Women Of Moose Auxiliary Enrolled, Officers Installed Sunday Afternoon

In an impressive ceremony Sunday afternoon at the Dunn-Erwin Moose Lodge, the newly organized Women of the Moose Auxiliary was enrolled and the officers installed.

The instituting officer was Mrs. Gladys Jenkins, a past state regent and a member of the Burlington Women of the Moose chapter. Several of her co-workers assisted her with the ceremonial.

Officers of the auxiliary are Mrs. Kitty Gray, junior graduate regent; Mrs. Janet Page, senior regent; Mrs. Annie Laurel Cox, junior regent; Mrs. Lois McDonald, recorder; Mrs. Peggy Denning, treasurer; Mrs. Agnes Warren, chaplain; Mrs. Hazel Vinson, guide; Mrs. Ida Kay Godwin, Argus; Mrs. Betty Holland, sentinel; Mrs. Edna Tart, pianist; Mrs. Evelyn Langston, ritual director.

Committee heads include Mrs. Lorrena Jackson, membership; Mrs. Norma Ennis, social service; Mrs. Betty Connolly, homemaking; Mrs. Doris Darden, hospital chairman; Mrs. Frances Jackson, Mooseheart; Mrs. Lena Ruth Taylor, Moosehaven; Mrs. Lucille

May, publicity; Mrs. Peggy Fowler, child care.

Dignitaries spoke to the group and explained the purpose of the Moose which is to support Mooseheart and Moosehaven. Mooseheart, located in Florida, is a home for aged Moose members and Mooseheart in Illinois, a home for children, which also supports wives and families of deceased Moose members.

A social hour followed the ceremony and at 6:00 that night, about 200 members and their families attended a supper.

In North Carolina... beer is a natural

When you're relaxing at your favorite outdoor beauty spot with friends or family, and your thirst's whetted by fresh air and exercise—that's the ideal time for a cool, refreshing glass of beer. In fact, you can name your recreation—swimming, hiking, or just watching TV—and chances are nothing in the world fits it quite as well as beer.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In North Carolina... beer goes with fun, with relaxation

A pink and white color scheme and burning white tapers was used in decorating. A pink and white bouquet of mums centered the refreshment table which was covered with white linen and pink net. The piano also held an arrangement of mums.

Mrs. Floyd Johnson poured punch while wedding cookies, open face sandwiches and nuts were served buffet.

Miss Lee was given a pink mum corsage by the hostesses.

UDC Entertains At Tea On Saturday

The Chicora Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, entertained the ladies of the Confederate Women's Home in Fayetteville on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. A. F. Pope, president of the chapter, welcomed them to the annual tea, which is one of the highlights of the chapter year. She recognized Mrs. E. R. McKeithan of Fayetteville, chairman of the Confederate Women's Home Board; Mrs. Hughes, the home hostess; and Mrs. Euzelia Doffernyre and Mrs. Bertie Bell, chapter visitors from Dunn.

The program for the occasion, arranged by Mrs. Reta Whitten, music chairman, featured the following artists, Miss Pattle Lou Williford, Miss Becky Hill, Miss Gelia Marshburn, Miss Carolyn Hildreth, Miss Elaine Bryant, Miss Betsy Carroll and Norwood Genevieve. They delighted the audience with their renditions of selections of southern music, Thanksgiving hymns and dramatic readings. Self accompanied on his guitar, Mr. Genevieve's numbers were reminiscent of the old south. Group singing of "Carolina" and "Dixie" was enjoyed, also.

From the refreshment table covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow and bronze mums, Miss Bessie Bailey poured punch and Mrs. I. F. Hicks served decorated cake and cheese biscuits. The group of young people assisted them in serving and passing candies and fruits to the guests. Each home guest was presented a gift.

Chapter members attending were Mrs. A. F. Pope, Miss Bessie Bailey, Mrs. R. L. Warren, Mrs. Meta Godwin, Mrs. Kinney Oakley, Miss Lucille Jernigan, Mrs. James Best and Mrs. I. F. Hicks.
