

42 Rescued In Leopoldville

Nuns Slain, Bodies Thrown Into River

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — Mercenary-led troops have rescued another 42 white survivors in rebel-held territory, authoritative sources said today. But they also learned of the murder of two more nuns, including an American.

McCroory Staff Receives Cash

Employees of the McCroory-McLellan-Green Variety Store (M-M-G) at 204-208 East Broad Street, Dunn, began their yuletide a little early this year with the distribution, on Friday, December 11, of cash Christmas gifts from their company.

The gifts were distributed by D. Garriss, manager of the store. Accompanying the gifts was a letter to employees from Samuel Neaman, president of M-M-G: "It is indeed a pleasure at this Christmas Season to join with your manager in saying 'Thank You' for your loyal, enthusiastic support and cooperation during the year 1964 and to extend sincere best wishes for a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year."

News of the latest killings, of an American nun identified only as Sister Marie Antoinette and a Belgian nun named Sister Marie Françoise, brought to 97 the number of whites executed by rebels since Belgian paratroopers landed in Stanleyville on a rescue mission Nov. 24.

Sister Marie Antoinette's name had not appeared so far on lists of Americans believed missing in rebel-controlled territory.

Throw In River
The bodies of the two nuns were thrown into the Congo River by "simba" rebel warriors, the sources said.

The 42 survivors were rescued Thursday by a mercenary patrol at Isangi and Yangambi on the Congo River about 63 miles from Stanleyville, they said.

A plane carrying 60 whites liberated at Nianara in the north was expected to arrive in Leopoldville from Paulis this afternoon.

Angier Man Wreck Victim

A 20-year-old Angier man was killed about six miles east of Fuquay Saturday morning in a two-car collision on N. C. 55.

Harold Brown was killed when his car collided with a car being driven by Herbert Sanders Jr., 26, of Rt. 3, Dunn.

A passenger in Brown's car Diniah Jean Dudley, 18, of Angier was reported in serious condition at Wake Memorial Hospital in Raleigh.

State Trooper William F. White said that Sanders' car, traveling west toward Angier, crossed over onto the left side of the road and crashed into Brown's car, which was heading in the opposite direction. Both cars were demolished.

White said that Sanders has been charged with manslaughter and driving on the wrong side of the road.

Brown is survived by his mother, Mrs. Osie G. Brown of Raleigh; two sisters, Mrs. Pattie Holden of Graham and Mrs. Margaret Hudson of Adelanto, Calif.; and two brothers, James Brown of Willow Springs, and Billy Brown of Raleigh.

INSTANT SEATS
WASHINGTON UPI—Eleven of the nation's airlines have combined their electronic reservations systems to give passengers instant seat availability no matter which carrier they are contacting.

The announcement Sunday meant that for the first time major airlines have agreed to use their data processing equipment to store each other's flight availability information.

Tar Heel Veterans To Get Dividends

More than 57,000 veterans in North Carolina will receive $2,761,400 in 1965 GI insurance dividends, according to J. D. DeRamus, manager of the North Carolina VA Regional Office, Winston-Salem, N. C.

The dividends will be paid between January 2 and January 10, 1965, VA insurance officials expect.

DeRamus said 3,268 veterans of World War I will receive $230,460, and 53,734 veterans of World War II will receive $2,541,000.

Throughout the nation, $224.5 million in dividends will be divided among 4,610,000 veterans, $210 million will go to about 4,400,000 World War II veterans who hold National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) policies, and $14.5 million will go to 210,000 World War I veterans holding U. S. Government Life Insurance (USGLI) policies.

Korean Conflict veterans hold non-participating policies that do not provide regular annual dividend payments.

The regular dividends are primarily a return to the policyholders of their premium payments since the death rate among GI policyholders continues to be lower than the rate upon which the payments were established by law.

DeRamus said the dividend payments will be prepared and mailed automatically to veterans or their families, and that no correspondence from policyholders is required.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stanley Register, Dunn, announce the birth of a daughter, Tracy Jeanline, Dec. 14, in Betsy Johnson Hospital. Mrs. Register is the former Lois Evelyn Raynor.
