinity Degree from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky., Master of Theology Degree from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1954. He is presently Minister of the Church. (Continued On Page Six)

Judd Jailed In Slaying

John Lee Judd, a Barbecue Township Negro of about 30, is being held without bond in Lillington on a charge of murder in the death of Sherrill Bass, 20-year-old Fayetteville Negro who was found dead of bullet wounds in the Pineview community about midnight Saturday. Judd is charged with murdering Bass with a 25 automatic pistol following a party in a home off NC 27. He was pronounced dead on arrival when taken to Lee County Hospital.

YANKES WIN

ST LOUIS (UPI) — Back-to-back home runs by Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle and a grand slam homer by Joe Pepitone carried the New York Yankees to an 8-3 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals today to tie the World Series at three games and set the stage for a deciding seventh game tomorrow.
