Her Daughter And Grandson

Woman Slays

A 44-year-old Negro Woman fatally wounded her daughter and infant grandson here late Monday night before shooting herself to death in what authorities ruled as "a plain case of a double murder and suicide."

Harnett Coroner W. A. (Bill) Warren said Mrs. Cora Riley fired two bullets into the body of 17-year-old Janice Jacobs, the daugitter, poured seven bullets into the body of Janice's 13-month-old son, Tony, and then shot herself ence in 'he mouth,

Four other bullet's from the eight - chamber ,22 calibre pistol went through the house trailer in which the three lived, located north of town on East Surles St.

Miraculously, the baby was still alive when the other two bodies were found at 8;30 this morning but died a few minutes later in Betsy Johnson Memorial Hospital. Bloody Scene

Police Chief Alton Cobb, Policeman J. L. Jackson and Coroner Warren all agreed the shooting must have taken place about 11 pm. Bodies of the two women were riff, rie bod'es were found by the grandmother's sister, Mrs. Louise Clark, who phoned police at 8:30. Chief Cobb said upon arrival they found a bloody, grizzly scene. Mrs. Riley's body was found lying on the kitchen floor, the pistol on the floor seneath her gown, the daughter's body was on the bad and the baby was lying on a folding couch. Two buliets had entered the daughter's chest, one passing through her left breast. The baby and been shot once in the head, twice in the chest, twice in the abdomen, once above the pelvis bone and the other in its lower
