GOP Wins City Hall For First Time Since 1945

V. Lindsay, a youthful an Goldwater Republican, today won his energetic bid to become mayor of the natiln's largest city, turning out an entrenched Democratic regime which blamed its defeat on a large Conservative vote.

A near-record turnout of more than 2.5 million voters enabled Lindsay to defeat Democratic city controller Abraham D. Beame by the closest margin in history to become the first Republican mayor since Fiorello LaGuardia. Lindsay, tall and handsome in the John F. Kennedy image, emerged as a po ential GOP presidential candidate in 1938 or 1972. Buckley Aids

Ironically, it may have been William F. Buckley candidate of the Conservative party which Lindsay said was out to "destroy" him who made election of the liberal congressman possible.

Buckley, an articulate, million aire editor who supported Goldwa er's presidential bid, ran a dis ant third. But in doing so captured sizeable votes in Irsh-Cath. olic and Italian districts which were
