Harnett Club Council Meets At Lillington

The Onslow County Council meeting of the Home Demonstration clubs was held on Oct. 14 at Lillington. Forty-two club members were present representing fifteen clubs. The Lillington club had all the four club officers present.

Mrs. Mack Hudson, president of the council, presided.

Mrs. E. D. McDonald, Mrs. Vernon Sykes and Mrs. M. M. Jernigan gave a report of Home Makers Week. Mrs. Sykes also reported about the State Music Workshop which she attended. She won the scholarship which is given each year to women interested in music. It is a reward for outstanding leadership.

Mrs. Mack Hudson gave a report of the State Council meeting and the State meeting of Home Demonstration clubs. She emphasized that there are only two Home Economics Extension Agents in the county; their services are for all the home makers in the county. More people must be reached and the Home Demonstration club members must assist the Agents in reaching new audiences.

Mrs. Robert Kinton, International Relations Chairman, gave suggestions for the clubs to use in the observance of United Nations Day and week.

Mrs. Bettie E. Giles, Assistant Home Economics Extension Agent, asked the club members to assist in raising the 4-H Development fund for the county. The clubs will make a report at the January meeting.

A memorial service was held for Miss Lula Green, a Friendly Club member who passed away in September and Mrs. Alice Morgan, who died in the spring.

Other items of business were the plans for the Achievement, a music workshop in November and the reward for perfect attendance at club meetings.
