Doin' The Town

With Lucille May

Have you ever seen a running kra about 12 inches long? Or a 'oot long butter bean or even a 'unning squash that measures 41 inches?

H. A. Feany of Route 1, Benson, has grown all three of this type vegetable and has raised butter beans that grew as long as 18 inches. The squash is very good when cooked young, he said. He will have seeds next year for the quash if anyone is interested. Mr. Feany, who takes pride in his garden, will be 80 years young February 4.

STAMP DRIVE — Members of the Edith Pope Circle of the Gospel Tabernacle Church are busy at work collecting Gold Bond stamp books. The purpose of their campaign is to obtain a bus for the Falcon Orphanage. Many, many books are needed. Mrs. Irene Reister said, and persons having any stamps or books to donate are asked to contact Mrs. C. A. Robertson.

New officers of the Erwin Jayettes will be elected at a meeting Monday night at the JC hall. Mrs. Leo Ammons has urged 'PN's in Area 17 (Harnett, Johnston, Sampson and Cumberland counties) to attend the group's meeting Monday at 7:30 in the fellowship hall of Hood Memorial Christian Church. It was previously announced that they would meet Tuesday. Plans will be made for the group's Christmas party.

Dunn Jaytees are planning a paper drive on November 15. Chicora Country Club will have a Halloween costume ball Saturday night with The Southerners from Lumberton playing for the dance. A dance will also be held at the Moose Lodge the same night. About 100 women golfers vied for prizes at the big one-day tourney at the country club yesterday.

The Chicora ladies entertained their guests at a luncheon at noon in Raleigh, Smithfield, Sanford and Clinton were few of the towns represented. Mrs. Marvin Hartley is expected to be discharged from Rex Hospital on Saturday, but will stay with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Laws, in Raleigh while recuperating. Mrs. Polly

Alien is bubbling over with joy. She became a grandmother Monday when her daughter, Mrs. Linda Sue Warren gave birth to a daughter. Now all she has to do is go through it all again (anytime now) with Mrs. Freddie Tew. Rev. J. Edward Johnson celebrated his 60th birthday Thursday. Juniors and seniors will canvass the town Monday and Tuesday nights selling Christmas cards. Remember, only 47 more shopping days 'til Christmas.

Elected District Official

Mrs. A. C. Parker of Dunn has been elected vice-president of the Ninth District of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs at its annual meeting last week at the First Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville.

Over 120 women from fourteen Women's clubs and six Junior Women's clubs represented Cumberland, Harnett, Hoke, Lee, Moore, and Richmond Counties.

The theme, Gathering of Clans, was accentuated by the wearing of plaid caps and shawls. Following the welcome by the mayor, the Rev. J. W. Summerell, pastor, led in the devotion which opened the morning session.

District officers are Mrs. C. Wallace Jackson, Fayetteville, president; Mrs. Parker, vice-president; Mrs. D. M. Wood, Hamlet, secretary; Mrs. T. E. Erown, Fayetteville, Director of Juniors; Mrs. Fred B. Bunch, Jr. is the N. C. President and Mrs. Morton Union is Junior Director of the state organization.

In the afternoon session, district awards were made. The 1965 Ninth District meeting will be held in Carthage, hosted by Carthage, Cameron, and West End Clubs.

The Fayetteville High School Scottish Dancers presented a dance program. Mrs. W. Scott Gilmer arranged a craft show which was on display in the fellowship hall.

Following the afternoon session, the meeting was adjourned with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne". Mrs. Howard Dixon, president of Dunn's Women's Club and Mrs. Parker, an active member of the local club, represented Dunn at the meeting. Mrs. Dixon served as chaplain for the district meeting; Mrs. Parker was presented as the District's new vice-president.
