Five months of negotiations with French officials were necessary before all the roadblocks could be cleared to bring TV cameras into the Louvre which houses the greatest of all art treasures. In a sharp break with precedent, the matchless beauty and historical grandeur of the Louvre will be seen on TV, in this country, for the first time in an hour-long color special "The Louvre" narrated by Charles Boyer on Tuesday, Nov. 17.

Bob Hope received a special plaque from the Will Rogers Memorial Commission as "the one humorist who comes closest to filling Will Roger's shoes." The presentation, made at the close of the Tulsa Center benefit show for the University of Oklahoma, marked the first time the commission has honoris just recording actual history — not written fiction — when he tells of the adventures of the clan Cartwright. "Many times," Dortort said, "while visiting in Virginia City, Nevada, I have had oldtimers tell me how they used to know "old Ben and his boys." They'll spend hours telling me about witnessing the actions of the Cartwrights when they were just lads. Some even offer to introduce me to Hoss's grandson, or to drive me out and show me where the old ranch house stood one hundred years ago"

Michael Landon, who stars as Little Joe Cartwright, reported that many people he meets on personal appearance tours believe that Lorne Greene is his father and that Dan Blocker and Pernell Roberts are his brothers.

"The fact that we all have different last names doesn't faze them a bit," said Landon. "After six years of watching us on television every Sunday night they are convinced that we are all blood relatives."

Thousands of letters pour in each week from all parts of the world — and a great deal of it is addressed simply to "The Cartwrights the Ponderosa Ranch." Most of the mail finds its way to the "Bonanza" office in Hollywood, but every month or so the postmaster of Ponderosa, New Mexico, wraps up a bundle of letters that have wound up there and ships them to Lorne Greene, the series' Ben Cartwright.

Dan Blocker, who portrays Hoss, said that at least once a day he will find among his fan letters a request for permission to "stop by the Ponderosa and meet you fellas while we're on vacation."

Beatles To Appear On Special Program

The Beatles, following their triumphant appearance last month on "Shindig," will return to American television Sunday, Nov. 15, as the stars of an hour-long ABC-TV special produced by Jack Good, who also produces ABC-TV's "Shindig."

The four reigning monarchs of modern melody — John Lennon, Paul McCartney, Ringo Starr and George Harrison — will be joined in the rousing songs-and-dancing special by a number of other top-notchers in the world of "young music," including Millie Small, Cilla Black, P. J. Proby, Long John Baldry, Sounds, Inc., The Vernon Girls and The Jets.
