

Granddaughter Of Dunn Lady Engaged

Stephen Williams Frontis of Greensboro announces the engagement of his daughter, Mary Celeste, and Robert Charles Zimmerman of Bellinzona, Switzerland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Zimmerman of Bellinzona.

The wedding is planned for June.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. Frontis and the late Kathryn Godwin Frontis and is a graduate of Grimsley High School and Salem Academy, Winston-Salem. She is a senior at Goucher College in Baltimore, Md., where she is majoring in English. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. Shelly Frontis of Mooresville and the late Dr. Frontis and Mrs. Robert L. Godwin of Dunn and the late Mr. Godwin.

Mr. Zimmerman is a graduate of Institute on the Rosenberg near St. Gall, Switzerland, and received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of California at Berkeley. His master of arts degree is from Syracuse University in New York and he is a doctoral candidate at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore.

The engagement announcement was made by Miss Frontis' father and stepmother at a dinner party.

Garden Club Has Holiday Party

The annual Christmas dinner of the House and Garden Club of Bules Creek began with the appetizer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dall.

Mrs. George Graham and Mrs. Charles Pulliam assisted Mrs. Dall.

For the next course, the group moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lasater Jr. where decorated tables were set in their family room. A buffet meal of pork ham, orange cups, lima beans, asparagus casserole and hot rolls was served the guests as they arrived. Those assisting Mrs. Lasater were Mrs. B. W. Jenkins, Mrs. Dan Linney, Mrs. Robert Morgan and Mrs. James Faison.

For the dessert course, the group moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Knight where the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Donald Keyser and Mrs. Robert King. Christmas tree ice cream molds, butterscotch brownies, nuts and chocolate covered mints were served with Russian tea and coffee in the dining room.

Dunn Couple Exchanges Vows Sunday

Miss Doris Lynn Naylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham W. Naylor of Route 1, Dunn, and Earl Dalton Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Pope of Route 5, Dunn, exchanged wedding vows in a double-ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at the Mingo Baptist Church.

Rev. Donald Price, pastor of the church, heard the vows before baskets of white chrysanthemums and greenery and white candles.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white brocade satin gown with fitted bodice and chapel train. The long sleeves terminated in points over the hands. Her elbow length veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a prayer book on which rested a white orchid.

Musicians for the wedding were Sherrill Williams of Newton Grove, vocalist, and Mrs. Ann Warren of Route 1, Dunn, organist.

ATTENDANTS

A green velveteen floor length gown with round neckline and cap sleeves was worn by the maid of honor, Miss Marinda Naylor, the bride's sister. She wore a circular veil attached to a velvet headpiece.

The bridesmaids were Miss Susan Naylor, sister of the bride; Mrs. Dorothy J. Barefoot of Route 5, Dunn, the groom's sister; Miss Patty Lee of Dunn; Miss Carolyn Farmer of Mt. Olive and Miss Marilyn Jernigan of Route 1, Godwin. They wore red velveteen gowns designed like that worn by the maid of honor.

All the attendants carried white carnations.

Mr. Pope was best man for his son and ushers were George Barefoot of Route 2, Dunn; Roy Jackson of Route 1, Dunn; Jimmy Starling of Route 1, Godwin; Robert Barefoot of Route 5, Dunn, and Harry Wade of Erwin.

For travel the bride wore an olive green suit with gold hat and accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. They will make their home on Route 5.

Mrs. Naylor wore for her daughter's wedding an ivory brocade dress with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage. A gold metallic dress with accessories to match was worn by the bridegroom's mother. She wore a white orchid corsage.

A graduate of Midway High School, Mrs. Pope plans to continue her education at East Carolina College. Her husband, an employee of Johnson Cotton Co., was also graduated from Midway High School.

CAKE CUTTING

After the rehearsal on Saturday evening, a cake cutting was given by paternal aunts of the bride.

The bride's mother served the wedding cake after the couple had cut the traditional first slice. Punch was poured by Mrs. Pope. Guests served themselves nuts, mints and ham biscuits.

LUNCHEON

Mrs. Bobbie Honevutt entertained the bride-elect with a luncheon on Saturday at her home on Route 5. Guests were present including the wedding attendants who were remembered with gifts by Miss Naylor.

SHOWER

On Thursday, November 26, Miss Naylor was honored with a lovely miscellaneous shower at Mingo Church's fellowship hall. The hostesses served assorted delicacies with punch to the fifty guests present.

Maternal aunts of the bride were hostesses.

Large Crowd Gathers For Chicora Dance

The 7th, 8th, and 9th grade group had a Christmas party and dance at the Country Club from 8:00 until 11:00 Monday night.

Providing music for the occasion were the Classmates from Bules Creek.

Refreshments consisting of potato chips, mints, assorted cookies, and pink punch were served to approximately 100 persons.

Chaperones for the dance were Mrs. Nathan Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Victor Anderson, and Mrs. W. A. Taylor.

Mrs. Currin Fetes Bridge Club

Mrs. Eloise Currin, entertained the Office Bridge Club at her home in Bules Creek for their Christmas party. As the guests arrived, they found their places at appointed tables with white cloths, a nosegay of white mums tied with red ribbon and white tapers in silver holders.

The home was decorated throughout in a green, red and white color scheme.

Chocolate pie and coffee were served first with cranberry punch, cheese wafers and mixed nuts passed during the evening.

The high scorer for the evening was Mrs. A. B. Johnson, who received kitchen towels. Yardley soap was the second high prize won by Miss Mabel Bean, and hand towels were given Mrs. James Faison who had low score.

Others attending the party were Mrs. William P. Lawrence, Mrs. Robert Morgan, Mrs. Milton Stephens, Mrs. Eugene Lasater, Jr., and Mrs. M. B. Matthews. After the conclusion of the bridge progression, the members exchanged Christmas gifts.
