

Byrd - Barfoot Vows Spoken In Benson

The wedding of Miss Billie Joyce Byrd and David Marshall Barefoot Jr took place Sunday, November 15, at 3 o'clock in Johnson Memorial Church near Benson.

Dr. Harvey W. English, pastor of the bride, heard the vows for the double-ring ceremony, which were spoken in a setting of palms, cathedral candelabra, and baskets of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. James Floyd Langley, cousin of the bride, presented the traditional wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Willie Byrd of Route 1, Angier. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. David Marshall Barefoot of Route 3, Four Oaks.

The couple entered the church together. The bride wore a white dress with matching jacket. Her headpiece was of white fur with a circular veil. She carried a white Bible, given to her by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Sally Langdon, on her twelfth birthday, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Gradford Barbour of Route 1, Angier, was the bride's only attendant. She was attired in a pink wool suit with headpiece of matching net and bows. She carried a white and pink nosegay of carnations with ivy streamers.

The bridegroom's cousin, Tommy Barefoot of Route 1, Clayton, and Gradford Barbour of Route 1, Angier, were the ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Byrd chose a three-piece knit suit of spruce green with which she wore matching accessories and a white chrysanthemum corsage.

Mrs. Barefoot, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a three-piece wool suit of traditional blue with which she wore matching accessories and a white chrysanthemum corsage.

Mrs. B. R. Wise, maternal grandmother of the bridegroom, was attired in a blue dress with which she wore matching accessories and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

The bride was graduated from Cleveland High School in 1961 and is employed in a secretarial position with Brittain's of Raleigh.

The bridegroom was graduated from Four Oaks High School in 1960 and is employed with the Advance Stores of Raleigh.

For travel the bride changed into a two-piece emerald green suit. She used matching accessories and the orchid lifted from her Bible.

Following a wedding trip to Eastern North Carolina the couple planned to reside on Route 1, Angier.

Pamela Hawley Is Bride Of Larry Naylor

Miss Pamela Jean Hawley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hawley of Route 1, Godwin, and Larry Felton Naylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Felton Naylor of Route 2, Newton Grove, exchanged vows in a Thanksgiving Day ceremony at the Baptist Chapel Church. Officiating at the five o'clock rites were Rev. O. W. Pulley, a former pastor.

The vows were pledged at the altar which was flanked by arrangements of chrysanthemums and emerald palms alternated with seven branched candelabra holding burning yellow tapers.

Musicians for the wedding were Tommy Hawley of Dunn, cousin of the bride, organist, and Miss Jeanette Aman, also of Dunn and a cousin of the bride, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white bridal satin with scooped neckline and full pleated skirt with sweep train. It was designed with a lowered, pointed back waistline and long sleeves which terminated in points over the hands. Her headpiece was a crown of embroidered, iridescent sequins and seed pearls to which a tiered fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached. A lace covered Bible was topped with a white orchid and showered with tuberoses, stephanotis and white satin streamers.

Attendants
The matron of honor, Mrs. Colton Hall, Route 1, Godwin, cousin of the bride, wore a green satin dress with full skirt, scoop neckline and short sleeves. Her headpiece was circular net adorned with a cabbage rose. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and leather leafed with matching streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Debbie Hawley of Dunn, cousin of the bride; Miss Loretta Naylor, the bridegroom's sister; Miss Jean Tew of Dunn, cousin of the groom; and Miss Phyllis Hall of Salemburg, a cousin of the bride. They were dressed in gold satin dresses designed after that worn by the honoree; Honorary attendants, dressed in brown satin, were Miss Linda Tew and Miss Betty Jo Wrench of Raleigh, Miss Jean Jackson, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Elwood Tew, both of Atrypville, Miss Joan Naylor of Route 2, Newton Grove and Miss Janet Naylor of Raleigh, sisters of the groom.

The attendants wore matching circular net hats adorned with a cabbage rose. The bridesmaids carried colonial bouquets of bronze pom poms with talisman roses and brown streamers while the honorary attendants carried bronze and yellow pom poms made into colonial bouquets.

A niece of the groom, Miss Joni Croom of Route 2, Newton Grove, was the flower girl and Master Ricky Jackson of Dunn was the ringbearer.

Mr. Naylor was best man for his son and ushering were Kyle Hall of Salemburg and Jimmy Hawley of Dunn, cousins of the bride; William Perry of Route 2, Newton Grove and Luther Wilson of Newton Grove.

For the wedding Mrs. Hawley wore a logan green imported lace sheath with rounded neckline enhanced with iridescent sequins, matching shoes and hat of velvet leaves. The groom's mother chose a dress of gold brocade on grey with matching accessories. Corsages of white orchids complimented their attire.

The going away costume of the bride was a black mohair suit with mink collar. She wore black skin accessories and the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

The couple are honeymooning at the coast.

They will reside in Greenville where the groom is a junior at East Carolina College. He is a Midway High School graduate. His wife, a graduate of Clement High School, attended King's Business College in Raleigh.
